The election in Vermont took place yesterday. As it is a decidedly Renot expect to carry it, nor did they work with that view. In 1872 Grant had a majority of 30,564; in 1876 Hayes had a majority of 23,838, and in 1880 Garfield's majority was 26,036. From the meagre reports which the dispatches brought us last night, it appears that the Democrats have cut down the Republican majorities considerably, and in some places have cast the largest vote ever given to the Democratic ticket. While practically the result will amount to nothing in a national point of view, it will be to some extent an index of Republican strength and the Blaine sentiment in the New England States.

Col. Wm. Johnston desires us to state that he never uttered at Salisbury the langauge attributed to him in the Raleigh News and Observer of the 30th ultimo, and that never in his experience, either in public or in private, has he made use of such vulgar and profane expressions.

THE GREELY PARTY. A Bad State of Affairs Revealed by

Washington, Sept. 2.—An army official who has recently read portions of the datries of the Greely party said today that they revealed a more serious conditions of affairs than the survivors will admit. It seems that from the beginning of the expedition there were disputes between members of the party. These led to a division which existed at the time of the rescue. When found, there were two parties, one in charge of Sergeant Long, the other in charge of Sergeant Brainard, and they were living separately as two tribes. Greely, while an invalid, and during the last few months of Arctic life, was in the party headed by Brainard who cared for him.

The diaries show that stealing rations was a common practice. One says that Dr. Pavy stole them whenever the opportunity offered, and that he sometimes took such as were apportioned to indisposed members of the party; at other times when of the party; at other times when men were sent to shoot birds and were successful, the diaries say not all the birds killed were taken to camp, but some were concealed in the snow for the future use of the hunters. No mention is made of cannibalism in portions of the diaries that have been read, and the officer who has seen them refuses to say whether or not any other member of the party than private Henry is reported to have been shot. Army officials say that the contents of the diaries will not be made public until an investigation is ordered.

WHITE RIVER, JUNCTION, Sept. 2.—
The returns from 25 towns gives Pingree (rep.) 5,507, Reddington, (Dem.) 2,245; scattering, 90. These towns in 1880, gave Farnham, (rep.) 6,419, Phelps, 2,573: scattering, 65.
Burlington, Sept. 2.—Burlington elects C. A. Hubbard City Representative by 392 majority, in a total vote of 1,800. This is the largest Democratic majority ever cast here.

Way He Liked Logan. An Irishman was telling a few friends why he was for Logan: "I miver saw this Gineral Logan, but Dinnis Riley towld me that all his life he had been murtherin' the English, and, be Jazzes, that's the kind uv a man as suits me!"

THE CONNECTICUT DEMOCRACY NEW HAMPSHIRE REPUBLICANS. MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH Assembled in State Convention --- Gov.

Waller Re-neminated.

cheeks of his friends to "mantle with The convention voted to refer all resolutions that might be presented to the committee on resolutions without reading. One resolution so far was in favor of a secret ballot and the weekly payment of wages to

Hon. Edward W. Seymour, temporary chairman, was made permanent president of the convention. An informal ballot was ordered for a candidate for Governor.

A motion to present the names of candidates was voted down. Chairman Gallagher at this point said it was due to Gov. Waller that he should read a letter he had re-ceived from him, which had been published in the newspapers, but without his authority.
Olmsted opposed the reading of the letter and the convention loudly ap plauded him. A time of confusion followed, during which various motions were made, one of which was that Gov. Waller be nominated by acclamation.

The chair decided that during the taking of a ballot no other business was in order, and the letter of Gov.

Waller, in which, as is known, he said he would not again be a candidate, was not read. Before the informal ballot was announced the motion was again made to read the letter of the Governor, but it was voted down by a large majority.

The informal ballot resulted: Thos. M. Waller, 297; George G. Sumner, Olmsted, of Stanford, then moved the re-nomination of Gov. Waller by acclamation.

Tooker, of Darien, said he had read a letter printed in the newspapers in which Gov. Waller had declined the nomination of the Democ racy, and he thought the time had arrived when if a candidate said no or yes he meant it.

Opposition to the nomination by acclamation was made and the motion was withdrawn.

Olmsted then read the letter from Governor Waller written yesterday in which he said he had written a letter to Mr. Gallagher saying he did not desire a re-nomination, because of the personal sacrifice the canvass would require of him, but the letter publican State, the Democrats did did not say he would refuse the nomination if tendered him. After the reading of the letter an excited individual, who was said not to be a delegate, made a confused talk in which he said Gov. Waller had gone back on his creed, and was the sneak of Ben Butler.

A final ballot was then ordered, the delegates voting by ballot after roll call, and resulted as follows: Thos. M. Waller, 338; Geo. G. Sumner, 75. Geo. G. Sumner was then re-nominated for Lieutenant Governor by acclamation.

A Judicial Decision on Virginia Bonds. RICHMOND, Sept. 2.—An important decision was rendered in the United States Circuit Court here today by Judge Hughes, who held that in 14 cases now before this court, covering some $300,000 of tax receivable coupons, judgments must be given re quiring these coupons to be funded the recent legislative enactments being invalid to prevent such funding. Judge Hughes delivered an elaborate opinion, showing the present condition of the State debt, and that the recent legislation by the general assembly had left $4,150,000 of the tax receivable coupons already due, unprovided for and outstanding due, unprovided for and outstanding to harrass the State treasury, cumber the courts and flyblow the reputation of the State in the monetary centres of the world. He said he apprehended serious consequences from this state of things. The First Jew Hanged in Allegheny Pirrsburg, Sept. 2.—Martin Weinberger was hanged this morning in the county jail yard for the murder of Louis Gottfreund, a peddler, near Zawichly, on the night of June 16, 1882. The execution was private, not more than 50 persons, including not more than 50 persons, including the members of the press, being pres-ent. There were no religious ser-vices, and after the noose was adjusted the trap was sprung and the con-demned launched into eternity. Death resulted from strangulation, and in fifteen minutes life was pronounced extinct. Weinberger was a Jew, the first ever hanged in Allegheny county, and he is believed to be the second in the United States.

Moying for a Change of Courts.

PETERSBURG, VA., Sept, 2.—The entire session of the Hustings Court, Jude E. M. Mann presiding, was occupied today in hearing an argument on the petition of Isaac Barksdale, treasurer of the State of Virginia and State of the suit of t ginia, praying that the suit of the State of Virginia vs. the Planters and Mechanics Bank, of this city, be transferred to the Circuit Court of Richmond. The counsel for the creditors and trustees of the bank argued against the removal of the argued against the removal of the suit, claiming that the Hustings Court of this city is the proper place for it to be tried. The court has reserved its decision until the September term to be held on the 3rd Thursday of this month.

Factories Stopping --- Distress Among the Operatives.

Petersburg, Va., Sept. 2.—All of the cotton factories in this city and vicinity have stopped work, throw-ing out of employment a large num-ber of men, women and children, many of whom are actually suffering from want of the necessaries of life. At a meeting of the city council last night an application was made for a special appropriation for the relief of these sufferers and that a committee be appointed to disburse the funds. The matter, however, was referred until the next meeting of the council.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 2.—The Democratic convention was called to order at 11 o'clock this morning by James Gallagher, chairman of the State committee, and Congressman Edward W. Seymour was chosen temporary chairman. He briefly addressed the convention, predicting victory for Grover Cleveland, and alluding to the Republican nomination for President as one which had drawn from the Republican ranks many of that party. He spoke of the Republican party as one whose record in public life had caused the cheeks of his friends to "mantle with" in the convention. Mr. Greene, is a state Ticket.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 2.—The Republican State Convention was called to order by Chairman Gallinger, of the State Committee, at 10:35 a. m. with a large attendance of delegates and spectators. Chairman Gallinger's address was well received, he expressed the conviction that this nomination for President as one which had drawn from the Republican ranks many of that party. Mr. Greene, chairman, then delivered his address He alluded to the brilliant record of the Republican party and the great fundamental truths which had developed such men as Lincoln, Grant and Garfield. He argued that the and Garfield. He argued that the Republican party favored good government of the people, for the people and by the people, with all that such government implies. He conceded that the revenue of today is in excess of the wants of the government, but asserted it to be the purpose of the Republican party to relieve the people from any unnecessary burthens. Regarding our foreign policy he said "We believe in the policy that minds our own business and expects other nations to mind theirs; that asserts our rights and maintains them." He our rights and maintains them." He spoke in eulogistic terms of Blaine and Logan. The convention then proceeded to The convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Governor by counties which resulted as follows:

Whole number 566. Necessary for choice 284. David H. Goodell, of Antrim 136; Moody Currier, of Manchester 410; scattering 1. Currier's nomination was made unanimous, and a committee escorted him to the platform where he made an address accepting the nomination. Geo. W.
Libbey, of Whitfield, and Jas. E.
Larkin, of Concord, were elected
Presidential Electors. After the adoption of a series of resolutions the convention resolved itself into county conventions for choice of 100 members of the State committee, after the names of those selected had been announced the convention adjourned.

Butler's Inconsistency.

New York Herald (Ind.) New York Herald (Ind.)

Ben Butler is growing old and he is quite shaky in physical respects. In his recent epistle to the Ephesiens he refers to his antiquity and breathes a sweet melancholy desire for peace and tranquility. Why, then, does he not retire to some shady nook and cease to trouble a generation which is rather willing to forget him? Why this painful effort to create a disturbance?

Commissioners. Incorporated in 1868 for 25 years by the Legislature for Educational and Charitable purposes—with a capital of $1,000,000—to which a reserve fund of over $550,000 has since been added.

By an overwhelming popular vote its franchism was made a part of the present State Constitution adopted December 2d, A. D. 1879:

The only Lottery ever voted on and endorsed by the people of any State.

It never scales or postpones.

Its Grand Single Number Drawings take place monitis.
