CLEVELAND, HENDRICKS AND REFORM! Honesty, Integrity, Justice, Liberty and Equality. The Bloody Chasm has been Closed.

Sound the loud Timbrel from Sea unto Sep, Democracy has triumphed, the people are free!

STEPHE ELKINS telegraphs his friends in Washington that he concedes New York State to Cleveland by about 1,200 plurality.

Elkins Gives it Up
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The National Republican prints the following in its New York money article: Elkins telegraphed his friends last night that he conceded New York State to Cleveland by about 1,200 plurality.

[Elkins was one of Blaine's campaign managers, and one of the most active men in the conspiracy with Blaine to steal the vote of the State of New York.]

NEW YORK'S VOTE SETTLED.

A Plurality of More than 1,200 Conceded.

Special to THE OBSERVER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—3 p. m. 1884.—The vote of New York county by the official canvassers was completed to day at 2.30 p. m.

Mr. George Bliss acknowledges that the Cleveland plurality in the County of New York will be 43,100.

This insures a plurality for Cleveland, in New York State, of more than 1,200.

[Mr. Bliss was one of the arch conspirators who attempted to steal the vote of New York State. He gives it up. New York's vote will be counted for Cleveland.—M.]

North Carolina never did fail to do her duty when called upon, and now she holds her proud place in the column of Democracy, in spite of the efforts to deceive or corrupt her.

Our bird mounts the dome of the capitol and makes the welkin ring, but there is no malice in his crow, it's simply a joyous one over the triumph of true, honest principles and good government.

There is no question now that Mr. Blaine believes Cleveland carried New York, and no doubt either on his part that Grover Cleveland will occupy the Presidential chair for the next four years.

How much more graceful it would have been in Mr. Blaine to have recognized the fiat of the people and bowed to it at once.

In 1844 the election of Polk was celebrated by the Democrats of Tennessee, North Georgia and Northeast Alabama by a grand barbecue and bonfires on Lookout Mountain. It is now proposed to repeat the demonstration, after the lapse of forty years, in honor of the election of Cleveland.

It is said there is a move on foot to return Roseoe Conkling to the United States Senate, which can be done by a combination of the Democrats and stalwart Republicans in the Legislature.

Some of the Republican papers since the election have been poking fun at Dr. York. This is not only unkind, but it is unjust, to thus make a scapegoat of him and hold him responsible for the walloping they got.
