Craig replied, mile north of Pebruary the Russians lo-cated an outpost of twenty five Turk-omans at Kizil Tepe, a mound, one tion was requested. Craig replied, asking by what authority the Secre-tary of the Treasury had made such a request, and for what cause it had been made. Today Commissioner Miller elegraphed that the resigna-tion was requested because it was understood in Washington that Craig was simply awaiting such a request to tender it. As Craig had given, no to tender it. As Craig had given no intimation of an intention to resign, it was concluded that the commissioner's action was based on false representations made at the internal revenue department. There has been no further developments in the mai-ter. Oraig still holds the office.
