16 Six Thousand Three Hundred Acres Land. The owners of The Crowder's Mountain Iron Works beg to call the attention of capitalists iron manufacturers, stock and dairy men, and those who wish to settle colonies, to their property, which offers inducements to the classes above named.

The property consists of Six Thousand Three Hundred Acres of land, located in the counties of Gaston and Cleaveland, in the State of North Carolina, at King's Mountain Depot, on the Atlanta and Charlotte Air Line railway, now owned by the Richmond and Danville railroad company. The property has been used for fifty years past as an iron property, and has been worked at various points, but chiefly at the site of the celebrated Yellow Ridge Ore Bank, which has always yielded an ore noted for its richness in metallic iron, and its softness and toughness. This vein of ore, which extends for two miles in length, has been worked to the depth of 147 feet, showing at that depth a vein of ore about 40 feet wide, and analyzing as high as 66 per cent. of metallic iron. This vein has not been worked for twenty years, but the facts set forth can be fully shown. Various other veins have been worked, and within the past two years very large deposits of iron ore have been discovered at other points. Within the past eighteen months, however, the owners have discovered deposits of ore in Crowder's Mountain, (five veins of iron ore, are exposed), which were unknown before, and which will furnish an amount of good ore, easily worked and above water, that must make it one of the most destrable iron properties to be found. They have discovered on the pinnacle of this mountain, which is 1000 feet above the level land, 2200 feet above the sea level, a vein of ore eight feet wide, which crops out at various points from the top to the bottom of the mount

WHERE WILL THEY STAND. The question has been asked, where will the gentlemen who left the Democratic party and took the lead in the liberal movement stand in the coming campaign? As far as we know there has been no public utterance from them, but it seems to us, conceding for the present that they were actuated in their efforts to build up the Liberal party, by patriotic motives and a desire to promote the best interests of the State, that there is now but one place for them to stand if they desire to prove their honesty of purpose or their sincerity. According to their own professions they did not go into that movement and act co-operatively with the Republican party either with a view to surrendering to or being swallowed by the Republican party. They went in with the understanding that the Republican party was to take a back seat, surrender its identity, so to speak, and meet the Liberals on the ground of certain reforms and demands agreed upon, the new party to be known as the Liberal-Republican party. On the basis of that understanding a platform was adopted and a ticket composed of members of both organizations agreed upon, at the head of which stood Dr. Tyre York, from the Liberal ranks, who had been elected to Congress, and placed at the head of this ticket with the distinct understanding that he was a Liberal-Democrat and a representative of the Liberal party. That was the concession that the Republicans made to the Liberals as a guarantee of good faith. What do we see now? Dr. York, the representative Liberal, deliberately, and over his own signature, repudiating liberalism and the men who brought him to the front and avowing himself a Republican, cordially sup-Ladles', Misses' and Children's Shoes of best makes porting Blaine and Logan and endorsing the Republican platform, civil rights and all, from beginning to end. What further claim has he consistency can any Liberal who is not willing to go over body and soul the young men organized a club, to the Republican party support him? some fifty or seventy-five names be-None whatever. Every vote cast for Dr. York will be cast for a Republican, nominated as a Liberal, who wore the Liberal uniform until he found that the Republican party demanded an unconditional allegiance as a condition of support, when he threw it off and arrayed himself in Republican regulation dress. By his noble standard bearers, both State own act he has released the Democrats who went with and supported him from any further support. He has violated the compact and be-

But further. The nomination of Cleveland and Hendricks presents a ticket so pure, so clean and so superior in every respect that between it and Blaine and Logan no Liberal-Democrat can hesitate a moment. They voted for and helped to elect Mr. Hendricks to the vice Presidency, the same office for which he is now presented, eight years ago. He is the same man he was then, and the reasons that induced them to vote for him then are as strong why they should do so now, or even stronger, for they have the additional reason. to rebuke the fraud by which he was deprived of the office to which he was then elected. Certainly no Liberal-Democrat, calling himself a safety the morning while cutting grass in his garden, with a sickle. The wound is porting Blaine and Logan, with their records, as against the great reformer, Cleveland, and the defrauded statesman, Hendericks, of eight years ago. Looking at Dr. York's open desertion, the utter disregard of the Liberal element by the Republican man agers, the tickets nominated by the two conventions at Chicago and the platforms adopted, we do not see how any honest, sincere Liberal Democrat can hesitate about falling ihto line with their Democratic friends and working for Democratic success. Let them fall into line and march shoulder to shoulder with us in this grand contest for Democratic supremacy and governmental reform, Baltimore Sun: Just after Cleveland's nomination there was a violent thunder storm, which purified the aken as an indication the that Cleveland will purify the political and governmental atmosphere. His thunderbolts will crash among guilty officials, his official lightning may strike many high heads, and the Republicans who are out in the shower are likely to get pretty wet. But the country will be better for the purifying process, and everybody will rejoice except corrupt office-holders and others who do not like to be clean.

But the country will be better for the purifying process, and everybody will rejoice except corrupt office-holders and others who do not like to be clean.

The nomination of Gov. Cleveland seems to give pretty general satisfaction. Even Mr. Blaine is said to be satisfied with it.

Governor Cleveland is a native of New Jersey, now 47 years of age. Thomas A. Hendricks is a native of Ohio, and is 65 years old.

The Baltimore Sun says the Democratic platform, in the manner and material of its construction, compares favorably with any similar paper of the last fifty years.

There is no reason now why Messrs. Blaine and Logan should delay their letters of acceptance any longer. They know what they have to buck

Raleigh will have a grand ratification of the National and State Democratic ticket today. Among the speakers announced are Gov. Jarvis, Gen. Scales, Captain Coke, Judge Fowle and Gen Cox.

There was a balance left in the State treasury of Georgia on the first of the month amounting to $206,715 .-62 in cash and cash items. It is needless to remark that Georgia is a Dem-

Mr. Blaine says that he has the advantage of Mr. Cleveland, who is not well known. The trouble with Blaine is that he is too well known, and he will discover before the campaign closes that Governor Cleveland will be pretty well known.

When the nomination of Blaine was announced the voice of disgust and protest was raised and there was kicking all along the line. On the contrary, the nomination of Cleveland and Hendricks meets with universal approbation, not only in the of independent Republicans. ---

SALEM-WINSTON.

Dots Caught at Rest and on the Pry few minutes after the telegram came "Mystic Tie" in the last of a series of announcing Cleveland's nomination for President. It took but a short while to get a couple of hundred "passed" six and "raised" five to the names, for when it became known staunch Democrats from all quarters and enrolled their names. At a mass | return in the latter part of this month; meeting held in Brown's opera house at night the club was organized by appointing M. W. Norfleet, president and ten other gentlemen vice presidents, and the editors of Democratic papers in Winston and Sa lem, secretaries. Appropriate remarks were made by R. B. Kerner, Esq., J Gro gan, Esq., Capt. David Burrow, Dr. S.W. Battle and others. At this meeting more names were added to as a Liberal, on the support of any the list and the club now numbers Liberal, and with what degree of some three hundred, and will probably double that number in a few days. At the close of the meeting

ing enrolled. Preceding the mass meeting the large omnibus belonging to the Belo House, in Salem, with four fine horses attached, and the Wachovia Cornet Band seated within, made a tour of the two towns, the band dispensing some of its choicest airs. During the meeting the Forsyth Riflemen fired salutes in honor of our and National. It was a glorious jollification, and when the election comes off next November you can put down handsome majorities from the twin cities for Cleveland and Hendricks, Scales and Stedman, and all of the other Democratic nominees.

Mr. Frank Snider, of your city will have to look to his laurels as a raiser of fine cabbage, or Mr. Willis Hall, of Salem, will leave him in the rear. Mr. Hall has cabbages growing in his garden, some of which will weigh over fifteen ponnds. [Snider's best cabbage weighed 21 pounds. -ED.]

Happy are the culled people in Winston-Salem watermelons are beginning to come in the market. A car load or two of very fine Georgia melons were brought up the road the latter part of last week. Prices are pretty steep, but money is no object with a darkey, when he has it, if fresh fish, spring chickens or watermelons are about.

A negro man dropped on one of the streets of Winston Saturday afternoon with what was supposed to be an attack of sunstroke. of the merchants of the dust torture by sprinkling the streets in front of their stores.

As due notice had been published that Hons. Mr. Taylor, of Tennessee, and Jones, of Charlotte, would deliver addresses, and ——, of David-son College, would lecture, &c , I was consequently "lionized" by some as Mr. Taylor Jones. Of course the "craft" understood it, but doubtless many who came from a distance concluded that Taylor Jones was a very poor speaker. I tried to disgrace the name as little as possible. The subject was "Moral of Masonry;" and the sequel showed some "fruit." During the eight succeeding days and nights that I lectured there I "passed" five and "raised" seven and left ten

The people of Bakersville are just wide awake enough to make any undertaking a success, except a speedy settlement of the Ray and Anderson tragedy, which is very hard to do, where there are one hundred witneses to testify pro and con. As the Western Democrat and Mountain Voice are both published there, it would be a piece of supererogation for me to try to inform the public in regard the nice church edifices with the towering steeples, large attentive congregations, fine Sabbath schools, who sent a delegate to the National Sabbath School Convention in June.
