The Washington Critic suggests that perhaps Cleveland has gone to the woods 'to attend campmeeting.'

The name 'Plumed Knight' was given to Mr. Blaine ironically by the newspapers after one of his bombastic supporters had likened him unto the 'White-Plumed Harry of Navarre.'

A statement comes from Washington that Conkling is out of politics and that it is not true that he will make speeches in this campaign for Blaine.

The Paris slang phrases chic and pschitt have been abandoned and the Anamese word tott substituted.

The Philadelphia Record: With factories closing or running on half time, with miners striking against reductions of wages, and with manufacturers vainly seeking profitable sales for their products or suggesting combinations to temporarily check supply, the New York Tribune gayly speaks of the 'substantial prosperity of all branches of industry.'

This is what the New York Sun (which now shines for Butler) said of Gov. Cleveland when he was running for Governor of New York: 'No one can study the record of his career since he has held office in Buffalo without being convinced that he possesses those highest qualifications of a public man, sound principle and unswerving integrity.'

The Philadelphia Times, speaking of political corruption in New Hampshire, says: 'Without the shadow or suggestion of doubt New Hampshire is today the most corrupt State in the Union.'

Somewhat Conflicting Reports. LONDON, August 23.—A despatch to the Times, which left Foo Chow at 7 o'clock this morning, says: At 9 o'clock last night the French Consul officially announced that he had received orders from Paris to make reparations.

Paris—10 A. M.—The government has received no news from Foo Chow today. Li Fong Poo, the Chinese Minister, has not yet left Paris.

The merchants and underwriters of London held a meeting today to consider the hearing of the French-Chinese difficulty on neutrals.

Chinese Telegrams. LONDON, Aug. 23.—The Eastern Telegraph Company has given notice that owing to the situation at Foo Chow telegrams to that point will be accepted only at the sender's risk.

A Mute Evidence of Refinement. A fine of polished teeth. People of vulgar habits are very apt to neglect their teeth, and therefore invite the attention of the dentist.

The boring of an artesian well was begun in the centre of Atlanta Thursday, and they hope to succeed in getting an abundance of pure water.

Death of a Distinguished Physician. PETERSBURG, Va., Aug. 23.—Dr. T. Stanley Beckwith, one of the oldest physicians in this State, died at his residence in this city last night after a protracted illness.

Seeking Relief from Financial Trouble. HOUSTON, August 23.—W. L. Reynolds, cashier of the Texas Express Company, committed suicide Friday afternoon. It is believed that financial difficulties led to the suicide.

A Naval Store Failure. NEW YORK, August 23.—Richard D. Charter, dealer in naval stores, has assigned.

A Down Town Mercantile. Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonizing throes of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child.

Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia. It is scientifically settled that rheumatism, gout and neuralgia cannot be cured by rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, lotions, etc., for the relief of these diseases is caused by uric acid in the blood.
