Mrs. Joe Person's Column

Mrs. Joe Person's

REMEDY

The Great Blood Purifier,

WILL CURE

Rheumatism, Cancer, in its early stages, Erysipelas, Heart Disease, Indigestion, Bilious Colic, Eruptions, Skin and Blood Diseases.

Unequalled as a Tonic.

As an Alterative it gives Universal Satisfaction.

As a Purifier of the Blood, it is indorsed by all who use it. Infallible for Scrofula.

It Relieves Catarrh

It is an Antidote for Blood and Malarial Poison.

It will restore the System after having had Chills and Fevers,

It will Cure all Blood Dis-

DIRECTIONS:

Regulate the dose according to age and effect upon the system, giving, ordinarily, a child five years old, a teaspoonful. A grown person, begin with a tablespoonful and gradually increase to a wine glass one-half or two-thirds full. Give three times a day, an hour before each meal, and eat nothing for an hour before taking it. For children the dose may be weakenened and sweetened. No Spirituous Liquors must be used while taking it. Price $1.

GENERAL AGENTS:

Boykin, Carmer & Co., No. 11 & 19 Liberty street, Wm. H. Brown & Bro., No. 25 South Sharp street, Canby, Gilpin & Co.,

T. C. Smith & Co., W. M. Wilson. Charlotte, N. C.

Wm. H. Green, Wilmington, N. C. V. O. Thompson, Winston, N. C.

C. M. Glenn, Greensboro, N. C.

J. B. Johnson, Rock Hill, S. C.

Every Bottle Prepared Under the Immediate Supervision of Mrs. Joe Person.

Wholesale Druggist for N. C.,

Dr. J. H. McAden ova 10

CHARLOTTE, N. C., And for Sale by all Druggists.

Prepared by Send for pamphlet containing testimonials of a markable cures, and for further information, Address, by druggists and

The Mry. Joe: Person Remedy Com CHARLOTTE, N. C.

ON OUR JOB COUNTER

Ladies' Linen Ulsters.

HARGRAVES & ALEXANDER.

SMITH BUILDING.

New arrival of Kid, Silk and Lisle Thread Gloves.

WHITE LAWNS

-OUR-

At 16c. and 15e were bought since the big decline

Handsoms Parasols Just Arrived.

Bargains in White Barred Checks. A big drive in

NUN'S VEILING

Olive, Tan. Pink and Crush Strawberry.

Cape Matting! Cape Matting!

Crumb Cloths, Rugs, Off Carpets, Fost Mats, &c.

r. l. seigle & co.

JUST RECEIVED.

Latest Style SILK HATS, SILK, MOHAIR and

GINGHAM UMBRELLAS, Gents' hand-made and

TRUNKS,

TRAVELING BAGS.

Trunk and Shawl Straps-

ALEXANDER & HARRIS

-HAVE AN ELEGANT LINE OF-

AND EMBROIDERIES.

Their stock of Embreideries are superior to any in the market. Our stock of Corsets are large, well assorted and cheap. Dress Goods are cheap. Ask for Neckwear, our stock is new and pretty. Ask for Trunks—Carpets—Ribbons—Pant Goods—Prints—Shirtings and Sheetings—Table Linen and Napkins—Marsalia Quilts—Linen Dusters, Secresucker and Gingham. Our One Dollar Shirts are equal to any in the market. Always ask for Parasols, we have some very handsome and very cheap.

ALEXANDER & HARRIS.

AT LOW PRICES.

We can't supply Ladies' apparel, but for the male sexman or boy—we carry an assortment of

HATS AND CAPS.

Far superior to anything you will find elsewhere in this vicinity. If you want nice fitting white Shirts just come in and take a look at what we can show you. We also have a fine assortment of Fancy and Figured Cheviot and Woolen Shirts -very choice patterns and thoroughly made. In Fine Custom-like Clothing why, we're far ahead of any other house hereabouts. Clothing buyers can't possibly make any other than a paying investment if they purchase here. Not only is our stock of

The following described freight having been depot uncitation for a period of six month and for a period of six month and the 2 the 2

the most varied and elegant offered for the public choice, but our prices are lower, style and quality considered Call at once and examine our tailor made clothes, it will pay you

W.KAUFMAN&CO CENTRAL HOTEL CORNER

TA KORDIGEM ACTEL WHOLESALE GROCER

AND COMMISSION MERCHANT reen eets, and must say I was delichte College Saal Cample to College and the college Saal Cample to College Orders sufficited and promptly filled Kinicar Co. B

WANTED-Large lot CLAY I

WEAK, UNDEVELOPED PARTS

The Charlotte Observer.

Invariably in Advance—Free of Postage to all parts of the United States. Specimen copies sent free on application, Subscribers desiring the address of their paper changed will please state in their communiation both the old and new address.

Rates of Advertising. en application.

Remit by draft on New York or Charlotte, and by Postoffice Money Order or Registered Letter at our msk. If sent otherwise we will not be responsible for miscarriages.

JUST SO.

The Philadelphia American, one of the most able, thoughtful and conservative Republican papers in the country, begins an editorial on the Presidential situation with the following paragraph:

Upon the wisdom of the Republican convention at Chicago much depends. The present balancing of parties in the United States is delicate; the mind of five thousand voters in a single State may produce a political

States we might cite North Carolina

Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee

Florida and Louisiana, all of which are Democratic, but in any of which, to inject the tariff question as an election, when, if successful, there was, and threw a cloud over prospects that were as bright as sunshine prevail in the coming convention phalanx when the bugle sounds the

HAYES AS A POULTICE.

At the recent "business men's meeting in New York to boost Ar thur's candidacy, Henry Ward

Beecher was one of the speakers. In urging Arthur's renomination he

"Chester A. Arthur is a man who has proved himself under trying curcumstances one of the most able precumstances one of the most able presiding officers this nation ever had. That he has been the subject of so little criticism is a marvel. The bitterness of men whose names should be inveigh (instead of MacVeagh) displayed towards Arthur is as nothing as compared to the invective heaped upon Washington and Jackson, Lincoln, and Grant, up to Hayes. And when Hayes took the Presidency the country had been scorched with the fires of war, and, as a physician applies sweet oil and poultices to the skin of scalded men, so the nation needed a poultice, and it got it.

needed a poultice, and it got it.
(Loud laughter). Gentlemen, I see you have not yet come to a sufficient appreciation of the benefits of poultices. They quiet the patient's nerver and give him sleep. Hayes did us a good work. He did it by doing noth ing. We slept. He slept. He is not dead. He sleepeth yet." (Laughter.)

Haves as a poultice figures in a new light. What opinion must be have of himself when he hears men of his own party, some of whom helped him to the seat which he occupied by virtue of fraud, thus sneering at him as a nonentity. Hayes as a private citizen was more respected even by members of the party which perpeent de facto coming down from four years term in that stolen office.

easily and by a decisive majority.

the same cell in Ludlow street jail honor.

onset. We hope so, at least.

spoke thus:

its present position? That is the question involved in the proposition to open up tariff legislation next winter. Shall the Democracy on the eve of the Presidential campaign and This is true not only of the Repub with victory in sight undertake a palpable impossibility, with no chance lican convention but also of the Demof gain but a certainty of loss in pop-ular strength? No measure that would be honestly Democratic could get through the Senate. And if such ocratic convention, but the trouble with the Democratic convention is not so much the choice of the men as a bill was passed by both Houses it the declaration of the policy upon would meet death at the other end of the Avenue. The duty of the Demwhich the party is to enter the campaign. In this the parties differ. ocracy, as we see it, is to let the tariff The Republicans will be practically severely alone until the possession of legislature power shall clothe that party not only with responsibility, but with the means of putting Demounanimous on their platform on the issues that are likely to come before the people, but there is a vigorous cratic principals into the shape of law. The Democratic situation at fight being waged over the men; the this time could not be improved. The opposition has done just what it Democracy is divided as to certain issues, while there is but little trouble as to candidates. The main point of would have done if it had been inspired with an earnest nesire to help elect a Democratic President. It has difference among Democrats, and the done this, not from choice, but from only one from which trouble is apprehended at Chicago or afterwards, is the tariff question. If that be satisfactorily disposed of, and such a them how we will.' Let the Republication of circumstances beyond its control, for 'there is a divinity that shapes our ends, rough-hew them how we will.' Let the Republication of the results and the compulsion of circumstances beyond its control, for 'there is a divinity that shapes our ends, rough-hew them how we will.' Let the Republication of circumstances beyond its control of the compulsion of circumstances beyond its control. course pursued as will bring the dif- lican party stagger into the campaign ferent wings of the party into harof next year under its intolerable burden, to find the Democracy commonious action, all will be well; if pact, elate, determined and confident, not demoralized by failure in an illnot, it won't matter so much whom the Republicans nominate. There are advised effort to do an impossible States where even less than five good. The Critic very pertinently asks, thousand votes will turn the scales "in view of the above, which is the and these are States that are Democratic, and upon which the Democ-traitor, Randali or the Post." racy counts and must carry to win in the next contest. With the tariff question out of discussion, there is no more doubt about carrying these States than there is about the sun

Philadelphia American: The more the failure of the firm of Grant & Ward is brought into light, the worse it is found to be. It is evident that the other partners trusted Mr. Ferdirising to-morrow. Among these nand Ward implicitly, that they asked no questions so long as he kept paying enormous dividends out of fresh deposits, that his financial methods were dishonest to the last degree, and that he kept hardly any record of the issue in the campaign, would be filled most important transactions. It is with peril. This is why we have said that General Grant will lose his steadily opposed the springing of this entire fortune; and in truth he loses issue until after the next Presidential what should be worth more to him than the largest fortune. He has formight be some possibility of carrying feited the confidence of his countryout such tariff reform as might be men in his good sense and his sensi-

WHICH IS THE TRAITOR!

The Washington Post is savage in its attacks on Mr. Randall and other

Democrats who supported him in opposition to the Morrison tariff measure, and insists upon their all being read out of the party without cere-

"The Post is not and does not pro-desirable and proper, and leave hope tiveness as to the use of his name. and a chance for a Democratic victory. The agitation was unfortunate, The New York Journal of Comit brought discord where harmony merce lays an iron finger on a raw spot, thus: "Our banks and bankers for the last year or two have deter-Perhaps, however, cool counsels may mined unwisely against commercial and some plan be devised that will relegate that question for the present and bring the Democracy up in solid paper. A speculator with fifty thousand dollars in the bonds of the Bungtown Railroad Company could borrow say $20,000 on call at three or four per cent. per annum, when an honest merchant doing a safe and legitimate business found it difficult to secure a discount of the mercantile paper taken in the regular course of trade for a fifth of that sum, even if he was willing to pay a simple inter-

The Philadelphia American (Rep.) in a lengthy editorial last week on the Presidential situation, says that the Republicans cannot afford to nominate either Blaine or Arthur, that Edmunds would fill the bill, but his nomination is impossible. The convention must, it says, look to the West for a candidate, and General Harrison, of Indiana, is the man to drag the Republican party through its difficulties. . It thinks that Harrison is a sort of forlorn hope.

As an evidence of the drift of sentiment towards Tilden, we note that the New York Sun, which has persistently opposed the idea of nominating him, now favors it. As Mr. Dana and Mr. Tilden are intimate, the inference is drawn from this that the sage of Gramercy will accept.

Col. McGuire, of Mobile, Ala., who, it was reported, was going to fight a duel with some fellow out in Indiana for saying that Mrs. Jefferson Davis presented him with a bouquet for something he did during the war, will not fight. He has been dead for three years.

trated the fraud which put him in Mr. W. Duke, of Durham, nomi-Tilden's place than as the ex-Presinated by the Republican Liberal combination for State Treasurer. declined the call. He got the office and forfeited his

The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. The following is an extract from a letter writter the German Beformed Messenger, at Chambers Gen. Jubal A. Early expresses the hope that Senator Bayard will re-A RENEFACTRESS. ceive the Democratic nomination for Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the nursery. Of this we are so sure that we will teach our Susy to say, "A Blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to susyive and escape the griping, colicking and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhose. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every past of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, President. He says: Bayard is the representative of pure statesmanship. of honest administration, and of sound business principles." General Early thinks Bayard could be elected Ferdinand Ward, the slippery head of the Grant-Ward firm, now occupies New York, that the distinguished thief, Boss Tweed, occupied.

NOT A CANDIDATE udge Gilmer Does Not Wish His Name

to Go Before the Convention for the Gubernatorial Nomination. inleigh News & Observer. GREENSBORO, N. C., May 24.

Please give a place in your columns to the subjoined statement, which would have been publicly made weeks mony. In view of this the Washington Critic resurrects the following ago but for the importunity of per-sonal friends. In view of the near from the files of the Post of Tuesday, approach of the Democratic State convention and for the information of friends in other parts of the State who have talked and written to me March 15, 1883, which shows that the Post man did not always think thus: pose to be in favor of renewing the pose to be in layor of renewing the tariff fight in the Forty-eighth Congress. The dominant party has got its load on its back and it should be permitted to carry it undisturbed into the campaign of 1884.

When the Democratic party has the three branches of the legislature power in its hands—the House, Senate and the Presidency—it will be for on the subject, and of other papers which have favored my nomination for Governor, I feel it my duty to say that while keenly sensible of the distinguished honor thus proposed to be confered on me, and deeply grateful for and proud of the many kind and flattering words of commendation, yet, for reasons unnecessary to be mentioned here, and mainly of a private nature, it is my decided wish that my name be not presented to the convention as a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination. I am not and the Presidency—it will be, for the first time in many years, not only able to legislate, but responsible for action or non-action. Only one of these branches will be Democratic for the next two years, and that one will not be required to attempt the impossible and load itself with failand never have been a candidate for such nomination, and have read with turbing the business interests of the country. Shall the Democratic party forego all the immense advantages of pain recent unauthorized statements in some papers about my "with-drawing" from such candidacy. My wish and position in this have always been as stated above. With assurances of the highest appreciation of the kindness and parti-ality of all friends who would have had it otherwise,

I am, sincerely yours, JOHN A. GILMER. Digest of Supreme Court Decisions. Raleigh News and Observer.

Worthy vs. Shields. 1. The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court over issues of fact under article four section eight of the Constitution, will be assumed upon two conditions: 1. When the matter is of such an equitable nature as a court of equity under the former system took exclu-sive cognizance of. 2. When the proofs are written and documentary, and in all respects the same as they were when the judge of the court below passed upon them. 2. There is error in the refusal to submit issues to the jury in this case. A party under the present system has the right to a jury trial of an issue of fact, as well when it involves an equitable as a legal element enter-ing into the merits of the contro-capacity as administrator. he cannot withhold it from the next of kin of his intestate upon the ground that it is not a part of the trust estate, but belongs to others.

Depositions of witnesses are never taken by a court when en-gaged in the trial of a cause. Sain vs. Bailey.

Currie vs. Currie. In a suit for the penalty denounced in section 1,522 of the Code, in refer ence to administering upon estates, a complaint which fails to state that the defendant entered upon the administration of the estate without obtaining letters, is demurrable. The mere act of taking possession of the decedent's property and converting it to the defendant's use, will not render him liable to the penalty, while it may constitute him an executor de son tort and subject him to the demands of creditors of the es-

England vs. Garner. 1. The judgment of a court having jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter, though irregular, is valid until reversed; and if reversed, a purchaser in good faith at a sale made in pursuance of such judgment will be protected.

2. An appearance by counsel, even without authority, is regular upon its face and binds the party for whom the appearance was entered.

3. A judgment against an infant i not absolutely void, but irregular, and if set aside upon proper application, the interest of a bona fide purchaser under the judgment without notice, will not be affected.

4. The courts, being open to non residents in asserting their right to property here, will go no farther in protecting them than residents from the consequences of unreasonable de-

Another Life Saved.

J. C. Gray, Badeville, Aia., writes: "I have been using your Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and I can say, of a truth. It is far superior to any other lung preparation in the world. My mother was confined to hear bed four weeks with a cough, and had every attention by a good physician, but he failed to effect a cure. and when I got one bottle of your Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, she began to mend right away. I can say in truth that it was the means of saving her life, I know of five cases that Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam has cured, and my mother is better than she has been for twenty years."

Cushioned in Rosy Gums, inclosed in lips that part in smiles like the opening rosebud, the teeth gleam with dazzling whiteness if the charming possessor uses beautifying SOZODONT, which cleanses and blanches the teeth without abrading their ename! like preparations designed for the same purpose. This agreeably odorous and salutary article not only benefit the teeth and enhances the beauty of the mouth, but removes carker, and remedies ulceration of the gums.

Fits Cured Six Years Ago. "It has been 6 years since I was cured of fits," says Mr. W. Ford, of Wirt, Jefferson county, Ind "Samaritan Nervine did it." And it always will reader. $1.50, at druggists.

Change all That. Instead of liniments, lotions, etc., use Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters, Paickest and best. 25c

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has such concentrated, cura-tive power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and surest blood-purifier known.

Of North Carolina.

ON MONDAY, MAY 26

WILL PLACE ON THEIR COUNTERS THE LARGEST AND MOST EXQUISITE STOCK OF

Embroideries

EVER SHOWN IN THE CAROLINAS.

14,000 Yards at Half Price.

In over 700 distinct and different patterns, embroidered on Cambric, Mull Nainsook and Swiss, and are in about 7 yards lengths. We can assure our lady friends the patterns are entirely new, the designs being very novel and attractive. They are manufacturers' samples, sent over from St. Gall, Switz:rland, to the principal Importers of New York, to make their selections from for the next season.

TO OUR OUT-OF-TOWN FRIENDS

We would say that ladies living at a distance can order by mail by describing the width they desire and the quality. Their orders will receive the same careful attention as if they were personally present.

We would invite particular attention to this department, as we are offering the very latest designs in Ladies' Misses' and Children's NIGHT-GOWNS, CHEMISE, DRAWERS, UNDERSKIRTS, DRESSING SACQUES CORSET COVERS, CHILDREN'S SHORT AND LONG DRESSES, in Mull, Persian Lawn, Nainsook, Cambric, etc., at prices much lower than the same goods can be obtained from any of our Northern competitors.

WITTKOWSKY

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

HEADQUARTERS

PRICES DOWN! The season for Cassimere Suits is about to pass away, and in order to make a clean sweep of such Suitings on hand, we will give those that are in hunt of bargains the benefit now, and knowning that other merchants have to follow us, we are making prices that will defy competition.

FOR CASH ONLY.

CASSIMERE SUIT worth $10.00 and $12.00, for $13.00, $14.00 and $15.00, for A FINE CASSIMERE SUIT worth $18.00, for And our $22.50 Suits, made in our ewn house, the same as made to

All we ask is a call, and if we cannot convince you of our low prices, can purchase elsewhere. We have an immense stock of which will be sold for less than they can be produced again.

LEADING CLOTHIERS AND TAILORS.

Agents for Pearl Shirts and Tensor Scarfaet at a soulf on sort Orders by mail promptly attended to as always.

THE FURNITURE DEALER,

aby Carriage

Largest Stock in the State

ine provisions of the act of February, For seven remy Allon's Ergin Food mand 1897, anthonical thousand the second for seven as a se