FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

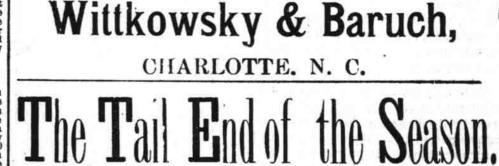

The fire department has been prompt in the dis-charge of duty, and have never failed to extinguish a fire when water could be secured. There are now 74 hydrants distributed through the city. With a well equipped department and a sufficient pressure from the water works we need fear no extensive fires. The cost of the department for the year was $3,509.20. This includes the cost of three reels ($1,600) ordered by the former Board. The firs-men deserve the thanks of the city for their faith-ful voluntary services.

Very respectfully,

Twelve years ago, this great "plan-tation," North Carolina, had been pretty well "done for" by its high-priced Radical averseers. Today it is in better condition than ever before, yields bigger and better returns and costs less than ever to run it. Who would change this state of things? Who would re-employ the Radical applicants for overseers pla. whose ox is gored and whose ox does Ben Butler on "Cass Words." General Butler gives the following
