VIRGINIA DEMOCRACY.

THE WORK OF THE CONVENTION COMPLETED.

Candidates Nominated, Platform Adopted, and Now They are Ready to Meet the People.

RICHMOND, Va., July 30.—The Democratic State convention met at 10.15 a. m.

In response to a resolution inviting Hon. John E. Massey and Capt. Phil. McKinney to address the convention, the first named gentleman appeared on the stage and made a vigorous speech in which he said the time was when Virginia occupied the first place in the calendar of States and her men were recognized as the first men in the country.

Could her sons now hand over the government to men who cannot assert any just claim to decent morality? The man who fills the executive chair must have the respect and confidence of the whole people of Virginia.

His office must not be used as a caucus room nor must the executive mansion be converted into a place for a dog show. The strength of the enemy must not be underestimated. They had a standing army of regulars always ready.

The Democracy had done well to place at the head of the line a man who has led many a charge and who will lead again. The consequences of defeat are too far reaching and too fearful to contemplate in this fight.

Mahoneism must be buried beyond resurrection. There is one question which will loom up in the coming campaign, that is the debt question. It must be met by those who know what it is and how to handle it.

The Democracy of Virginia is willing to stand by the settlement that has been pronounced constitutional by both the State and Federal courts; he was prepared to tell the State creditors that if that settlement is not satisfactory you can get no other; take that or you'll get nothing.

He was willing now, as he had been for twenty years to fight in the ranks and would fight there to the end. With Lee for a leader there could be nothing but victory. He urged all to put behind all petty jealousies and go into the fight with a full determination to win.

A motion that the convention go into nomination of a lieutenant governor and attorney general was adopted. Hon. John E. Massey, of Albemarle, and Hon. John L. Hurt, of Pittsylvania, were successfully placed in nomination.

Before a vote was taken there was a stay in the proceedings, during which the report of the committee on resolutions was submitted. The platform pledges opposition to any increase of taxation, opposes all further agitation of the debt question and reiterates the acceptance as a final settlement of the Riddleberger bill, renews the pledge of continued support to the public school system, recommends a change in the revenue laws which will require a speedy settlement by the collecting officers, recommends suspension by the legislature of the operation of the railroads of the State so as to prevent unjust or discriminating charges, advocates liberal support to the insane asylums, and continued aid to the needy and disabled Confederate soldiers, recommends the passage of such laws as will permit a cash county or district to hold a special election upon the sale of spirituous liquors, favors an amendment of the existing oyster laws, favors changes in the election laws so as to relieve the people of the burden of too frequent elections, favors equal distribution of public patronage among all sections, opposes the employment of convict labor in competing with free labor and favors laws compelling government contract service to be performed by free labor, favors the eight hour law, advocates the complete and unconditional abolition of the internal revenue system, endorses the declarations of the national Democratic party in its last convention on the subject of the tariff and especially maintains that the necessary reduction in taxation can and must be made without depriving American labor of the ability to compete successfully with foreign labor, endorses civil service reform while at the same time it opposes the appointment to or retention in office of offensive partisans, commends the administration of President Cleveland, and especially commends the President's action in removing the offensive Federal officers in Virginia, spurs the charges brought against the Democratic party in the document purporting to be the platform of the Republican State convention. The platform also sets forth what the Democratic party has done for Virginia, and concludes with a severe arraignment of the Republican party.

The platform was read and when submitted the nomination of lieutenant governor was proceeded with. After several secondary speeches a ballot was taken, but before the roll call was completed, it being evident that Massey had already received a majority of votes, Hunt's name was withdrawn and Massey was nominated by acclamation. Gen. James A. Walker, of Wythe county; Rufus A. Ayres, of Scott; and R. R. Henry, of Tazewell, were placed in nomination for attorney general. The first ballot resulted in no choice, the contest being between Walker and Ayres, with nearly one hundred votes for Henry. Before the vote was canvassed the Henry men changed almost solidly to Ayres which gave him largely over a

MRS. GRANT MAKES BUT ONE SUGGESTION. Meeting of the Cabinet—The President to Take a Post-Bank Charter Extended—General Grant's Pall Bearers.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The President today appointed J. L. McCaskill, of Miss., consul at Dublin.

MRS. GRANT'S PATRIOTIC SUGGESTION. The President, who, at the request of Mrs. Grant, will select the pall bearers for Gen. Grant's funeral recently telegraphed her to know if she had any preferences or suggestions to make in the matter.

He received a reply from her today by telegraph saying that it was her wish that he should name the pall bearers, and that the only suggestion she would make was that in case any prominent Union officer like Gen. Sherman or Lieut. Gen. Sheridan be selected, a leading Confederate officer like Gen. Johnston or Gen. Buckner be also included in the list. Mrs. Grant's wishes in this regard will be respected.

Cholera on the Increase—The Pall Mail Gazette's Charges Sustained—Another Big Scandal in London—The Munster Bank.

MADRID, July 30.—The cholera is not only increasing in the poorer quarters of this city, but is making its way into the streets of the better quarter of the capital which have hitherto been exempt. King Alfonso has intimated that if the cholera continues to spread in Madrid he will return to that city.

THE PALL MALL GAZETTE VINDICATED.

LONDON.—The committee to inquire into the recent statements of the Pall Mall Gazette in regard to London vice has made the following report:

Having been requested to inquire as to the truth of the statements printed in the Pall Mall Gazette, and having from the first determined to exclude inquiry into charges against particular men or classes of men or against the police, we have strictly confined ourselves to an inquiry into the system of criminal vice described. After carefully sifting the evidence of the witnesses and the materials before us, without guaranteeing the accuracy of every particular, we are satisfied that on the whole the statements of the Pall Mall Gazette are substantially true.

The report is signed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of London, Cardinal Manning and Messrs. Morley and Reid. The late edition of the Pall Mall Gazette, was published this evening containing the foregoing report in leaded type.

MR DILKE "ALL BLOKKE UP."

LONDON.—Sir Charles Dilke, Radical leader, is ill from overwork. There is a rumor also that his illness is in part due to worry over impending disclosures of a certain private scandal. Sir Charles broke an engagement yesterday to address an election meeting at Kensington, and it is reported that he is breaking other public engagements on the ground that the doctors insist that he should rest.

Proceedings are pending against Sir Charles Dilke involving damages of £20,000 in connection with a now famous scandal case. Strong social and political influences are working to avert a public trial. Sir Charles Dilke is completely prostrated and has retired to the country. The lady concerned is related to Mrs. Asheton Dilke. The injured husband is an active Radical, and formerly held a minor office. It is reported that he insists upon a divorce to vindicate his honor, damages being no object to him. His wife received a dowry of £100,000 from her father, who is a member of the House of Commons. The lady is much younger than her husband, and they have no family. The affair is the sole topic of conversation in clubs and social circles. Intense regret over the eclipse of Sir Charles Dilke is felt in all political sections.

HOW THE ABSCONDING MANAGER PREVENTED A LOAN.

CORK, IRELAND.—The committee of investigation which is inquiring into the affairs of the suspended Munster bank reports that Farquharson, the joint Dublin manager who has absconded, wilfully prevented the bank of Ireland from advancing to the Munster bank the desired loan which would have enabled it to tide over the crisis, by refusing to give to the bank of Ireland securities entrusted to him with which to obtain credit, and upon which the bank of Ireland had decided to lend. Farquharson was unmarried. He was a great speculator in London stock exchange and on continental bourses. He lived stylishly and recently purchased a handsome suburban villa near Dublin for $25,000. The police traced the defaulting manager to Northwall, whence they learned that he had departed for Holly Head, on Tuesday evening last.

Iron Works Starting Up.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 30.—Shoenberger's iron and steel works will start up full in every department except the nail factory next Monday, giving employment to 2,000 men. During the past week a number of large orders have been placed with the firm and it is stated the mill will run steadily for several months. It is generally believed that this marks the advent of better times in the iron trade.

Josiah Davis's Trouble.

Josiah Davis, North Middleton, Ky., writes: "I am now using a box of your Henry's Carbolic Salve upon a chest which for the past ten days has given me great pain. This salve is the only remedy I have found that has given me any ease. My ulcer was caused by varicose veins, and was pronounced incurable by my medical doctors. I find, however, that Henry's Carbolic Salve is afflicting a cure." Beware of imitations.
