A TEA PARISE PROBABLE The Supply in the Country Decreasing and Noching Coming from China.

The war between China and France creates great uneasiness among the importers of tea. By reason of the blockeds of China and Ch blockade of Chinese ports the supply in this market is becoming limited, and fears are entertained that this country will be affected with a tea

A member of the firm of A. Col-burn & Co. No. 110 Wall street, said yesterday: "The Island of Formosa, yesterday: "The Island of Formosa, upon which we depend largely for our supply of black teas, has been blockaded by the French since September. As a natural consequence we have been unable to communicate any orders we might see fit to make to shippers at that point. Therefore we have received no invoices since the war began.

"For how long a period will the supply we now possess last?"

I tear we shall be very short of tea

before August, unless the blockade is raised. It is to be supposed that the planters in Formosa are now sowing their crop. In June they will reap it. If by that time the French vacate Chinese waters we shall have an abundant supply. Should France, on the other hand, decide not only to continue the blockade at Formosa. but to cut off all communication with Shanghai, Foo Chow, and other tea ports, we shall be forced to call upon "Could Japan be depended upon to furnish an adequate supply?"

"This country consumes annually in round figures, 100,000,000 pounds of The vast majority of this we have heretofore received from China. Pos sibly Japan sends us between 20,000, ooo and 30,000,000 pounds I doubt if we could depend on her for more than 50,000,000 pound a year in the aggregate. You can readily see then that should our Chinese supply be taken from us we should be put on half rations. Tea parties would then be rather expensive luxuries and indigent persons would be compelled to forego the pleasure of partaking of the delicious drink. Our advices tolay say that as yet there is no believ ing that the blockade at Formosa will be raised for some time to come. The other tea ports have not yet been compelled to sever communication with us. What may happen in week's time we are too far from the scene of the conflict to predict."

The Russo-English Bone of Contentio Col. J. R. Davis, of Weldon, and another friend, whose name is unknown to us, have anticipated our wants. Col. Davis sends us a barrel and a box of crockery, and the "friend' two barrels of dried fruit."

His request being granted, the Ameer found his northwest frontier extending, as he had anticipated, beyond Sari Yazi and Pendjeh on the Murghab. About a year ago he occupied in the latter place, deeming its possession neces-

His title to Pendjeh is disputed by the Russians, both by reason of the recentness of this occupation, and by reason of the fact that the He was about 47 years of age, and has been an invalid for many months.

There is an immense amount of lawlessness in the city. Chicken thieves, burglars or incendiaries fur by the Ameer that military occupation. tion is not to be regarded as the only possible proof of title; that Shere Ali, or his son Yakoob Khan, certainly held Badghis from 1863 to 1879, and during that period, as well as at ear-lier times, the Sariks who inhabit Pendien paid tribute to the Herat government. The symptoms which are most important will now be described. "ne of the most common and direct of all, is an uneasiness in the region of the stomach felt soon after taking food. Tals uneasiness is variously described as fullness, weight or oppression—a feeling as if the stomach was "swelled." The same feeling is sometimes felt after drinking water. Flatulency, or gaseous distension of the stomach and bowels. Eructation, or belching of the gas or "wind" from the stomach. Vomiting or spitting up of the food. Water-brash and Heartburn, and frequently pain in the region of the heart, with palpitation or "fluttering," with quick, short or difficult breathing. Headache, with constipation of the bowels, dizziness. "swimming or lightness" of the head. Foul tongue, with a "bad." bitter, or unnatural taste of the mouth. Torpid liver, with a sense of fullness in the right side and pain in the right shoulder. Pain in the simal of the back in the region of the kidneys with dark colored urine. Cough, which is often attributed to consumption, to which dyspepsia may lead if neglected as him is often caused by dyspepsia, and when produced from other causes, is aggravated by dyspepsia. Mental depression, despondency, melancholy, nervousness, "sick spella." "faintness," a sense of weariness, languar, "siu pid or dull feelings," inability to sleep, and when it can be obtained it is often disturbed by unjeasant dreams, nightmare. &c. These are some of the most prominent symptoms of this widespread disease, a very few persons being entirely at all times free from it. One or more of these symptoms being present in all cases, depending upon individual peculiarity, length of time the person has suffered from it, and the other diseases, compileations, &c., to which this disease has given rise.

RHEUMATISM AND TONIC.

I have used Mrs. Joe Person's Reme dy, and it is the finest medicine I ever used for Rheumatism For more than twenty years I have been afflicted with muscular Rheumatism, and had tried every known remedy, but without avail. I was often so bad off and suffered so much that I could not lie down, but had to be propped up in bed. I had been subject to these severe attacks for twenty years. I tried Mrs. Person's Remedy last spring, and am perfectly cured. It is the best medicine in the world, I think No words of mine can express the benefit I have derived from its use I suffered from palpitation of the heart upon the least exertion. Of that I am perfectly relieved. My health is now perfect, and it is all owing to Mrs Joe Person's Remedy. 1 am strong and well, and can take extended exercise without fatigue. I advise all who need a Tonic, or are suffering with Rheumatism or Eczema, to take it. I was induced to try it by it having cured my little grandson of MRS. S. M. HOWELL.

While visiting Tarboro, on July 8th, I was requested to vi-it Miss Mary K. Staton, seven mile from town, who for seven weeks had been suffering excruciating agony from some blood poison, supposed to be poison oak. On last Tuesday, at her request, I went to see her, and expected to see great suffering, but was not prepared for the scene that met me. I found the patient broken out all over with an eruption which had occasioned such intense itching that during the paroxysms she was perfectly uncontrollable, and had scratched and torn herself to pieces until her agony was indescribable. During these paroxysms she would have to be held, and her screams could be heard a long distance. She would pray for death to come to her relief; her whole body was purple and raw, and exuded a rellow water which satuarted the bed relief; her whole body was purple and raw, and exuded a yellow water which satuarted the bed through several thick quitts—that day she had possessed herself of a thick gutta percha coarse cemb and before she could be prevented, had raked herself with it with such force as to break out some of the teeth, thus adding to her agony. She was attended by as good phys clans as Tarboro and her neighborhood could afford, but their treatment afforded only occasional relief by outward applicacations, and no permanent benefit, as the paroxysms continued to return with increasing violence. Upon viewing the condition of the patient I called thefamily together and told them to bear witness sysms continued to return with increasing violence. Upon viewing the condition of the patient I called thefamily together and told them to bear witness that I PROMISED NOTRING. I could not tell whether my Remedy would relieve or not, as I had never even imagined such suffering, but it could do no harm and might do good. I then gave her a large dose of the Bitters, and as soon as the paroxysm was over, I sponged her whole body with the Wash, while doing so she would call out. "Oh, that does feel so good." I then gave her another dose of the Bitters, and she was soon in a sweet sleep. I continued this treatment, and whenever the itching would recur, I would sponge the body instantly with the Wash, which, in ever instance alayed the irritation or itching, and warded off those violent paroxysms. She did not have an attack during the day, and by 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, tile disease was under perfect control. The tiching would recur, but every time was allayed by the application of the Wash. I lett her Wednesday easy and comfortable, with directions for the treatment to be continued during the night, and as long as was necessary. I came again to see her to-day, Saturday, the 12th, and found her up and dressed, and in the regular prosecution of her household duries. She is entirely relieved although she will Saturday, the 12th, and found her up and dressed, and in the regular prosecution of her household duties. She is entirely relieved, although she will, of course, have to take the Bitters some time to completely eradicate the poison from her blood puring Wednesday, she would frequently call for the Bitters, as she craved its soothing and quieting effects, and during the day I administered a whole bottle, with the above results, thus proving, what I have a ways claimed, that my Remedy is an Infallible articote for all blood impurity. I am ble antidote for all blood impurity. I am,

Within the past eighteen resonths, however, the owners have discovered deposits of ore in Crowder's Mountain, (five veins of iron ore, are exposed), which were suknewn before, and which will furnish an amount of good ore, easily worked and above water, that must eake it one of the most desirable iron properties to be found.
