A COLLAPSE.

The end of a disgraceful business was reached yesterday in South Carolina when on motion of District Attorney Melton the cases pending against citizens of that State charged with violating the United States election laws were stricken from the docket of the Federal Court...

These prosecutions were instituted by Attorney General Brewster who sent detectives down to work up the cases and followed them up with certain Philadelphia lawyers to investigate and report. In indictments were found on the evidence furnished and a number of respectable and prominent Democrats in several counties in the State were arraigned before the Federal courts, but in every instance tried, there was a signal failure to convict...

The untried cases were put off from time to time for the past two years, but in all this time the parties accused were harassed and put to much loss of time and money in attending court only to be sent home to come again. Previous to the spring term Judge Bond sent word that the cases would not be taken up this term, and now this is followed by striking all the cases from the docket, on motion of Mr. Melton, a confession that the government had no case, and just what ought to have been done at the first term of court when the cases came up.

Yesterday Boston paid tribute to the memory of Wendell Phillips, the famous anti-slavery agitator. The eulogy was delivered by George William Curtis, a gracefully written and happy tribute to the great mind, resolute will, and spotless integrity of the man who unselfishly devoted his life to the cause which is his young manhood espoused...

It is a glowing picture painted by a partial hand, and though we think it at times too highly colored, we make allowance for it because it is the work of one whose admiration of the living and veneration for the memory of the dead Phillips are boundless.

The Goldboro Messenger thinks that the contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor, lies between Scates and Gilmer. We beg to remind our valued contemporary that Col. Tom Holt might black somebody's eye yet before the campaign for the nomination is over.

A Georgia Freshet.

ROME, Ga., April 18.—Inquiries having been made concerning the reported flood here, the following is given as a correct statement: The lower portions of Rome were overflowed Wednesday. The flood lasted only one day and very little damage was done in the city. No lives were lost, no houses or stock destroyed. The damage to newly planted crops on the river bottoms must be considerable. The rivers are now everywhere within their banks.

Certain Evidence not to be Taken. WASHINGTON, April 18.—In the contested election case of Massey vs. Wise, of Virginia, the House committee on elections to day decided not to consider any testimony that is exclusively original in its character, taken by Massey in Charles City, Accomack County, Rockingham, Shenandoah, Washington and Norfolk counties, after the 30 days allowed by statute.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The Men to Win and the Platform to Fight on.

Editor CHARLOTTE OBSERVER. Allow us to suggest the following ticket for the consideration of the Democratic convention. For Governor.—Col. Tom M. Holt, of Alamance. For Lieut. Governor.—Col. D. Worthington, of Martin. For Secretary of State.—Samuel W. Hoke, of Mecklenburg. For Treasurer.—D. W. Bain, of Wake. For Auditor.—Col. Sam McD. Tate, of Burke. For Attorney General.—Thos. S. Keenan. For Superintendent Public Instruction.—J. C. Scarborough. These gentlemen will honor the positions. They will bring out our full strength. CATAWBA.

Our delay in sending the above has manifested one thing, and that is that the Democrats are certainly seeking "Samuel," of your city, for before we could have the honor of suggesting his name some one else has made the suggestion. Let us be so, let us put Samuel on the ticket. He is true Democrat, and ought to have rest from his mammoth business. Give us the above ticket, with THE OBSERVER platform on the tariff and revenue, and we will succeed. CATAWBA.

HONORING PHILLIPS.

A Large and Distinguished Attendance at the Memorial Services.

BOSTON, April 18.—The Wendell Phillips memorial services at Tremont Temple this afternoon, attracted a more notable audience than upon any similar occasion in Boston. The demand for tickets, if fully supplied, would have more than four times filled the space within the building. The assembly comprised many of the fellow-workers of the deceased orator, besides a distinguished gathering of ladies and gentlemen in sympathy with his philanthropic aims...

The old abolition party was represented by Eliza Wright, L. M. Alcott, Rev. A. L. Loring, Rev. J. W. Higginson, Abby W. May, Rev. J. A. Freeman, Clark, Julia W. Howe, William Lloyd Garrison, J. E. Blackwell and John G. Whitier. The other representative personages were Rev. Edw. Everett Hale, Rev. Phillips Brooks, T. B. Aldrich, W. D. Howells, E. P. Whipple, President Justin Winsor, librarian of Harvard College, Wm. Endicott, Jr., H. P. Kidder, R. H. Dana, and Robt. C. Winthrop. The exercises began at 3 o'clock, p. m., with organ voluntary followed by quartette, "Loyal to the End."

Collector Wicker's Case.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The President's recommendation that Collector Wicker, of Key West, be removed for active sympathy with the Cuban insurgents, was again under consideration in the executive session of the Senate today. A telegram from Collector Wicker denying the charge was read by Senator Jones, of Florida. The hour previously fixed for the session was extended to 10 o'clock, p. m., with organ voluntary followed by quartette, "Loyal to the End."
