BALT LAKE, Oct. 14.-W. A. Rossin ter, manager of a theatre, and George Romney, were both convicted of unlawful cohabitation and sentenced to the penitentiary for six months and to pay a $300 fine. They got closely shaven and their hair cut prior to their sentence. When asked if they had anything to say they refused to make any pledges. This is classed by the Church organ as "genuine eloquence," showing that they preferred imprisonment rather than to be recreant to obligations of a most sacred character. families before being sentenced. It is common to serenade convicted persons before sentence. The Mormons are doing all in their power to make martyrs of themselves and bring ridicule on the court. The Mormons are more defiant today than at any time in the history of the church. Loyal citizens feel that a more rigid law must be enacted and the full power of the government brought against this treasonable organization.

Vignaux Ready to Meet His Match.

One of the passengers on the steamship Normandy, which arrived yesterday, was Maurice Vignaux, the French champion billiardist, who has journeyed across the Atlantic to take part in the balk line tournament which takes place in Music Hall, in Chicago, on the 16th of November. Madame Vignaux, who accompanies her husband, and who will act as interpreter, was very sick, and was immediately taken to the hotel. Vignaux enjoyed the voyage, and is in excellent health. He will begin to practice in some private hall in this city in a day or two, and will leave for Chicago before the end of the month.

We are glad to be informed by the dramatic critic of the New York World, writing of Mary Anderson since her return to this country that there is "more aplomb in the hauteur of her carriage" than when she went away. We presume there is also more sanoir vivre in the bon ton of her esprit de corps. Otherwise her trip abroad will have proved de trop for want of a raisou d'tre for her tout ensemble.

When you have many tasks to accomplish, don't try to attack them all at once. Do one at a time, quietly and as well as you can, and with a little patience you will get through them all. New York Star.
