Frightful Catarrh.

PIECES OF BONE.

For four years I have been afflicted with a very troublesome catarrh of the head. So terrible has its nature been that when I blew my nose small pieces of bone would frequently come out of my mouth and nose. The dis charge was copieus, and at times exceedingly offensive. My blood became so impure that my general health was greatly impaired, with poor appetite and worse digestion.

Numerous medicines were used without re lief, until I began the use of B. B. B., and three bottles acted almost like magic. Since their use not a symptom has returned, and I feel in every way quite restored to health. I am an old citizen of Atlanta, and refer to almost any one living on Butler street, and more particularly to Dr. L. M. Gillam, who knows of my case. MRS. ELIZABETH KNOTT. A LITTLE GOLD.

Mr. Z. A. Clark, of Atlanta, Ga., in speaking of $480.00 in gold, desires to say to the readers of this paper, that the whole of the above amount was spent in a fruitless effort in finding relief from a terrible Blood Poison affecting his body, limbs and nose presenting ugly running uleers. He is now sound and well, having been cured by the most speedy and wonderful remedy ever before known, and any rested party who may need a Blood Purifier will learn from him that three bottles of B. B. B. restored his appetite, healed all ulcers, re-lieved his kidneys; and added twenty-one pounds to his weight in thirty days.

TWO DRUGGISTS.

We have been handling B. B. B. only a few months, and take pleasure in saying it is super-cading all other Blood Remedies. It sells well, gives our customers entire satisfaction, and we cheerfully recommend it in preference to any other Blood Purifier.

He Didn't Want to Run but Can't Help It, Because He Loves the People so Well and They Have no Champion

Boston, Aug. 19.—Benj. F. Butler, the candidate of the Greenbackers and Anti-Monopolists for the Presidency, has today issued a lengthy address, of which the following is a synopsis. He says: In compliance with oft repeated account of my stewardship of the political interests with which I was charged. They were four:

commerce, industries, and lands.

He wants them to declare their the rights of American citizens at independence and strike out on a new home and abroad; to make public servants individual or incorporate, subservient to the use and will of the people only, so as to restore the prosperity of the country, with equal rights, equal burdens, equal powers, and equal privileges of all people.

He complains that he was choked off from a free discussion of his tariff proposi tions by the thirty minute rule, and for that reason he could not defend his position before the convention. He charges that the platform is not one of principles but of expedients, and not such a platform as the reform the administration and re great Democratic party expected or dress the wrongs done by oppressive demanded.

He then turns his attention to the Republican party, which he says was organized as the great party of the people, but which has fallen into the hands of capitalists and monopolists and has become their party, and one from which the great body of labor ing men has nothing to expect. The Republican party has granted subsi-dies to railroads and steamships, erected many and expensive public buildings, spent many millions in opening the mouth of the Mississippi and leveeing its banks, and many millions in improving rivers and harbors. These grants amount to a sum equal to half the national debt. Without criticising the propriety of these grants, although some of them are open to criticism, yet these are all aides to the capitalist and land owner. Point me to one grant or act in aid of the workingman. I do not forget the eight-hour law for government laborers and mechanics, but there has never been honesty and power enough in the Republican administration to enforce that law. He charges the Republican party with responsibility for the present distressed state of business by its financial legislation, summing it up unbeard of extent, with banks locking up their money in millions upon millions, and allowing their custo-mers, who by our financial system, have been made dependent upon them, to be ruined; the producing laborer goes about the street unem-ployed; and the farmer's wheat, which with our fathers was a measure of value, is a drug in the market; and that which he raises today, pro-duced by the sweat of his face, is without profit to his industry! He says that the remedy is in adopting the policy of the Greenback party, and to issue greenbacks in place of United States bonds, or as a representative and equivalent for them, thus keeping the money of the people in circulation. Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for spwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female physician and nurse, principally among children, she has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing syrup, for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow as immortalized her pame by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been sayed from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has disaphared her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslew's Soothing Syrup. ABOUT THE STATE.

Wilmington Review: Mr. W. T. Smith, agent for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company, with his office in Evan's Block, died quite suddenly at about 10 o'clock this morning, at his residence on Church street, near the corner of Fourth.-We were shown this morning, by Mr. S. Van Amringe, Superior court clerk, a marine curiosity which is popularly known as a horse fish. Its head, neck and shoulders very much resemble those of the ordinary horse, while it has a tail shaped something like that of a lizard. It was about three inches in length, was caught in a shrimp net at Masonboro, and was indeed a curiosity. Greenville Reflector: On last Thursday a very sad accident occurred at the cotton planter factory of Mr. John C. Cox, about nine miles from Greenville. While the machinery of the factory was in motion one of the bands became tangled, and Johnnie, a little 12 year old son of Mr. Cox, tried to untangle it. His hand caught in the band; he was dragged over one of the pulleys and terribly mangled. Both his legs and arms were broken, he was almost scalped and sustained other fearful injuries. He died in about two hours after the accident.

Rockingham Spirit: Mr. John Norton, who resides in Laurel Hill township, whilst out fishing some days ago, slipped and fell on a log, severely and perhaps fatally snagging himself. -A Mr. Mastin, of Forsyth county, succeeds the late William C. Thomas as deputy collector of internal revenue for this collection division, which is composed of the counties of Richmond, Montgomery, Stanley and We understand that Mr. Anson. Mastin will make this town his headquarters. Statesville Landmark: In a fight a few days ago, Ailsey Cansler, color-ed, bit off the ear of Lewis Moore, colored. Moore, after the cessation of hostilities, procured the ear, wrap-ped it up carefully in a piece of paper, and put it in his pocket. After three or four hours he concluded to have it replaced, and went with it to a surgeon who sewed it on again.

Chatham Record: One day last week as Mr. S. A. Perry, of Hadley township, was driving his two horse wagon along the public road near Mrs. Phil. Alson's, a cow that was standing in the road made a dash at his horses, which frightened them so much that they wheeled around and ran away. The cow followed in close pursuit for some distance, and died in about an hour afterwards. It is supposed that she had gone mad. Fayetteville Observer. The 91st anniversary of the Ancient and Honorable, the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, Maj. McKethan, will be celebrated with great eclat on Friday, August 22d. The anniversary, as everybody knows, is the 23d, but as this occurs on Saturday, the day before has been chosen for its celebration, as the natal day of this celebrated organization is always a holiday in Fayetteville.

WILL CURE

Rheumatism.

TARBORO, N. C., July 7, 1884.

Dear Madam—For eight or ten years I have been a sufferer from some cutaneous disease resulting from impurity of the blood, which was manifested by several large sores on my face, with dry, hard scabs, which would shed and others form continuscabs, which would shed and others form continuously. It was pronounced by an experienced physician to be "Lupus." I was also a severe sufferer with Rheumatism, and it was with difficulty I could walk at all. After trying various treatments I was induced by my pastor to try your REMIDY. After using three bottles I was perfectly care. The sores are all healed, my general health is good and my Rheumatism is entirely relieved. As a remedy for Rheumatism, Skin and Blood Diseases I consider it without an equal.

WILL COUNTERACT BLOOD

GOLDSBORO, N. C., June 28th, 1884. MRS. JOSEPH PERSON: Madam—Having had the pleasure of meeting you in our city, I feel it my duty to freely give you the following testimonial of the efficacy of your valuable preparation. I have been afflicted for several years with some blood disease which settled in my leg, producing ulceration. I was advised to visit the Hot Springs, in our State, but only found partial relief. Through the advice of a friend I was induced to try your valuable REMEDY, and am happy to state that it has effected a permanent cure. Respectfully.

Respectfully,

MOORESVILLE, Iredell Co., N. C. Being desirous of adding my testimonial to others concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine. Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, have no nestation in pronouncing it far superior to any tonic I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs. Person's Bitters I was very
