ACCIDENT OR SUICIDE.

Fatal Fall of Leap of an Ex-Auditor of the U. S. Treasury.

St. Louis, June 2.--R. M. Reynolds, late first auditor of the U. S. Treasury department, killed himself this morning at the Southern hotel.

There is an air shaft in the hotel over the rotunda which cut through the different floors. At five minutes to six o'clock this morning, Reynolds, either jumped or fell over the railing on the third story into the air shaft. He struck on the marble floor of the rotunda and was picked up dead. His room was full of gas, although the stop cock was closed. Hence the theory is that it must be a case of suicide, and that after the failure to sympathize himself he took the terrible dive to the marble floor below.

BERLIN, June 2.--There are conflicting reports regarding the health of the Emperor William, of Germany. The Court Circular continues silent on the subject.

LONDON.--A dispatch from Serinagar, India, says that the city was visited by a great earthquake last Sunday. The shocks, which occurred at intervals of ten minutes, were of great violence.

When the shocks were first felt, and people realized that they were being subjected to the awful possibilities of an earthquake, the wildest panic seized them.

The terrified inhabitants are now encamped on the fields that surround the town. Serinagar is the centre of the Vale of Cashmere, and that whole territory has experienced terrible earthquake shocks.

Many of the houses yet standing show large rents in the walls, and must be razed to the ground. The shocks have not ceased, and this fact greatly retards the work of rescuing the people pinned down in the debris.

IN CHARGE OF A MADMAN.

Fatal Fight With a Lunatic, Who Takes Possession of a Train.

CHICAGO, May 31.--Passenger train No. 4, on the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific Railroad arrived here to day an hour and a half late, in charge of a madman.

Shortly before noon to day, at the Wabash, St. Louis Pacific depot, a dispatch was received from Chenoa, Ill., from Conductor Heman, saying he had an insane man on the train.

A little later "No. 6" appeared in sight and the police separated so as to form two squads, awaiting its arrival on either side of the track.

The officers, after removing Barrett, began a fusillade through the windows of the smoking car, where the madman had taken refuge.

The trainmen tell a thrilling story of the trip from Kansas City. When the man boarded the train at that place he remarked that people were after him to lynch him and that if left alone he would molest no one.

The passengers all left the train, and the madman was taken to the hospital. He was found to be suffering from a form of insanity.
