CAPTURED BY THE MACHINE. went. It seems to have fallen into the hands of the machine manipulators, and the negroes who went into it with the intention of demanding recognition from the party, and a fair share of the nominations for office were left, so to speak. The solitary nomination that was made does not meet with much favor by the negroes who moved for colored recognition on the ticket. J. C. Maxwell, the negro nominated for the Legislature, is an unsophisticated resident somewhere in the neighborhood of Huntersville, and the impression among many of the negroes is that his nomination is simply a blind, and that he is put up to be taken down when the convenient opportunity presents itself. The negro rights advocates under John Schenck demanded three members of the Legislature and proposed to give the balance of the ticket to the white Radicals, but through the manipulations of the bosses who ran the con vention they only got one and he was one they didn't want. And that is about all they will get except in the way of promises, never to be filled, which are easily made and abundant before elections. As voters, the colored brethren are splendid fellows, but when it comes to demanding a share of the offices from their white allies, it is a horse of another color.

From the present outlook the white bosses have gotten away with John Schenck and his followers. THE CHOLERA.

Paris, Sept. 13.—A Cabinet council was held today in accordance with the previous arrangement for the discussion of the Chinese question, Prime Minister Ferry distinctly con-firmed the report that China had not declared war.
