ARTHUR'S LAST DAY, Visitors at the White House--- Packing Up-Closing Up Work --- Mr. Arthur's Movements --- Dense Throngs, Ect.

WASHINGTON, March 3. - The White House building and corridors were crowded with visitors today. The east room, however, was the only room open to sight seers. Policeman guarded the stairway leading to the upper portions of the house and allowed to pass only those on official business. The President was kept very busy during the day signing acts of Congress and attending to other official matters. Members of the U.S. Supreme Court, headed by Chief Justice Waite, called just before noon and took leave of the President. A meeting of the cabinet was held at noon and lasted about two hours. All the members were present. The session was devoted to clearing up all official business requiring action during the present administration. During the session a messenger brought a large handsome floral cornicopia, across which was laid a beautiful horse shoe formed of rare exotics. At 2:30 o'clock the President received the members of the diplomatic corps. All the lega-tions were represented, and it seemed as if every diplomat in the city improved the opportunity to take official leave of the President.

While arrangements were being made for packing and removing the personal effects of the President and family, a large express wagon drove up to the main entrance and deposited a number of trunks, and parcels containing the personal effects of President elect Cleveland and his private secretary. They were taken into the house to be cared for until Mr. Cleveland takes up his residence

The President's effects will be removed tomorrow. After the President has reviewed the procession he will proceed direct to the residence of Secretary Frelinghuysen, whose guest he will be for two or three weeks. His son and daughter will accompany him. Mrs. McElroy will be the guest of Mrs. John Field, and Mrs. Haynesworth will be the guest of Mrs. James A. Dumont on Capitol

At 12 o'clock the corridors of the Capitol were almost impassable. Dense crowds surroundered every door of the galleries of the two houses peering through and awaiting the departure of the more fortunate occupants of seats within. They are composed for the most part of well behaved and well dressed people, and by far the larger half wore overcoats of army blue, and a large percentage of those in civilian dress were decorated with silken badges indicating membership of visiting organizations. An extra session remains a possibility, and the subject is one most discussed among the members and attaches of Congress. The condition of business is such that appropriation bills might be disposed of within twelve hours, yet a possibility remains that some will not be passed The great crowds of spectators have a very inspiring effect upon the eloquence of many members. The weather is beautiful, and the indica tions are favorable for a fair day to-

Butterworth Resigns .- Farewell to P. M. General Hatton.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.-Benjamin B itterworth, commissioner of patents to-day handed his resignation to Secretary Teller, who accepted it and complimented him upon his energetic administration of the office. At the close of business hours today the principal officers of the Post office department assembled in the Postmasters General's room to take leave of Mr. Hatton, the retiring head of the department. He thanked them for their faithful discharge of duty and received from them in return expressions of their good will and their approval of his administration and business methods. In accordance with the usual custom, members of the Cabinet have placed their re-signations in the hands of President Arthur.

Coal Miners Resolving to Strike.

PITTSBURG, PA., March 3.—The coal miners of the Pittsburg district, at the representative convention held here today, refused to accept the trades tribunal rate of 2½ cents per bushel awarded by Umpire Weeks, and after denouncing the umpire for his decision, resolved to strike next Monday for 3 cents per pound. The operators assert that they will not pay the advance demanded by the convention, and if it is insisted upon they will close down their mines, A strike or lockout will throw out of employment 4,000 men.

Legislative Doings.

RALEIGH, March 2 — The Senate dis-cussed the public school bill at great length, and passed it substantially as it came from the House. The Legislature will on Thursday appoint magistrates for the entire State. There are a great number. No less than nine counties having failed to send in any nominations for magis-trates, they will all be left out if they do not come in by Wednesday night.

The House today passed on its third reading the bill incorporating the Spartanburg and Shelby Railroad.

at Cherry Run, east of this place. The ground was frozen very hard and it was found necessary to use a pick to loosen the earth with which to fill the grave. James Atchison was doing the work and a man named Adams was shoveling the earth into the grave. Adams slipped and fell just as the pick was coming down. The pick penetrated his skull and he died in an hour.

Watermelous in Winter.

Mobile is boasting of a watermelon that has just ripened in the open air. The seed was planted in the late fall and the vine grew right along in the open air with no protection from the weather. The largest melon on the vine ripened and was pulled on Tues day. It was of good size and fully developed.

One Vote for Morrison. SPRINGFIELD, ILL, March 3 .- In the joint convention to-day 44 Senators and 122 representatives were present. On roll call no response was made except by Speaker Haines who voted for Morrison. An adjournment was then taken.

CLOSING SCENES.

THE SENATE CONSIDERING HOUSE AMENDMENTS.

The House Taugled up and Pretty Generally Mixed, Takes Several Re-

Washington, March 3.—Senate.— The Senate was called to order at 9 clock, a quorum not being present.

Dawes moved a call of roll which showed 25 Senators present, being 14 short of a quorum. At 9.50 the chair declared a quorum present.

Dawes called up the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill. The two Houses he said had agreed on the bill so far as all items proper ly pertaining to the appropriation bill were concerned. The Senate had struck out all the items of general legislation and all the items for the depredation claims. Upon those, however, the House insisted. Since the bill was passed, Dawes added, the Senate seemed to have weakened on its position as to general legislation. Some of the provisions of the Indian appropriation bill were open violations of our treaty obligations as well as unconstitutional. Sherman said if the Senate regarded the House legislation as wise the Senate rule should not interfere with it. If unwise and unsound the Senate should not recede, no matter what the consequences.

After further discussion, in order to bring the question to a point and get the understanding of the Senate, Dawes moved, though he said he would vote against his own amendment, that the Senate recede as to the provision of the bill relating to the legal jurisdiction and procedure in cases of crimes committed by the Indians.

The Senate refused to recede, yeas nays 47. A message from the House of Representatives announced a disagreement with the Senate on the sundry civil bill. The Senate, on motion of Dawes, insisted on its amendments and the chair appointed as a conference committee, Allison, Hale and Beck.

Dawes, explained the remaining differences on the Indian bill to be the provision prohibiting the carrying of whiskey into the Indian territory, that to disarm the Indians, and that relating to the Oklahoma territory. These, Dawes added were good provisions but were at present in such a form in the bill as to do more harm than good. Pending consideration of this mat ter, Conger at 11 o clock a. m. moved that when the Senate adjourn today, legislat ve day being from the 2nd of March until noon today, it be to meet at 1 p. m., on the 3rd-this | in the Senate amendment to the post-afternoon. Agreed to.

Sherman explained that an erroneous impression seemed to prevail that the committee of arrangements ap pointed by the Senate to take charge of the inaugural ceremonies, had, with respect to the conduct of the coming inaugural, departed from the old established rule. He, Mr. Sher-man, had had all old programmes looked up and he could positively state that not only had the House o Representatives not been discriminated against but that in the present instance the precedents had been somewhat departed from in favor of the members of the House. He, Sherman, would be very sorry that any want of consideration should be shown the House of Representatives. He read the programme of 1881 to

The matter of the Indian conference report was again taken up.

Dawes moved that the Senate insist on the remaining amendments. Manderson moved that the Senate ecede as to the amendment extending the time for payment for Indian Van Wyck satirically said the Senate could not agree to the legislative provisions on the appropriation bill when put on by the House but could itself put in such a bill, a Pa cific mail subsidy clause, when it thought fit John Roach, Jay Gould and C. The committee on appropriations submitted the deficiency appropria-tion bill. It is the last of the appro-priation bills before the Senate committee on appropriations. It comprises over ninety pages and appropriates $1,491,133 more than the bill as it passed the House.

At one o'clock Monday's session was formally adjourned and Tuesday's session began, the Senators not leaving their seats. On motion of Riddleberger, a bill removing the political disabilities of W. H. Murdaugh, of Virginia, was passed.

The general deficiency bill was then

A number of amendments were added, none of which were of general interest and the bill passed.

The fortification bill was then taken up and passed with but few amendments.

priates $10,000,000. House,-Night Session Monday.-The House diligently proceeded to do nothing while waiting for the sundry civil bill to come over from the Sen-

At 2 o'clock a recess of half an hour was taken. During this period the few members present proceeded to enjoy themselves, which they did by lolling lazily back in their seats, cigar in mouth and feet on desk, and giving vent to their patriotic sentinents by bursting forth into song. "Dixie," "Star Spangled Banner," "John Brown's Body," "Yankee Doodle" and "Hail Columbia" followed each other in quick succession, and then, becoming more sentimental, the gentlemen expressed their admiration for "The Old Folks at Home," and informed each other in musical accents that "There's a Land that is Fairer than This."

At 2:30 the House was called to order, and at 3:55 took a recess until 9 o'clock a. m. There were hardly a dozen members in the hall when the session was resumed at 9 a. m. The sundry civil bill had in the meantime come over from the Senate heavily loaded with amendments. Randall asked unanimous consent that this bill be taken up and the Senate amendments non-concurred in and sent to the conference committee, but objection came from Hep burn, and then there was a call of the House, which, closing at 9:30, showed the presence of only 45 mem-and agreed to, and Randall, Forney and Ryan were appointed conferees on the part of the House. After various ineffectual attempts to have bills taken up by unanimous consent, and it being plainly impossi ble to have any public business transacted, the House at 10 a. m. adjourned

Randall's motion was then renewed till eleven. When the House reassembled at 11 o'clock, the Speaker announced that owing to the continued session of the House from 11 o'clock yesterday morning to almost four this morning the journal was not prepared, and its reading was temporarily dispensed Valentine immediately moved that the House take a recess until 10 o'clock tonight, his object being to prevent consideration of the contested election case of Frederick vs Wilson, of Iowa.

The Republicans refrained from voting on the motion for a recess. and left the House without a quorum. No attempt was made to transact any business until Townshend submitted the report of the conference committee on the postoffice appropri ation bill announcing the continued disagreement. Townshend stated that there were several points of difference between the two houses, the most important of which was on the Senate amendment relating to ocean mail service. He was opposed to this because he regarded it in the light of a subsidy proposition, and because it entrusted a dangerous power to the Postmaster General.

Pending debate the Speaker laid before the House a communication from G. H. Craig, Representative from the Fourth Alabama District, stating that he had forwarded to the Governor of that State his resignation, to take effect at midday on March 3. Laid on the table. After a long debate, the House refused, yeas 128, pays 132, to concur cffice appropriation bill relative to ocean mail transportation. The remaining amendments were concurred in. The conference committee on the Indian appropriation bill reported a disagreement upon some of the disputed amendments, and a further conference was ordered. The conference report on the pension appropriation bill was adopted. The House recedes from its disa-greement to all the Senate amend-nents, and, as finally agreed to, the bill appropriates $60,000,000. The House then at 5:15 took a recess until 7:30. Upon reconvening at 7:30, numerous motions to take a recess were made to again prevent consideration of the election cases. A point of no quorum was raised. Robinson, of New York, made an show that in the old practice the appeal, "as the last word he would ever say in Washington," asking the House to make a donation of any amount to Miss Michleham, granddaughter of Jefferson, and requested unanimous consent for the passage of the bill making an appropriation for that purpose.

Hammond, of Georgia, objected.

WASHINGTON NOTES. 500 B 1000 Mr. Cleveland Calis on Mr. Arthures Hazen to be Courtmartialed .- Calling on the President-Elect. WASHINGTON, March 3 .- Presidentelect Cleveland called upon President Arthur this afternoon.

The President to day ordered a general courtmartial to convene in the city of Washington on the 11th inst., for the trial of Brigadier Gen-eral, W. B. Hazen, chief signal officer of the army on charges of con duct prejudicial to good order and military discipline in having officially and publicly criticised the action of the secretary of war for not following his recommendation to send an expedition to the relief of Lieut. Greey in September 1883. The following s the detail for the court: Maj Generals Hancock and Schofield Brigadier Generals, Howard, Terry, Augur, MacFeeiy, commissary General, Rochester Paymaster, General, Holabird, quarter master general, Murray, surgeon general, John Newton, chief of engineers, Col. S. Andrews, 25th infantry. Merritt, 5th cavalry, Black 23rd infantry with Capt, J. W. Clous, 24th infantry as judge advocate,

Orders were also issued today for a suspension of Hazen, and for him to consider himself in arrest until further orders. Capt. Mills of the signal service, has been ordered to duty as acting chief signal officer pending the result of the trial of Hazen. It is understood that the action of the President in this case was precipitated by an interview with Gen. Hazen published in a newspaper of this city yesterday, in which Hazen is represented as placing on the Sec-retary of War the responsibility for the loss of so many members of the Greeley party. The sub-committee appointed by the inauguration general reception committee to welcome the President elect to Washington, called on him by appointment at 4 o'clock this afternoon Their chairman, Hon. Richard T. Merrick, after introducing his fellow members, expressed welcome in a few well chosen words and Governor Cleveland felicitiously returned his acknowledgments. An informal conversation ensued for some little time and the committee then individually took their leave. The membership of the committee was as follows: Hon. Richard T. Merrick, Hon. Eppa Hunton, Allan McLane, John E. Norris, John W. Thompson, Hon. Horatio King, Dr. Daniel B. Clarke, Adjt. Gen. Drum, Gen. Hazen, Josiah Dent David E. McKee, Rear Admiral Carter, Maj. G. C. Gets into Washington Without any Fuss and Feathers and Goes Quietty to the Arling ton

WASHINGTON, March, 2 .- At 7 o'clock this morning when the mist of night still clung around the B. & O. depot, and but few persons were stir ring, the special train bearing the President-elect and his party drew up on the side track in the depot. The committee of citizens appointed by chairman Corcoran to receive President-elect had been informed by him that he desired to avoid a public re ception and would prefer to receive a visit from the committee at his hotel. They were also informed yesterday evening by a member of the senate, designated by Governor Cleveland as a medium of further communication that other and priva'e arrangements have been made for his comfortable reception at the station and conveyance to the hotel, but nevertheless, when the party arrived, only a few train hands and a half dozen reporters were present. The President-elect was accompanied by his brother, Rev. L. Cleveland, wife and child, his sisters Mrs. Hoyt and Miss Cleveland, his neice, Miss Mary Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Manning, and Col. Daniel Lamont. wife and two children. After a delay of about ten minutes chairman Berret and Mr. Gault, of the inaugural committee put in an appearance and were introduced to the President elect. Some twenty minutes were required to secure carriages, and it was ten minutes to eight o'clock be-fore the party disembarked, meanwhile news of the arrival of the party had spread, and a crowd gathered around the Pullman car Marathon and stared hard at the President elect who bore scrutiny with equanimity. When the carriages arrived the party alighted and proceeded through the ladies waiting room to the north entrance, the President-elect leading with chairman Barrett. He wore a blue overcoat and a silk hat and did not appear to be at all fatigued by his night journey. The carriages were taken and the party proceeded to the Arlington hotel where a hasty toilet was made, and breakfast serv-

From Tarboro Southerner July 17.

From Tarboro Southerner July 17.

While visiting Tarboro, on July 8th, I was re quested to vi-it Miss Mary K. Staton, seven mile from town, who for seven weeks had been suifering exeruciating agony from some blood poison, supposed to be poison oak. On last Tuesday, at her request, I went to see her, and expected to see great suffering, but was not prepared for the scene that met me. I found the patient broken out all over with an eruption which had occasioned such intense itching that during the paroxysms she was perfectly uncontrollable, and had scratched and torn herself to pleces until her agony was indescribable. During these paroxysms she would have to be held, and her screams could be heard a long distance. She would pray for death to come to her relief; her whole body was purple and raw, and exuded a yellow water which satuarted the bed through several thick quilts—that day she had posuded a yellow water which satuarted the bed through several thick quits—that day she had possessed herself of a thick gutta percha coarse comb and before she could be prevented, had raked herself with it with such force as to break out some of the teeth, thus adding to her agony. She was attended by as good physicians as l'arboro and her neighborhood could afford, but their treatment afforded only occasional relief by outward applicacations, and no permanent benefit, as the paroxymus continued to return with increasing violence. forded only occasional relief by outward applicacations, and no permanent benefit, as the paroxysms continued to return with increasing violence.
Upon viewing the condition of the patient I called thefamily together and told them to bear witness that I PROMISED NOTHING. I could not tell whether my Remedy would relieve or npt, as I had never even imagined such suffering, but it could do no harm and might do good. I then gave her a large dose of the Bitters, and as soon as the paroxysm was over, I sponged her whole body with the Wash, white doing so she would call out. "Oh that does feel so good." I then gave her another dose of the Bitters, and she was soon in a sweet sleep. I contioued this treatment, and, whenever the itching would recur, I would sponge the body instantly with the Wash, which, in every instance a layed the irritation or itching, and warded off those violent would recur, but every time was allayed by the application of the Wash. I left her Wednesday easy and comfortable, with directions for the treatment was necessary. I came again to see her to-day,

During Wednesday, she would frequently call for the Bitters, as she craved its soothing and quietly effects, and during the day I administered a whole bottle, with the above results, thus proving, what I have slwags claimed, that my Remedy is an infallible antidote for all blood impurity. An Exp od d Boom.

A long, lank, lean and chronic Anti-Potash

Boom met the new, fat and saucy Atlanta Big Bold Bgom, on a hot, sultry day. "Who are you?" asked the B. B. B. Boom. "I am the old Anti-Potash Boom," was the sad reply, as the prespiration rolled down, and it lean ed heavily on the B. B. B. Boom for support. "Don't lean on me," said the B. B. B. Beom. may look strong, but I am quite young-only 14 months old, and am growing rapidly, and am mighty weak in the knees. I am doing the work which you have failed to do, although you are 50 years old. You are old, and tough, and rich, and don't require a support. But what causes you to look so thin of late?" "Well, I hardly know," replied the Anti-Potast Boom. "My physician tells me that my abilities have been over-rated, and that while trying to whip out all opposition by boast and brag, that I have only proven my inability to cope with what he calls my superiors. Old age is also creeping on mehaving fought near 50 years before any one knew I was living-and now I am unable to per'orm feats that others are doing. I am collapsed; my friends have turned aganist me and call me names, and oh Lordy, how sick I become at the very sight of B. B. B. Hold my head while I die,"

A SUNBEAM.

Compared to other remedies, B. B. B. is the ra dient sunbeam of midday, flinging its gittering glare to saddened hearts, while others are pale moonbeans, pushing along through misty meshes of darkness, in search of something they can cure It cures blood dis-ases and poisons, catarrh, old ulcers, scrofula, rheumatism, skin diseases, kidney troubles, etc., and we hold a 32 page book full of evidence—Atlanta evidence that cannot be doubted proving all we claim. Our certificates are not phantasmagorical, nor far fetched, but are voluntary oulbursts of men and women of Atlanta.

REEDINATES W. Athough a practitioner of near twenty years, my mother influenced me to procure B. B B. for her. She had been confined to her bed several months with rheumatism which had stubborni resisted all the usual remedies. Within twenty four hours after commencing B. B. B. I observed marked relief. She has just commenced her third bottle and is nearly as active as ever, and has been in the front yard "rake in hand," cleaning up. Her improvement is truly wonderful and immensely gratifying.
