Lapham continued his remarks on the Des Moines River land titles. Van Wyck submitted a joint resolution prohibiting the Florida railway and navigation company from selling lands granted in aid of railway construction in that State. At Van Wyck's request the resolution was laid over for the present.

At 1 o'clock Lapham's remarks were interrupted by the regular order, which was the anti-foreign contract labor bill.

Butler moved an amendment the salient features of which were that an alien or foreigner coming to the United States under prearrangement to labor here, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $100, or imprisonment not to exceed 2 months; and persons employing such alien or foreigner for such purpose shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $2,000, or imprisonment not to exceed 2 years. committee on elections, submitted a report on the Missouri contested election case of McLean vs. Broad head, accompanied by a resolution confirming the right of the sitting member, Broadhead, to the seat. Laid over for future action.

The morning hour having been dispensed with, Hutchins, of New York, moved that the House go into committee of the whole on the naval appropriation bill.

This was antagonized by Willis, who said it had been the understanding yesterday that this morning should be devoted to the consideration of the river and habor bill. It had not been the fault of the committee having charge of that bill, that so much time had been wasted today.

Hutchins' motion was lost; year 102, nays 129, and the House, at 2:30, went into committee of the whole, Hammond, of Georgia, in the chair, on the river and harbor bill. Pending the amendment which was offered as a substitute for the entire paragraph relative to Galves-ton harbor, was adopted. watch company, which has been in trouble for sometime, filed a bill in the circuit court to day, in which they allege that Maurice Wen dell, secretary and chief stockholder, has spent $206,000 of the company's funds in the space of little more than one year since the company was or ganized; that in one bill for machinery etc., he alleged that he paid $124, 000, when the actual outlay was only $40,000; that in other ways he has misappropriated the funds of the company, and that when taxed therewith, Wendell admitted the truth of the charge and asked them what they proposed to do about it, saying that he went into the company for the purpose of speculating on the money of the stockholders. They ask for an accounting.

Protesting Against Masonic Ceremo

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18,-A printed protest of large proportions against permitting Masonic services to paricipate in the dedication of the Washington Monument, next Satur day, has been received by the Congressional commission charged with the arrangements The signers claim to have thirteen thousand sig nutures, and the protestants say that the Masonic order has no more right to such distinction than Hibernians, or any other secret order. The stone sent by the Pope for the monument was, they say, broken up and thrown into the Potomac "why," they ask, are Catholics snubbed and freemasons honored?" "Free masonry," they say, "is of foreign birth, is en tirely un-American and unrepubli-can. Its public displays are pompous and barbarous. Its titles are extravagant and lordly. Its constitution is despotic, its oaths are extra Judicial, which Webstersaid should be suppressed by law." They pray that only such deremonies as are national in their scope and American in their character be permitted. The protest came too late for any action by the committee.

No Cabinet Announcements till After the Inauguration.

ALBANY, Feb. 18 .- The statement that the members of the Cabinet would be announced before the end of the week, is officially denied this evening, and it is now understood | that will be issued. that President elect Cleveland will not make public the list of his Cabi net officers until after he arrives in Washington. It is now thought that Senator Thurman will not come to Albany, as was expected a few days ago. Mr. Cleveland will leave for Washington on the morning of March 3, and will reach there on the evening of the same day.

It is contemplated by some members of the Legislature to move on Friday, Feb 27. that the adjourn ment on that day be until the eve ning of Monday. March 9, so as to give the members a chance to witness the inaugnration ceremonies and to attend the ball.

Ex-Gov. Moses Goes to the House of Correction.

Boston, Feb. 18.-In the Superior criminal court at East Cambridge yesterday afternoon, ex Gov. Moses, of South Carolina, charged with obtaining $34 under false pretenses from Col. T. W. Higginson, of Cambridge, came up for sentence, the defendant having pleaded guilty. Mr. Moses made an eloquent appeal for mercy, reviewing his past career, and stated that his mind had given way under his troubles, instancing the paltriness of the crime in proof thereof. He was sentenced to six months in the house of correction.

Emory Speer Confirmed. WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.-The Senate today in executive session confirmed the nomination of Emery Speer, of Georgia, to be U. S. District Judge for the Southern District of Georgia. The vote stood 26 to 25. Senator Hale voted in the negative and Senator Brown in the affirmative. The division was otherwise upon party lines. The chief speeches made on its consideration were by the Georgia Senators, Colquitt and Brown, the

AN IOWA DREAMER

Who Saw her Dead Father and Learn-ed who His Murderers Were. DES MOINES, IA. Feb. 18 .- Frank and Nathan Rainsbarger are in jail here for the murder of the father-in law of Nathan. It is thought that they are the authors of many crimes in the vicinity of Steamboat Rock. At the preliminary examination Nathan's wife gave expression to her suspicions, and her husband wrote her a letter condemning her therefor, to which she replies in defense of herself. She charges that he killed her father brutally not even decently; that he scratched his face while he was dying; that he was placed on a wild horse, his coat and shirt pulled over went on, that I am utterly indifferent as to shielding myself on the ground that I am entitled to protection away he fell and was dragged a long distance, and left on the roadside all distance, and left on the roadside all night. She says she had a dream and asked her father to tell her how it was. The father, she says, answered: "Nettie, don't never worry any about how I was killed, but I will tell you who did it. Frank and Nathan killed me."

The deed was done for the old man's life insurance and in a man-ner to lead people to believe the horse ran away and killed him. Excitement is very great and the people have so much faith in the woman's dream and suspicions that mob violence is feared. Natnan has vowed to kill his wife if he gains his lib-

Law-Defying Miners.

LYNCHBURG, Feb. 18.-Trouble is reported at Pocahontas, Tazewell county, and more is anticipated. Owing to the depression in business a number of miners were recently discharged from the coal mines. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as the was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the child has sed in suffering, and the as the was strongly in take.

That night the child parsed in suffering, and the parents without sleep, the aming home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic dulies, and left the father with the shild. During her absence he administered a porsome domestic dulies, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awake in the merning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup and suffering crying babtes and restless uights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never rot talled to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. And by all Druzzists. 25 cents a bottle.

HOW GORDON FELL.

The Story of His Slaughter as Told by Abdul Kerim. LONDON, Feb 17 -The cavass, who has given the most intelligent, and to all appearances the most reliable account of the events attending the fall of Khartoum, is named Abdul Kerim. He was one of General Gordon's serwas one of General Gordon's servants. He secured his escape from Khartoum after the city fell, he says, by bribery. He bought a camel and crossed to Debbeh, the journey taking twelve days. From Debbeh he came to Korti in an English pinnace. He says that Farage, upon whom Gordon relied implicitly, was really the person who delivered Khartoum over to El Mahdi's troops. When they entered the city it was Farage who prevented the garrison from firing upon them. The story that Farage had once been a slave, and that Gordon secured his liberation, and that when he subsequently entered Gordon's service, the latter was deceived into mistaking Farage's zeal for evidence of gratitude, is corroborated by the cavass. Concerning the massacre in Khartoum, Abdul Kerim states that General Gordon's clerk, and the chief clerk of the arsenal were killed. El Mahdi did not enter Khartoum until the third day after its capitulation. He inspected the city and then returned to Omdurman, where he remains. After General Gordon fell Abdul Kerim says the Aaabs killed his clerk and nine others with spears. Those who were at the time with Gordon escaped. The cavass declares that with the exception of the attack in which these murders were committed, there was no fighting in Khartoum. During the attack, however, all the Europeaus and most of the notables were killed. While the attack was in pro gress, the male inhabitants of the city joined the insurgents. Abdul states that no women or children were killed, and that all who submitted to the invaders and surrendered

And Two Bodies Found Dead on the Road.

Louisville, Feb. 17 .- Will Adams, 26 years old, and his sweetbeart, Tinie Wilmouth, a pretty girl, 18 years old, were found dead on the railroad one mile west of Shelbyville, Ky. Their bodies, stiff in death and bespattered with blood, lay within a few feet of each other. Will Adam's pistol lay between his legs. He evidently mur-dered the girl and then took his own life. Both were shot in the head, she in the left ear, he in the left eye. They walked to Shelbyville early in the night from William Jessie's house, where the girl lived, and on their re turn they are supposed to have sat down on the railroad track at the scene of the tragedy. What took place between them no one knows. I wing to the danger threatening the Two pistol shots were heard about eleven o'clock last night, and the dead bodies were found in the morning by Mrs. Kent, a neighbor. ## An Exp of d Boom.

A long, lank, lean and chronic Anti-Potasi Boom met the new, fat and saucy Atlanta Big Bold com, on a hot, sultry day.

"Who are you?" asked the B. B. B. Boom. "I am the old Anti-Potash Boom," was the sad eply, as the prespiration rolled down, and it isan ed heavily on the B. R. B. Boom for support.

"Don't lean on me," said the B. B. B. Beom. "I may look strong, but I am quite young—only 14 months old, and am growing rapidly, and am mighty weak in the knees, I am doing the work which you h ve failed to do, although you are 50 years old. You are old, and tough, and rich, and don't require a support. But what causes you to look so thin of late?" "Well, I hardly know," replied the Anti-Potash Boom. "My physician t ils me that my abilities nave been over-rated, and that while trying to whip out all opposition by boast and brag, that I have only proven my inability to cope with what he calls my superiors. Old age is also creeping on menaving fought near 50 years before any one knew I was living-and now I am unable to perform feats that others are doing. I am collapsed; my friends have turned aganist me and call me names, and of Lordy, how sick I become at the very sight of B. B. B. Hold my head while I die."

A SUNBEAM.

Compared to other remedles, B. B. B. ts the rai dient sunbeam of midday, flinging its glittering glare to saddened hearts, while others are pale noonbeans, pushing along through misty meshes of darkness, in search of something they can cure It cures blood diseases and poisons, catarrh, old ilcers, scrofula. rheumatism, skin diseases, kidney troubles, etc., and we hold a 32 page book full of evidence—Atlanta evidence—that cannot be doubted proving all we claim. Our certificates are not phantasmagoricat, nor far fetched, but are voluntary outbursts of men and women of Atlanta.

RHEUMATIST.

Atthough a practitioner of near twenty years, my mother influenced me to procure B. B B for ner. She had been confined to her bed several nonths with rhe matism which had stu-bornly esisted all the usual remedies. Within twentyfour hours after commencing B. B. B I observed narked relief. She has just commenced her third bottle and is nearly as active as ever, and has been in the front yard "rake in hand," cleaning up. Her improvement is truly won-terful and immensely gratifying.
