Wilson then moved to proceed with its consideration notwithstanding the objection.

On this motion the yeas and nays were called, and the Senate, by a vote of 22 yeas to 29 nays, decided not to proceed with the bill at present. It, therefore, goes to the foot of the calendar.

At 2 o'clock the Utah bill came up as the regular order. On motion of Blair the Utah bill was again temporarily laid aside in order to resume consideration of the bill providing for the establishment of a bureau of labors statistics, Williams first giving notice that to morrow at 2 o'clock he would call up the Mexican soldiers pension bill.

The disposition of the labor bureau bill occupied the remainder of the day's session without reaching a vote upon any of the numerous amending manner. ments proposed.
