that it is much easier to secure delegates to a National convention than to hold them after they get there. 5 cents.

Of the six delegates at large elected to represent the State of Pennsylvania in the National convention only two, it is said, are sincere Blaine men, and of the remaining four, two were chosen in the face of a distinct refusal to pledge themselves in favor of any particular candidate.

Our Washington letter published to-day gives the latest in the case of Collector Wheeler of the 5th district. What a lovely time the loyal are having over the flesh pots in that district. As this is a family row in which Republicans only are figuring, it is interesting if not edifying.

The New York Hour thinks there ought to be a protective tariff to protect American girls from competition in the marriage market with import-Republicans shall hold office. He was ed European girls. If there is anydisposed to back Logan because he thing in this country that is entirely was friendly to Logan, and Logan competent to take care of itself, it is depend probably in a great measure was an Illinois man. But it seems the American girl.

SALEM GLEANINGS.

Another [Hotel---Suicide---New Factories, Marital Splicings, Etc.

Correspondence of THE OBSERVER. SALEM, N. C., April 18.—Captain Robert Belo has, I learn, contracted with a builder to have the large "Belo building" on Main street converted into a hotel.

Coroner Wm. Barrows was called to hold an inquest over the remains of Elisha Stafford, near Kernersville, Forsyth county, on Wednesday. The verdict of the jury was that Stafford's death was caused by his own hands. Shaffner & Hannah's new tobacco factory in Salem is now in the hands of the tinner and in a few days will be under roof.

Dr. Jas. A. Butner is making preparations for building his new factory, and work will be begun at an early day. go Workmen have been engaged in getting the walls on the interior of the Moravian church ready for fres-Illinois delegation, and further than that, he is serving his last term in coing.

ABOUT THE STATE. The Episcopal Convention of the Diocese of East Carolina, will meet at Washington, N. C., on the 14th of

May. Col. A. M. Waddell, of Wilming-ton, will deliver the literary address at the commencement of Laurinburg High School, the 12th of June.

Elisha Stafford was found dead in his bed at his home two miles from Kernersville last Tuesday evening. The coroner's verdict was that "the deceased came to his death by his own hands."

Salisbury Examiner: The little steamer, Alice, heretofore run on the French Broad, will soon be plying the Yadkin from the North Carolina Railroad bridge to Mr. Geo. Swicegood's dam.

The State Chronicle's "Traveler says: "I saw the other day a good large Methodist church in Haywood county, near Pigeon river, that was built, shingles, pulpit, pews and all, from the timbers obtained from one tree that grew on Pigeon river.'

Wilmington Star: There are ominous signs of discontent, disorder and de-moralization in the Republican camp hereabouts. There is evidently a storm brewing, and whether it will attain to the dimensions of a political cyclone or only assume the proportions of an ordinary "breeze," will upon the turn future events may take.

Morganton Mountaineer: Rev. N. B. Cobb has just had registered the deed for a beautiful church site in Glen Alpine and secured a subscription of $325 towards building a neat Baptist church thereon.—A little negro girl, daughter of Toney Pearson, was burned to death last Saturday on the premises of W. E. Powe, Esq. The child fired its clothing and ran out into the yard, where it was burned to dcath before it could be rescued.

Asheville Citizen: On Friday Burgess Hensley got into a dispute with Ephraim Hensley, on Shelton Laurel, Madison county, concerning a wo-man, and the former cut the latter in the left breast with an axe. The victim will die. Burgess has been arrested.—On Saturday Mr. Eli Patton, one of the best citizens oof Transylvania county, went out to his lot, and untied his Jersey bull to let him run out, when the animal turned on him and gored him to death. This is a sad loss to that county.

Rockingham Spirit: The giant pine tree blown down in the cyclone in this vicinity on the 19th of Febru-TO OUR GENTLEMEN FRIENDS:
