OUR PLATFORM ON THE TARIFF.

A tariff for revenue sufficient to meet the expenses of the government economically administered.

A tariff which will afford such incidental protection as will encourage productive industry, but not such tariff as will create and foster monopolies.

For President: GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK.

For Vice President: GEORGE H. PENDLETON, OF OHIO.

GEN. LOGAN NOTIFIED.

Mrs. Logan Present and Nods Approval—Gen. Logan's Response.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The committee charged by the National convention with the duty of nominating candidates for President and Vice President, called upon Gen. Logan to finish up their labor.

Mrs. Logan was the only lady present. She stood opposite her husband with face radiant and her head nodding assent to the complimentary parts of the speech delivered by chairman Henderson.

Williams thought further discussion fruitless, but he would give some reasons for his vote. He could not support this bill which, as it now stood, was an insult to the Mexican veterans.

The amendment was passed, now it was dead as a door nail. The Senate had voted down the arrears provisions notwithstanding the resolution of the Chicago convention, but shrinks from voting down the resolution of the caucus of Republican Senators.

CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

THE SENATE PASSES A SWEEPING PENSION BILL.

The House Passes in Amended Form the Bill to Provide for the Count of the Electoral Vote.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—SENATE.—Mr. Hampton, from the committee on military affairs, reported favorably a bill for the repair of Fort Marion, at St. Augustine, Fla., and it was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Sherman offered a resolution which was agreed to, providing that the hour for commencing the daily sessions of the Senate during the remainder of the session shall be at 11 o'clock.

The consideration of the Mexican pension bill was then resumed.

Mr. Sherman said the bill, as it came from the committee, was a simple bill giving pensions of $10 a month to the survivors of the Mexican war. The amendments to it had now made it a totally different bill, revolutionizing its character.

The amendments, he said, discriminated against the Mexican veterans. It was clear to him that the intention of the majority was to kill the bill by putting on it amendments that would render it impossible for the early friends of the bill to vote for it in its final shape.

The Senators on the other side said they favored the Mexican pension bill, but he (Maxey) believed that actions spoke louder than words, and the actions of the Senators did not correspond with their words.

Williams thought further discussion fruitless, but he would give some reasons for his vote. He could not support this bill which, as it now stood, was an insult to the Mexican veterans.

The amendment was passed, now it was dead as a door nail. The Senate had voted down the arrears provisions notwithstanding the resolution of the Chicago convention, but shrinks from voting down the resolution of the caucus of Republican Senators.

Cockrell, Coke, Colquitt, Edmunds, Blair, Bayley, Gresham, Hendon, Hawley, Jackson, Jones, Jones of Florida, Maxey, Morgan, Pendleton, Pugh, Saulsbury, Slater, Vance, Vest, Walker and Williams—27.

The following names were announced: Aldrich Gorman, Cullom with Keeta, Anthony with Gibson, Hoar with Harris.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was taken up and its consideration proceeded with it 5.45 p. m. when the Senate went into executive session, and when the doors were reopened adjourned.

HOES.—The Speaker announced the appointment of Furney, Townsend and Keifer as conferees on the army appropriation bill.

Foran, of Ohio, submitted a conference report on the bill establishing a bureau of labor statistics and it was agreed to.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the business on the Speaker's table and concurred in the Senate amendment to a number of House bills of a private and unimportant nature, including bills to remove the disabilities of Henry Newman and Robert D. Thurber, of Virginia, and to print the annual reports of the bureau of ethnology and of the United States geological survey.

Cox, of New York, asked unanimous consent for the passage of the Senate bill granting letter carriers fifteen days leave of absence each year.

Cogrove, of Missouri, objected, but subsequently withdrew his objection and offered an amendment providing that no leave of absence shall be granted between the 15th of October and the 1st of April in any year.

The amendment was lost, 111 to 115, and the motion to reconsider the last vote was tabled; yeas 114, nays 99.

The bill was then passed. The conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill was adopted. The amount agreed upon is $1,685,748.

Cook, of Iowa, who had intended to call up the Chalmers-Manning election case today, refrained from doing so for the reason that the minority report was not yet printed, but gave notice that he would call it up tomorrow.

The House then resumed consideration of the unfinished business, the bill repealing pre-emption, timber culture and desert land laws and amending the homestead law. The bill was passed; yeas 147, nays 41.

The electoral college bill was then taken up, the previous question having been ordered. The bill was read and third reading of the bill.

Herbert, of Alabama, foresaw a very exciting political campaign and feared that if Congress did not at this session pass some law to regulate the counting of votes the country would find itself in a deadlock next year which could not be broken by an electoral commission. Even a bad law would be better than no law at all.

He was in favor of the Senate bill and against the substitute reported by the House committee.

The question then returned on the amendments to the Senate bill and the bill which was reported by the House committee as a substitute therefor.

Herbert, of Alabama, offered an amendment to that section of the Senate bill which provided that each State may determine all controversies concerning the appointment of electors by providing that such determination may be overruled by the concurrent action of the Senate and House; adopted. No amendment of any importance was attached to the substitute, though quite a number were offered.

The House bill was then adopted as a substitute for the Senate bill; yeas 127, nays 83.

The Senate bill as amended by the substitute was read the third time and passed.

The House then at 5:10 took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of business reported from the military committee.
