OPEN THE BOOKS.

The Republicans are fighting des perately in this campaign, fighting not only to retain possession of the government, and the spoils of office but to keep the books in their possession and prevent an examination to show what has become of the vastsums of money that have been collected and handled by government officials since the Republican party came into power. In all that time the presidency has been filled by Republican Presidents, the respective departments have been filled by appointees of these Republican Presis dents, all Republicans, all the federal office-holders in the respective States, all collectors of customs, postmasters, collectors of internal revenue and their subordinates have been Republicans, and the public does not know and never will know how the account stands between them and the people until the books are opened and examined by new men who have not been identified in any way with those who have had charge of the books, and who will give them a thorough and an honest investigation. This was attempted in a limited way by the Springer committee at the last session of Congress, in the investigation of the Star routes, and the deputy marshals, and although the investigation scarcely penetrated below the surface enough was shown to prove | Northampton 1,512 2,041 *Vance 988 1,482 *Warren 947 2,172 by testimony, facts and figures beyond dispute that the people had been swindled by star route rings with the aid and co operation of gov-ernment officials in high positions, of millions of dollars, and that during one brief administration, that of Rutherford B. Hayes. This was only

In the Treasury, in the Navy, in the Army, in the Interior, there have been systematic, gross, colossal frauds perpetrated for years, the full amount of which can only be surmised, because the books that contain the record of some of the transactions are in the keeping of men interested in not letting the facts become known, and they never will become fully known while these men can keep the books closed. It is said by some who have had access to the books of the treasury, that the books even as far back as the time of Secretary Chase, who was himself an honest man, are full of erasures and interlineations to cover up the misappropriation of vast sums of money reaching up into the millions, and today the people of the United States do not know how many Greenbacks were put into circulation under the acts of Congress authorizing their issuance. It is said that a much larger number was issued and put in circulation than were authorized by the acts of Congress, printed from Government plates, numbered by Government officials, and passed out by men in the rings with them to be put in circulation among the people; a wholesale system of counterfeiting right in the government printing in one department.

This may or may not be so, as a great many other things charged may or may not be so, but the actual condition of affairs, and how the people's business has been managed never will be fully known until there is a change in the administration, until a new set of men are installed in the departments at Washington, and until the books are thoroughly examined.

A Chicago Republican who was opposed to a surplus in the treasury gave as his reason for supporting Blaine that the best way to get rid of the surplus was to elect Blaine, for if

Of course, the Maria Halpin scan- Jarvis, 6,287. lalous affidavit, dated just on the eve of the election, is a forgery, but the organs use it all the same. It is man's own counsel.

The denunciation of Pastor Burchard's bigotry by the Chicago Tribune is creating a sensation in Indiana and Illinois. When Mr. Elkins mustered his Republican clergymen to do homage to Blaine he let loose a terrible wild cat.

The State Exposition closed Saturday after being open thirty one days. About 200,000 people visited it, and it was a success financially and in every other respect.
