FAILURE OF EX-GOV. HALE. Smush That May Run Up to $1,000,-

Boston, June 6.—A special from Concord N. H., says: Ex-Governor Hale, of New Hampshire, whose residence is in Keen, has failed with large liabilities. His house in Keene and his interest in the Keene Chair Company were attached on Thursday with claims amounting to over $100,000. It is reported that liabilities may reach $1,000,000. The attaching parties are Mr. Parks, Ex-Governor Hale's agent and several of the National Banks of Keene. It is not known to what extent his liabilities are secured. Several other banks in various parts of New England it is understood, hold Mr. Hales paper to greater or less extent.

England it is understood, hold Mr. Hales paper to greater or less extent. It is reported that Senater Blair and Frank W. Jones, of New Hampshire, are among the chief endorsers of Ex Gov. Hale's papers.

The affectments placed on Ex Governor Hale's property amount to $277,000. Among the principal creditors are the Wachusett National Bank, of Fitchburg, Mass., $50,000; A. C. Parks, Boston, $30,000; the Keene National Bank, $30,000; Monadrock National Bank, of East Joffry, $15,000; the Winchester Savings fry, $15,000; the Winchester Savings Bank, $12,000; John H. Butrick, of Boston, $12,000; Ashuelot, National, Bank, of Keene, $10,000; Citizens National Bank, of Keene, $10,000; and George F. Baker, of Boston, $10,000;

Agency over his own, signature, showed him to be worth $700,000, with liabilities of $10,000.

The assets in this city are very light, consisting only of Mr. Hale's residence, and land and water privilege of the burned chair factory. It is rumored that Hale's investments for two or three years past been very unceedful and that he has lost heavily in resilected enterprises. Although in railroad enterprises. Although the failure is said not to be a surprise to a few business men, it created a profound impression.

Bied With Their Boots on

A wild stery comes from Periban. Michessan. Three well mounted and well amed men stopped at an inn to pass the night. The woman who kept the place advised the authorities that three suspicious dooking men had called at her house. The President of the city council and the judge de on the room, and the three oners, breaking out of the door, ght their way through the crowd sing their revolvers and daggers. he crowd followed closely after the agitives and many shots were ex-hanged. Finally one of the fellows changed. Finally one of the fellows dropped. Even while dying he turned over and fired on his pursuers. A second fell a few steps further on fighting hard. The third, sheltering himself behind a rock, made it warm for his pursuers, and though often wounded, fought on with scarcely enough strength to draw his rifle to his shoulder. Called on to surrender he only replied with a bullet, which relieved the President of his hat. The crowd closed in around him as the death mist was passing over his eyes. Still he tried to pull the trigger of his rifle for a parting shot, but life and strength failed him. The corpses were buried in Periban. They were supposed to be a part of Marcial Brave's bandit troop. During the fight the citizens had fired 200 shots and of these nearly twenty had taken effect on the bandits, who were torned to pieces by the terrible storm of lead. Several of the citizens were wounded. The bandits died like legendary heroes.

JUMPED OVERBOARD.

New York, June 5.—When the steamship Manhattan, of the Old Dominion line, arrived at her berth in this city this morning her officers reported to the police that while at sea yesterday, John Jones, 30 years old, a passenger from Norfolk, Va. committed suicide by jumping overboard. A Sailor Kills his Friend and Sends a Ball Through his Own Head. NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 5.—
Phillip D. Slocumb was a sailor's outfitting merchant, and Charles Foss was an intemperate sailor for whom Slocumb was endeavoring to secure a berth on shipboard.

Foss was supposed to good natured and harmless, but while Slocumb was today writing in his books Foss came up behind him, and without warning shot Slocumb in the base of the skull, killing him instantly. Foss immediately went to a back room, and putting the muzzle of the pistol to his right temple fired. The pistol was held so close that his forehead was singed and the bones fractured. No explanation can be imagined except whiskey insanity.

THE DEAD CONFEDERATES. The Baltimoreans Decorating Their

Graves With Flowers. BALTIMORE, June 5.—The graves of the Confederate dead in Loudon Park cemetery were decorated this afternoon, and a large number of persons attended the ceremony. All the graves were strewn with flowers, and the monument to Stonewall Jackson was covered with choice blooms. As the procession moved from the entrance of the cemetery the song, "Toll, Toll the Bells," was sung. On reaching the graves prayer was offered, and an ode, written for the fered, and an ode, written for the occasion, "Kept in Remembrance," was recited by a young lady. The remainder of the exercises consisted of the singing of hymns.

How the Earth is Built Up by Meteors, New York Evening Post. Dr. Kleiber of St. Petersburg pub-tishes in the Astronomische Nach-ricten the results of investigations by himself and Dr. Keller on the amount by which the earth's mass is increas-ed each hour by the meteors falling apon the globe from space. The original memoirs, which are printed in Russia, have not reached this country, but the summary referred to is extremely interesting. Observations by Professor Schmidt of Athens and others have shown that on an average a single observer will see about ten meteors per hour. This is a numerous per hour. ten meteors per hour. This is a num ber which depends upon experiment simply. A single observer does not command the whole sky above his horizon, but only some 23 per cent of it. Professor Newton of Yale Col-lege has shown that about 10,460 times as many meteors fall on the whole earth in an hour as fall so as to be visible above any one / horizon. Combining these separate deductions, it follows that 10x100x10,460x23 (or about 450,000) meteors fall on the surface of the whole earth each hour.

It is to be remembered, too that only such meteors as would be visible to the naked eye are included in this enumeration. Every astronomer knows that there are vast quantities of extremely minute telescopic meteors in the heavens. One can hard-that the average weight of a meteor may be taken as five grams, whence hourly not less than 2250 kilograms, or 4950 pounds of foreign material deposited upon it from the colestial
