53 fhousand a free Hundred Acres Land.
The owners of The Crowder's Mountain from

Works was to can the attention of capitalists from manufacturers, stock, and dairy men, and those who wish to settle co's ries, to their property, which offers inducements to the classes above named.
The property consists of Six Thousand Three hundred Acres of land, located in the counties of hastmand Cleaveland, in the State of North Car allig at King's Ricumbain Depot, on the Atlanta and Charlotte Ast Line Fallway, new owned by the Richmond and Danville Fallroad company. The property has seen used for fifty years past as an iron property, and has seen worked at various points, out chiefly at the site of the celebrated fenow hisige ore Bank, which has always yielded renow aloge ore Bank, which has always yielded an ore noted for its richness in metallic fron, and its softness and toughness. This vein of ore, which extends for two miles in length, has been worked to the dept f 147 feet, showing at that depth a vein of ore about 40 feet wide, and analyzing as high as to perfect to matanic from. This can not been worked for twenty years, but the facts set forth can be fully shown. Various other lets set forth can be fully shown. Various other tens have been worked, and within the past two years very large deposits of iron ore have been discovered at other points. Within the past eighteen months, however, the owners have discovered deposits of ore in crowder's Mountain, (five veins of Iron ore, are exposed), which were unknown before, and which will furnish an amount of good ore, easily worked and above water, that must make it one of the most desirable iron properties to be found. They have discovered on the pinnacle of this mountain, which is about feet above the level land, 250 feet above the sea level, a vein of ore of this mountain, which is 1000 feet above the level and, 2200 feet above the sea level, a vein of ore eight feet wide, which crops out at various points from the top to the bottom of the mountain, showing in one place about 20 feet of solid vein. This vein can be traced over the top of the mountain for over a mile, and this deposit alone would afford an almost inexhaustible supply of ore, easily worked and above the water line. In addition to this four other veins have been found on this mountain and above the water line. In addition to this four other veins have been found on this mountain. The ore is a mottled gray ore, showing on analysis from 45 to 65 per cent. of metallic iron, with a small amount of titanic acid, and without any suiphur or phosphorus. The quantity of ore in this mountain is simply inexhaustible and of good mailt.

Besides Crowder's Mountain the owners posses Besides Crowder's Mountain the owners possess King's Mountain, for about seven miles, whose pinnacie is the highest point of land from Richmond to attauta, except Mt. Airy, in teorgta, and they have reason to believe this mountain is full of ore also. In addition to iron ore the property has manganese, timestone clay for making fire-proof bries, gold and other minerals. Very pure and excellent barytese has just been found in large quantity.

Hon. Levi P. Morton, Minister to France, is announced as a candidate for the U.S. Senate from New York. He is supported by the friends of Blaine for the service he rendered Blaine during the campaign.

The funded and unfunded debt of the State of South Carolina amounts to $6,522,270. The amount of property returned for taxation is $159,727, 609. The number of pupils in the public schools the past year was 84, 028 colored, and 101,591 white a total of 185,619, an increase of 12,524 over the previous year.

We have heard of thieves breaking out of the penitentiary, but some King's county, N. Y., thieves revers ed this order Tuesday night, broke into the penitententiary there and robbed the safe of $5,000. They did it so cleverly as not to disturb the guards who were probably taking a quiet snooze about that time.

E. R. Dudley, a colored man of Newbern, publishes a sensible letter in the Newbernian, addressed to his people, in which he says that instead of the election of Cleveland being a cause of alarm to them it is the beginning of a new era in which the color line will, practically speaking, disappear, and both races will move along in a spirit of accord. Cleveland was not his choice for President but he sees in him a man who will be the President of the whole people and points to the fact that the State of North Carolina has been under Demo cratic rule for ten years, and during time no effort has been made to deprive the negro of any of his rights, but on the contrary a vast amount has been done to better his condition and promote his prosperity.

The Charlotte Observer. AN AFFAIR BETWEEN GENTLE-

General Sherman don't like Jeffer son Davis, and Jefferson Davis does not disguise the fact that he don't like Sherman. The indications are that the public will be favored in due time with their sentiments of mutual regard. Some time ago Sherman in an address delivered before a meeting of one of the posts of the grand army of the Republic at St. Louis, took occasion to refer to Mr. Davis as

"Jeff Davis was not a secessionist; he was a conspirator. I have seen a letter from Jefferson Davis to a man whose name I cannot mention because he is a United States Senator. In that letter he said he would turn Lee's army against any State that might attempt to secede from the Southern Confederacy."

When this met the eye of Mr. Da vis he sent a letter to the St. Louis Republican, which appeared last Wednesday in which he thus paid his tender regards to the oratorical

"This public assault under the covert plea that it is based upon infor-mation which regard for a United States Senator does not permit him to present, will, to honorable minds. suggest the idea of irresponsible slander. * * The allegation that I ever wrote such a letter as described is unqualifiedly false, and the assertion that I had any purpose or wish to de stroy the liberty and equal rights of any State, North or South, is a reckless, shameless falsehood. If General Sherman has access to any letters purporting to have been written by me which will sustain his accusation. let him produce them or wear the brand of a base slanderer." This flat denial accompanied by a red hot brand calls the accuser to the front to establish the truth of his assertions. He was met by a reporter after Mr Davis's letter appeared, whose interrogations he declined to answer further than to say that the question raised was between two gentlemen, and that he proposed to address himself direct, not through the channels of the public prints, to Mr. Davis who would hear from him in due time. Gen Sherman is not as punctiliously accurate in his statements as the absolute truth of history demands; in fact, the impression prevails that where his likes and dislikes enter he is rather disposed to tread roughly upon the truth. Wade Hampton and other very respectable authorities have pretty well established this fact, and it is not unlikely as the epistolary correspondence between Sherman and Jefferson Da vis progresses, futher proof of it will be furnished. As the matter now stands Tecumseh has to come along with the proofs or wear the brand.

UNHAPPY MORTALS.

The Philadelphia Press, Republi can, persists in being unhappy because colored suffrage in the South results in giving the South thirtyseven more congressmen than she would have if the congressmen were appointed exclusively on a white basis What makes it all the madder, thought it don't say so, is because these black men were made voters for the especial purpose of electing Republican congressmen, a little mat ter in which the calculators slipped up, so to speak. But what are they going to do about it? The colored man is here, he is a voter, and he ain't going to emigrate nor petition to be disfranchised to please these unhappy Republican editors. The only thing left for these poor fellows is to bear it as cheerfully as they can. They won't have to wait long. In a few years the colored men will all be voting the Democratic ticket, and then they won't stand in the attitude, as now painted, of bulldozed Republicans any more. Let our unhappy Republican brethren be patient and happy. If they can't be altogether happy let them be as happy as they can. Life is short, political scheming very uncertain, and at all events there is no use worrying to death, and butting their heads against the inevitable. Ex-Gov. Holden announces that he will immediately begin the preparation of a history of events in North Carolina from 1860 to 1885. A Historical Work.

If my health will permit I propose to write a history or sketch of North Carolina from 1860 to 1885, I will, be greatly obliged to persons who will tion to men and events in this State for the last thirty years. I feel deep ly the responsibility I assume in atpting such a work, and shall need all the encouragement that may be kindly offered.

Will my brother editors through out the State copy this notice, and send me a copy containing it?

Waddell vs. Swann.

1. A witness, party to the action, is not prohibited by section 590 of the Code from testifying as to communications made to other witnesses.

Here it does not appear that the declarations of the witness wire made in the life time of the deceased, or in his presence if then made, and the court holds that they are in no sense transactions or communications with the person deceased.

2. Section 580, disabling a party from giving evidence, applies to cases where both parties are living, and does not interfere with the operations of section 590.

Atkinson vs. Graves. 1. A chattle mortgage conveying bale of good middling cotton, which the mortgagor "may make during the year" passes no title; first, be-cause it fails to designate the place where the same is to be produced and secondly, because it does not identify the property so that it could be separated from other property of like kind raised by the mortgagor. 2. Such instrument is in effect an executory contract, giving to the mortgagee only a chose in action, or right to sue for the value of the cotton, if not delivered Strickland vs. Draughan.

Petitions to rehear must be filed according to the requirements of rule 12 and section 966 of The code. This case falls within their provisions, and the defendant not having complied with the same. the plaintiff's motion to dismiss the petition is allowed.

2. Statute of limitations, its effect upon existing rights, and the legisla ive power over the remedy, touched Strauss vs. Foederick.

1. Partnership effects must be appropriated to partnership debts, to the exclusion of claims of a creditor upon a member of the firm. And the rule is the same, where they are as signed by mortgage to one who has creditor both of the firm and of an individual partner. 2. In such case the law makes the appropriation, and the creditor cannot elect, even with the concurrence of the surviving partner, as in this case, to make a different disposition of the effects to the prejudice of the estate to the deceased partner. Jones vs. Arrington. It is competent for the legislature to empower sheriffs to collect "back taxes," and where, as here, the sheriff himself made a full settlement and has gone out of office, the delinquent taxpayer's liability to him is not thereby extinguished. Taylor vs. Allen, 67 N. C., 346, commented on. King vs. Foscue.

1. A lease of land made by a tenant for life terminates at his death, out by statute the lease is continued o the end of the current lease-year that the tenant may gather his crop. 2.
