LOGAN ELECTED.

The long protracted U. S Senatorial farce in the Illinois Legislature closed yesterday with the election of John A. Logan, Republican, to be his own successor. On a joint ballot the Legislature was a tie, but some weeks after the beginning of the session a Republican member died of heart disease, giving the Democrats a majority of one. They failed to avail themselves of the opportunity presented, and fooled along casting their votes for Morrison, with the exception of two, who would not vote for him, and whose votes were necessary to elect. Then a Democrat died, again making a tie. The routine voting continued as a mere matter of form. A special election was held and a Republican, through Democratic mismanagement and stupidity, elected from a strong Democratic county, giving the Republicans a clear majority. But as there were some Democrats who would not vote for Morrison, so there were two Republicans who would not vote for Logan until yesterday, when they were brought into the traces and voted for Logan, one of them under protest. The Democrats did this vote at first, and when it was seen that Logan had a majority they undertook to play a little piece of strategy, and as they could not elect a Democrat, they made an effort to draw away some votes from Logan by bringing forward Farwell, another Republican, trying to beat a Republican with a Republican, a fit conclusion of Mr. Morrison's obstinacy and the stupid bungling of those who permitted him to remain in the field when if he had been taken down the Democratic strength could have been centered upon some one else who could have been elected. But they foolishly permitted him to remain in, though it was demonstrated that he could not command the full Democratic vote, and there was no reason to believe that he could command any from the other side. When it was too late, and the Republicans had gotten the mastery of the situation, they ventured on strategy, and began to coquet with those Republicans who didn't like Logan by manifesting a willingness to elect a Republican. But there was one Democrat who, doubtless disgusted with the whole proceeding, voted for Logan when it was demonstrated that he had a majority, declaring that no other Republican than Logan should be elected.

The Democrats who from the beginning managed the whole business with colossal stupidity, and Mr. Morrison, whose inconsiderate selfishness towered conspicuously throughout the whole proceeding, deserve to be beaten, and their humiliation ought to be all the greater in having been beaten by John A. Logan, one of the most offensive and one of the weakest men that could have been put up against them. Mr. Morrison, who couldn't run his own State and send a Democrat to the U. S. Senate when it was to be accomplished by simply retiring from the field himself, is the man who undertook to run the Democratic party in the House of Representatives and would have put that in about the same plight he has put his party in Illinois had it not been for Samuel J. Randall and the few Democrats who stood by him and shackled Mr. Morrison in his wild career. Mr. Morrison should henceforth take a back seat, and watch the proceedings with becoming silence. In the meantime, John A Logan is under obligations to him.

To The State Press:

The undersigned begs all members of the North Carolina Press Association who propose to attend the annual meeting to be held at Smithville, June 17th, to inform him at once of their intention, together with the routes they will take, in order that passes may be secured for them. The time in which to do this is short. Prompt action on the part of all is therefore absolutely necessary. [State papers please copy]

ZALDIVAR A REFUGEE.

He Pecuniarily Ruined Salvador and Flees with His Country.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Private telegraphic dispatches received here state that Senor Zaldivar has resigned the Presidency of San Salvador and that Gen. Figaroa has been elected in his stead. Senor Zaldivar is reported to have sailed for Europe.

LA LIBERTAD, VIA GALVESTON, May 18.—It is reported that President Zaldivar left San Salvador because his life was in jeopardy. He departed in the middle of the night and went directly on board the German ship Warda. It is also rumored that when he came into power he owed large sums of money, but that he is now possessed of large amounts, chiefly invested abroad.

The revolution in the country still continues. Menendez is holding that part of the country bordering on Guatemala, while Gen Figaroa is holding San Salvador. It is said that the late President Barrios saved $14,000,000 during his Presidency.

THE GREEN EYED MONSTER.

A Rejected Lover Seeks Vengeance with His Little Pistol.

LOCUST GAP, PA., May 17.—Miss Julia Kramer eighteen years old, was shot and fatally injured this morning by Peter Knolbauch, a rejected lover. Miss Kramer was conversing with William Neuman, an accepted suitor, when Knolbauch approached and joined in the conversation. A moment later he drew his revolver and sent the ball through Miss Kramer's head, remarking that he would either marry her or kill her. A second shot passed through the young lady's head. A third shot at Neuman did not take effect. Knolbauch was arrested, and an attempt was made to lynch him, but the timely arrival of officers prevented it, and he was conveyed to jail.

ON THE RACK.

DRAWING THE CLAMPS TIGHTER ON CLUVERIUS.

Other Witnesses Testify to his Handwriting, to Clothing Worn, and Strengthen the Chain of Evidence.

RICHMOND, May 19.—The trial of T. J. Cluverius for the murder of Lillian Madison, was resumed at 9.15 o'clock this morning.

There were but few spectators outside the bar, and only a small number within the rail.

Col. Aylett, of the prosecution, asked that the jury be sent out of the room in order that the question of the admissibility of certain testimony might be argued.

The defense argued in opposition to permitting the introduction by the prosecution of one of the letters known as the "Curtis letter," which is said to be a forgery and which it is claimed was addressed by Cluverius. The letter was an invitation, or a request, from a lady of this city to Miss Madison to come to Richmond for the purpose of accompanying an invalid to Old Point Comfort.

The argument occupied nearly two hours and at its conclusion the court said it would examine the authorities and that in the meantime the case could go on in some other branch.

The jury was then recalled and Mrs. J. B. Dickinson was again placed in the witness chair.

She testified that she had received two postal cards from Lillian after the latter had left her house. Both were dated March 13. She burned them before she heard of Lillian's death, but could give the substance of their contents.

The defense objected to the witness giving the contents and the prosecution did not press the matter.

Lillian left the witness' house on January 5th and returned on the 8th but the witness did not know where she had been. She thought the trunk exhibited in the court was Lillian's. Upon cross examination the witness said that Lillian visited her cousin's family, who lived in the neighborhood, and other families near her home. Lillian had a lady friend named Miss Kenny, who had a grown brother. Miss Kenny and her brother came to witness' house to see Lillian. The deceased at times seemed to be depressed in spirits and troubled, but the witness never asked her why she was so. She was never visited by any gentlemen outside the immediate neighborhood. Lillian's demeanor while at the witness' house was faultless. She was always kind, amiable and gentle, and always doing little acts of kindness to contribute to the witness' happiness. She did not consider Lillian a brave woman.

The prosecution sought to put in evidence the bundle of clothing found in the river and other articles found.

The defense objected to the introduction of anything except the clothing found on the person of the deceased and the glove found on the reservoir embankment.

The objection was overruled and the defense excepted.

John L. Oliver, county jailer of King and Queen county, testified that acting under a search warrant about two weeks ago he had searched the house of Mrs. Tunstall the prisoner's aunt, and there found an overcoat and hat which the prisoner's mother said belonged to "Tommie," meaning her son.

On cross examination the witness said he was accompanied by three officers from Richmond. Mrs. Cluverius was the only white person at the house. She seemed agitated when the warrant was read to her and told a colored girl to go after some one, but one of the officers stopped the girl.

Emmitt Richardson, of King and Queen county, testified that about March 10, or 12, he came to Richmond with Cluverius and that he wore a light fall overcoat and low, slouch hat. To the best of his knowledge and belief the overcoat and hat were the same as worn by the prisoner at that time. Upon their arrival at Richmond he went with the prisoner to Davis' hotel, where Cluverius left his overshoes.

James M. Guthrie, assistant postmaster at Bracz, King and Queen county, had received letters to be mailed which to the best of his knowledge and belief were addressed in the prisoner's handwriting. He was sure that some of them were addressed to "Miss Fannie Lillian Madison, Milboro Springs, Bath county, Va." The last letter was mailed four or five days before it was reported that the prisoner had gone to Richmond.

It appeared during Guthrie's testimony that a private examination of the witness had taken place before the counsel for the prosecution, and that his answers under oath did not conform to all that seemed to be expected. The witness since his arrival in Richmond had roomed for a time with Wm. Cluverius, brother of the prisoner, and also with Messrs. Pollard and Evans, of counsel for the defense. He stated that there had been unkind feelings between himself and the prisoner for some six months.

Willie Dickinson, about fourteen years old, nephew of Mrs. Dickinson, testified that he lived with his aunt. He remembered getting a letter at the postoffice in March last for Miss Lillian, the day before she left for Richmond. The witness said he was familiar with the writing on the letter. He was shown some of the letters found in Lillian's trunk and he said he had seen several of them before.

The defense here interrupted with the statement that the relevancy of the letter testimony was now under the consideration of the court, and that everything leading up to it should be excluded. If it did not lead up to the main question it was worthless.

The witness was put aside for the present.

Judge John B. Foster, of King and Queen county court, testified that he knew the prisoner as a practitioner in his court. He knew his overcoat and had seen his watch key. The key was shown to him, and he said it bore a general resemblance to the one he had seen the prisoner wear, but he was not positive that it was the one.

At two o'clock the court adjourned until tomorrow so as to take time to examine the authorities on the questions upon which decision had been reserved, and to give counsel for the defense an opportunity to examine the trunk and the bag of clothing.

Arrested for Killing Their Son.

PETERSBURG VA., May 18.—Henry and Lizzie Stokes, colored, of Blacks and Whites, Nottoway county have been arrested on suspicion of having murdered their son Samuel, who, it is supposed, was stunned by a blow and then buried alive. The feeling against the prisoners is very strong.

Boys on Roller Skates Drowned.

TRENTON, N. J., May 19.—Wilkes Post, G. A. R., left this city this morning for Richmond, Va. They go at the invitation of the Lee Post of that city, and will be joined there by other New Jersey posts.

CAPTURED REBEL.

An Elephant That They Don't Know What to Do With.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 18.—The Government has not yet considered the case of Riel. The best lawyers here say he will be tried for treason felony under the treason felony act of 1869. He may be tried by general court martial or by an ordinary civil tribunal.

Chief Justice Walbridge, of Manitoba, was asked what course would be adopted in the trial of Riel. His lordship replied that according to the law he would have to be tried in the district or province where he was captured, namely, Saskatchewan. He could not be brought to Winnipeg or sent to Ottawa. The dominion government might issue a special commission and send up judges to try him. Special judges for the occasion might be appointed, but the trial would have to take place in the province where Riel was captured. Under the present act the judicial athorities in the district where Riel was captured have power to try the man for his life, but an appeal to the Manitoba bench is provided. He could not be tried by court martial under the circumstances, as Gen. Middleton had promised in his letter to Riel that he would be protected until the dominion government decided in his case. Treason in Canada is a capital offense, but owing to the jealousy existing between the French and English factions in Canada, serious complications will surely rise, and the trial will have peculiar significance which may ultimately end in disruption between the two nationalities. Quebec providence is sure to sympathize with him and insist on his not being put to death, while Ontario and the majority of the Manitoba and maratime provinces will cry out for his blood.

WASHINGTON FLASHES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—The President this afternoon made the following appointments: To be collectors of customs: J. L. F. Cotterell, District of St. Mark's, Fla., and Jno. J. McGuire, District of Pensacola, Fla.; collector of internal revenue, John T. Hillsman, Fifth District of Tennessee.

Admiral Jouett informed the Navy Department today that an additional force of five hundred Colombian men had arrived at Panama to protect the isthmus from the insurgents.

MINISTER PHELPS AT THE TRIAL.

It is learned at State Department that the presence of Minister Phelps at the conclusion of the trial of the Irish Americans, Cunningham and Barton, in London yesterday, when he sat beside Justice Hawkins on the bench, was in pursuance of special instructions received by him prior to his departure for England, looking to the protection of the legal rights of the prisoners. Mr. Phelps reached London Friday night and was received as Minister only last Saturday.

BOYNTON'S BOMB.

The Rackes He Raised by His Frolics some Adventure.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 19.—The inquiry of the naval authorities regarding Her Majesty's steamer Garnet's experience in the New York harbor is supposed to be closed for the present. Vice-Admiral Commerall favors sending to the Admiralty in London papers regarding Lieut. Gardiner's action in releasing Boynton and the others captured in New York barbor without taking them to Captain Hand, on board the Garnet. In the meantime Lieut Gardiner remains under arrest on board his ship. The sentry on the bow of the Garnet that night receives forty-five day's imprisonment, the severest punishment the captain can give without referring the case to a court martial. No other persons on the Garnet are held blameable in the matter and no charges were preferred against the captain or any other person on board.

Gen. Grant's Condition.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Gen. Grant did not suffer much pain last evening, nor through the night and after the usual number of hours of sleep he awoke this morning with little or no pain.

Dr. Douglas remained during the night, and when he left this morning he said he thought the General in common with so many others of late, had contracted some cold. This did not add any other difficulty than hoarseness, which, however, was not distressing though noticeable.

Bad Crop Outlook in Virginia.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 19.—Randolph Harrison, commissioner of agriculture of Virginia under date of May 16th, to S. W. Talmadge of this city says he has taken a trip through some of the richest counties of Virginia, and finds the condition of the wheat and oats wretched. He estimates that the State will not produce over 3,000,000 bushels of wheat this year, against 7,000,000 in 1884.

No Leniency for Riel.

TORONTO, Ont., May 19.—A cable despatch to the Globe says: All the leading journals congratulate Canada on what they deem the practical suppression of the rebellion in the northwest. They compliment the troops on their skill and the courage displayed by the commanders and men. In most quarters the hope is expressed that the government will not repeat any previous error of showing leniency to Riel.

What Called the Crowd.

Dramatic Times

The other day a man went sound asleep in the front office of the Coleman House, with his feet stuck up in full view of Broadway. They were enormous feet. The flat of the soles were the size of a fair sized dish. Mr John Rogers caught sight of the feet from the other side of Broadway, and crossed over to get a nearer view. Then he went inside, borrowed a piece of chalk and wrote on the sole of one shoe: "He is not dead but sleepeth." Within ten minutes Broadway, opposite the Coleman House had become impassable. People crushed forward to see what was the matter. Then men with the feet stood on. Policemen tried to make [illegible] of another. [illegible] on for half an hour. Then the man woke up, saw the crowd and went out to inquire what had happened.

THE ILLINOIS FARCE.

John A. Logan Gets the Solid Republican Vote and is Elected U. S. Senator.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 19.—At the joint session of the Legislature today there was a great jam both on the floor of the House and in the galleries.

There were present 51 Senators and 153 Representatives.

When the vote was taken a dead silence prevailed.

The Democrats refused to vote.

The Republican Senators all voted for Logan, giving him 26 votes. Ruger's vote was received with cheers. When the name of Sittig was called, after a long speech explaining his position, he voted for Logan under protest and the announcement was received with the wildest cheers. This gave Logan 103 vote.

On a call of the absentees, the Democrats voted solidly for Judge Lambert Tree.

After the roll call Messrs. Baker, McNary, McAliney, Caldwell, Quinn and Crafts changed their votes to Charles B. Farwell. Barry, Democrat, changed his vote to John A. Logan and the wildest confusion prevailed. This insured Logan's election.

The roll call was proceeded with after a time, the Democrats attempting to elect Farwell, Republican, hoping to get some Republican votes.

Barry withdrew his vote from Logan, but stated that he would not allow any other Republican than Logan to be elected.

No Republican support went to Farwell, and Speaker Haines finally announced the vote, declaring Logan elected.

How Long Will a Cat Live?

Sumter, Ga., Republican

About 1872 Mr. Thomas Gresham, section master on the S. W. R. R. at and above Americus laid the foundation for a trestle. It so happened that during an intervening night, water filled the excavations intended for the mudsills. These were nevertheless let down and the water partly expelled by their bulk. The trestle finished and the sand of intervening years flowed in and covered the basement a foot. Lately this foundation was found rotten and removed and Mr. Gresham found catfish several inches in length, which were covered up twelve years ago by these mudsill. This place was dry in the summer time, save the moisture which exuded from damp mud. How long will a catfish live?

They Liked Clams.

Near Astoria, Oregon, there is a deposit of clam shells which covers an area of over four acres, and is piled in places to a depth of ten feet. The amount of shell is incalculable. Over one thousand loads have been hauled away to make roads, but that amount is hardly missed from the immense heap. From time to time relics of the old clam eating tribes that made that place their headquarters are found. A party recently found a clam opener. It was made from a whale's tooth, is about eight inches long, and is ground sharp at the end. There are some sixteen inches of soil on top of these immense clam beds, on which grows fir trees, some of them four hundred years old.

Gastritis.

That is a medical term for a troublesome ailment of the stomach, which proceeds from indigestion, impoverished blood and other causes. Its name is long, but the disease is not incurable. Brown's Iron Bitters will drive it out, by enriching the blood, toning up the nervous system and setting the stomach to rights. Mr. M. S. Miller, Steubenville O., says, "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for stomach troubles and derived great benefit."

LONDON, March 26th.

Dear Sir:—We are, without doubt, more largely interested in manufacturing Tooth Brushes than any other firm in these Islands, and our patterns, with those of our friends, constitute a small museum; but of all we have, made there is NONE, in our opinion, so effective for cleaning the interstices of the teeth as Wayne's Patent Tooth Brush

DR. LESLIE'S

KASKINE,

A POSITIVE CURE FOR

Constipation, Biliousness,

—AND—

DYSPEPSIA.

This medicine is a combination of pure vegetable matter which acts entirely on the digestive organs, putting them in a perfectly healthy condition, and removing all matter contained in the stomach that does not belong there. No malaria or other blood disease hangs around the system where KASKINE is used.

WHAT CAUSES DISEASE.

The accumulation of garbage about the premises, which ferments and decays, is acknowledged to be a prolific generator of disease likewise. The accumulation of undigested food in the stomach ferments and decays, the gases arising therefrom poisons the blood, and as a consequence diseases of various forms are generated. A few doses of KASKINE puts the digestive organs in order, cleans out the stomach, a perfect circulation of blood and perfect digestion is obtained, and all liability of disease removed.

PREVENTION OF DISEASE.

No person whose digestion is healthy need have any fear of cholera or other contagious disease, and nothing will put the digestive organs in a healthy condition as quickly as KASKINE. Be sure to keep your stomach in good order by using KASKINE, and you may laugh at contagion.

This valuable remedy is put up in a condensed form, and two to four bottles will cure the most obstinate case of habitual constipation. Price 50 cents and one dollar a bottle.

DR. BIGGERS' HUCKLEBERRY CORDIAL is sold by all druggists, 50c. per bottle. Manufactured by WALTER A. TAYLOR, Atlanta Ga. Send 2c. stamp for Taylor's Riddle Book.

Why is death like a man breaking your window? He puts an end to your pains (panes). Dr. Bigger's Huckleberry Cordial will put an end to the pains in the bowels.

What tree represents a person that will be in debt? Willow (will owe). You will owe much of your misfortune, and does not, after checking them, constipate, as many medicines do.

Reliable Agents Wanted

THE MUTUAL ENDOWMENT AND BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA.

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL AGENT FOR NORTH CAROLINA, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

This Association, now nearly four years old, and having a membership in a large number of the States, amounting to nearly $5,000 beneficiaries, has just established a general agency for North Carolina, with headquarters in Charlotte.

To do this it has been necessary to comply with the laws of the State, which has been done, as will more fully appear by reading the following copy of certificate and receipt from the Secretary of State:

Copy—No. 20.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE. INSURANCE DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, 20th April, 1885.

The Mutual Self Endowment and Benefical Association, having filed in this office an appointment of J. T. Whitehead as its agent in this State under the seal of the company and having heretofore, to wit: on the 20th April, 1885, paid into this office the fee by the laws of 1883 required by section 14 of "An Act to consolidate the Insurance Laws of N. C.," ratified March 7, 1883,

SEAL. LICENSE IS HEREBY GRANTED to the said company to do business in this State until April 1st, 1886, subject to the provisions of said act.

[Signed] W. L. SAUNDERS, Secretary of State.

Copy—No. 21.

NORTH CAROLINA, OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE, INSURANCE DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, 20th April, 1885.

Received from J. T. Whitehead, general agent of the Mutual Self Endowment and Benefical Association, twelve dollars, for certifying abstracts of reports of that financial condition of said company for the year ending December 31st, A. D., 1884, and nine dollars for agency certificate.

[Signed] W. L. SAUNDERS, Secretary of State.

As General Agent I have authority from the Secretary of State to receive applications for membership, appoint agents and issue certificates of membership for the Association not in violation of the laws of the same or of the State of North Carolina.

We have not space to explain the proper features. It needs only to be mentioned to the public to be understood. It is on the same plan of the Knights of Honor, Legion of Honor and Royal Arcanum and other popular co-operative associations; adding the very popular feature of a benefit to the family, or a member to die to get every dollar he pays in for dues. We employ none but gentlemen who can give bond in the vacancy in which they live to canvass for the company. Reference required for those who are not personally known to the undersigned. Liberal commission entitles them to.

Address me or my secretary at Charlotte, N. C.
