The negro got his share of the public school money per capita.

The negro found his condition bettered in a thousand ways.

He found that he bad been deceived by the scullions of the Republican party.

A better feeling sprang up between the white man and the colored man. Why shouldn't the negro begin to break away from the Republican party, as 'ay did in Virginia? as they have done largely in North Carolina and the other States.

Here then is the solution.

A free vote and a fair count in any Mr. John Sherman and other of the States of the South, will result as it did in Virginia last Tuesday.

The Boys and the Bosses on Top.

Washington Star, Nov. 4 And now every one will ask, and having asked will answer to suit himself, the question: How do the elections bear on the Cleveland administration? The first and obvious deduction to be drawn from the figures That he is intimidated and bulls is that the country at large is not discontented with the government. The success of the Democrats is not confined to any one locality, nor can it be attributed to special local causes, but is almost as national in its char acter as the vote of last year. Hence Virginia has just voted the Demo- it must be accepted as a ratification of that vote. And at the same time one cannot fail to notice that the statistics of the election point to a reac The negro population makes up tion in favor of party discipline as against the indipendent theory which has of late years become such a disturbing element in politics.
