CONGRESS MELANGE.

UNIMPORTANT PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOLONS.

Numerous Bills Presented on a Call of the Roll of States--The Senate Ponderous and Unwieldy as Ever.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 5.—SENATE.—Precisely at noon the Senate was called to order by Senator Sherman, president pro tem., who, after prayer and the reading of the Journal, laid before the Senate the credentials of John W. Daniel, the newly elected United States Senator from Virginia, which were read and laid on the table, also a communication from General W. B. Franklin, president of the national home for disabled volunteer soldiers, notifying the Senate of the death of General George B. McClellan, with a view of having the consequent vacancy in the board of trustees filled. The communication was referred to the committee on military affairs.

Harrison, from the Committee on Territories, reported favorably the bill to legalize the election of the ninth territorial legislative assembly of Wyoming. For this he asked immediate consideration.

Edmunds said he would not object, if its consideration did not consume too much time; but that he was anxious to get up the Utah bill as soon as possible.

The bill reported by Harrison was then, without objection, read the third time and passed.

Among the bills read and appropriately referred were the following:

By Mr. Blair, to give the right of trial by jury to claimants for pensions, whose applications have been rejected by the Secretary of the Interior, on appeal from the decision of the Commissioner of Pensions; also, to provide for the erection of monuments to Abraham Lincoln and U. S. Grant.

By Logan, to provide for the adjustment of the accounts of laborers, workmen and mechanics arising under the eight hour law; also, to confer military rank on telegraph operators in the military service; also, to create a commission to inquire into the material, industrial and intellectual progress made by the colored people since 1865; also, for the relief of telegraph operators during the war.

By Vance, of North Carolina, to repeal chapter 27 of the Act of 1863 relating to the civil service.

By Morgan, to substitute silver dollars in place of gold coin and currency in the several reserve funds held in the Treasury.

By George, to enlarge the powers and duties of the Department of Agriculture.

By Call, to authorize the Secretary of War, to purchase a lot in Jacksonville, Florida, for military purposes.

A resolution offered by Call was at his request laid on the table for the present, requesting the President of the United States to submit to some foreign power the demands of Spain for carrying into effect the treaty of 1819 for the cession of Florida, such foreign power to be selected with the consent of the Government of Spain.

A resolution offered by Hoar was at his request referred to the committee on foreign relations, requesting the president to take measures for revising and extending our extradition treaties, so as to cover cases of embezzlement and other breaches of trust. In offering his resolution, Hoar made special reference to a number of defaulting bank officers, who tried to escape punishment by flight to Canada.

Sherman taking the floor offered a concurrent resolution accepting the marble statue of ex-President Garfield, presented to Congress by the State of Ohio, and now in position in Statuary Hall at the capitol. Governor Hoadly's letter of presentation was at Sherman's request read by the clerk. Mr. Sherman then delivered a brief but earnest and warm eulogy of ex-President Garfield, and moved the adoption of the resolution offered by him. The concurrent resolution was then agreed to.

Mr. Gray gave notice that he would tomorrow call up Mr. Beck's silver resolution for the purpose of making some remarks on it.

Mr. Beck inquired as to the present parliamentary condition of the resolution. The question was referred to the Chair (Mr. Sherman), who replied that it was on the table, and that the pending motion was to refer it to the committee on Finance.

Mr. Beck, referring to the criticism made by Mr. Morrill on his (Beck's) recent silver speech, inquired of Morrill whether, on the careful reading of that speech, he had not been mistaken in his understanding of Beck's remarks.

Morrill replied that he took pleasure in saying that he had somewhat misunderstood Beck's reference to the President and Secretary of the Treasury. Beck disclaimed having made any personal attack on the President or Secretary of the Treasury. His remarks regarding the Secretary's locking up the surplus would, he said, have been quite as well illustrated, and perhaps more aptly so, had he said that if a cyclone had blown down the Treasury building and scattered the surplus and people had picked up money on the streets and put it in circulation, that the circulation would be more beneficial to the people than keeping the money locked up in the Treasury.

The Chair laid before the Senate a resolution heretofore offered by Harrison, directing an inquiry into the alleged practice of the late pension of assessors.

Harrison requested that the resolution might go over for today, and by unanimous consent it went over accordingly.

Edmunds then called up the Utah bill, reported by him from the Committee on Judiciary. The bill having been read at length, Hoar moved to strike out the seventh section, being the section prohibiting the exercise of suffrage by women in Utah. The bill was discussed for some time by Hoar and Edmunds; but finally at the request of Senator Vest, went on for one day.

A message was received from the President transmitting the draft of a bill to provide for the allotment of lands in severalty to Indians. It was read and referred.

Wilson, of Iowa, called up the resolution heretofore offered by him, calling on the Secretary of the Interior for a copy of each report made by the government directors of the Union Pacific Railway from the first appointment of such directors to the present time. In support of his resolution Wilson reviewed at considerable length the action of the government directors, of whom he had himself been one, with a view of showing that had the government paid attention to information conveyed and recommendations made by the directors, the relations of the government to the roads would today be better than it is. On the conclusion of Wilson's remarks the judicial salary bill was placed before the Senate, without further action, however.

The Senate in executive session today spent an hour and a half in considering nominations, chiefly in Kentucky and Tennessee, but adjourned without reaching a point of action in regard to any of them.

The Senate at 3:30 p. m. went into executive session, and at 4:50 the doors were reopened and Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Muller, of N. Y., made his appearance in the House this morning for the first time during the session, and was warmly welcomed by his colleagues, and congratulated upon his recovery from his recent severe illness. His desk was adorned with an immense floral basket bearing the inscription: "To our big chief, with best wishes of the members of the first Assembly district, New York County Democracy." Immediately after the reading of the Journal the oath of office was administered to Mr. Muller.

The Hoar Presidential succession bill and the Senate resolution proposing certain joint rules, were referred to appropriate committees, contrary to general expectation. The committees were not announced after the reading of the Journal, and the Speaker immediately proceeded to the call of States for the introduction of bills and resolutions.

Speaker Carlisle said at 2 o'clock this afternoon that the committees would not be announced today.

It is understood that the list is not yet fully made up, and that it may be subject to further change at last moment. There seems to be no doubt that it will be ready for announcement tomorrow.

The President has withdrawn the nomination of John G. Lee, of Philadelphia, to be Secretary of the Legation at Constantinople. This is done at Mr. Lee's request.

The President today nominated John J. Higgins to be Collector of Customs for the district of Natchez, Miss., William H. McArdle, of Miss., Consul of the United States at San Juan del Norte, and a number of minor officials, chiefly postmasters.

Prof. W. H. Ruffner, principal of the State Normal School of Virginia, and one of the most strongly endorsed of all candidates, has written to the Secretary of the Interior withdrawing his application for the position of United States Commissioner of Education.

Among the bills and resolutions introduced under this call were the following:

By Compton, of Maryland, to repeal the tenure of office act; by McComas, of Maryland, to establish postoffice savings banks, also to establish a postal telegraph system; also for the redemption of the trade dollar; also to prevent the use of the United States mails to advertise noxious drug or foods; also for the erection of a monument over the grave of Francis Scott Key.

By Cutcheon, of Michigan, to reform the civil service, and preserve the constitutional distinctions between the legislative and executive duties by the organization of a bureau of civil appointments.

By Maybury, of Michigan, for the importation free of duty of ores of iron, lead, copper, zinc, and bituminous coal, salt and lumber.

By Morgan, of Mississippi, for the establishment of experiment stations.

By McAdoo, of New Jersey, to prevent fraudulent entries on the public domain; also, to prevent aliens, other than bona fide settlers, from owning lands in Territories.

By Buchanan, of New Jersey, to repeal the tobacco tax; also, for the establishment of a department of agriculture; also for the retirement and recoinage of the trade dollar.

By Barksdale, of Mississippi, to remove the restrictions on the coinage of the standard silver dollar, and to coin the same on the conditions prescribed for gold coinage; also to extend the time for the completion of the Gulf and Ship Island railroad.

By Bennett, of North Carolina, to prevent the intermarriage of the white and negro races in the District of Columbia.

By Ohrance, to reimburse the depositors of the Freedmen's Savings and Trust Company.

By Johnston, of North Carolina, to abolish in formal revenue taxation.

Similar bills were introduced by other members of the North Carolina delegation.

By Reid, of North Carolina, reducing the duty on steel rails to seven dollars per ton.

Bills were introduced for the erection of public buildings at the following places: Houlton and Belfast, Me.; Worcester, Lynn, New Bedford and Springfield, Mass.; St. Clair, Rome and Marine City, La.; Pierra Mount, Clemons, East Saginaw, Jackson and Grand Haven, Mich.; Duluth, Minn.; Vicksburg, Miss.; Sedalia and Springfield, Mo.; Luatrice and Hastings, Neb.; Patterson and Camden, N. J.; Hudson and Newburg, N. Y.; Charlotte, Wilmington, Newbern, Asheville, and Salem, N. C.

Without concluding the call the House at 4:17 adjourned. The number of bill introduced today was 790.

THE WOODROW CONTROVERSY.

Resolutions Adopted Directing Theological Students to Withdraw from the Seminary.

CHARLESTON, S. C., January 5.—At a meeting of the Charleston Presbytery last night, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted in relation to Dr. Woodrow:

Whereas, Charleston Presbytery disapproves of the views published and maintained by the Rev. Dr. James Woodrow in relation to the origin of Adam's body; and, whereas, this Presbytery has lost confidence in the fitness of Dr. Woodrow, (whatever be his abilities and acquirements) to teach candidates for the Gospel ministry, not only because of his determination to subordinate the interests of the Church and the Seminary to the assertion of himself; and, whereas, this Presbytery is sustained in this view by the express judgment of two synods, and also by the action of the recently elected board of directors of the Theological Seminary in requesting Dr. Woodrow's resignation, therefore, be it resolved—

1. That Charleston Presbytery direct its candidate, Mr. J. G. Wenzelberger, to withdraw at once from the Columbia Seminary, and advise him to pursue his studies at some other theological school in connection with our church.

2. That Charleston Presbytery cherish an affectionate and abiding interest in the welfare of the Columbia Seminary, and prays and hopes that it may soon emerge from the troubles that now encompass it.

The resolutions were seconded by Dr. Junkin, upon which they were put to the Presbytery and adopted. The vote on the adoption of the resolutions stood—yeas 18, nays 2. The votes in the negative were cast by Dr. G. R. Brackett and Mr. J. Adger Smyth.

TWENTY YEARS AFTER.

An Englishman Wishes to Know if a Confederate Brevet is now Recognized in the United States Army.

Special to Charleston News & Courier.

RICHMOND, VA., January 4.—The clerk of the Virginia House of Delegates this morning received a letter from W. Green, of London, under date of December 21, in which the writer says:

"Do me the honor of informing me what steps I ought to take to obtain a reissue of the commission of honorary major granted me towards the close of the Confederate war by Shidell and Mason, in consideration of the invention of a projectile torpedo, and whether I may now claim the further recognition of the rank in the United States Army."

The clerk of the House will reply to Mr. Green and refer him to the secretary of war.

The Blue and the Gray.

A Union soldier living at Watertown, N. Y., who was badly wounded during the war and who draws a comfortable pension from the Government, having lately experienced a change of fortune and become independent, now proposes to give his pension to some needy Confederate. The letter making this proposition was addressed to a well known Confederate officer in Virginia, and the writer requested that the name of some "disabled Confederate soldier, who is poor and needs help," should be given to him in order that he might carry his good intentions into effect at once. The incident has elicited kindly comment in various quarters, and is of especial interest as proving that the bitterness of spirit still manifested by some few of the Northern newspapers towards the ex-Confederate soldiers is not felt by the men who met them squarely and frequently on the field of battle.

Steamer Burned.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 5.—The well known Potomac River steamer, Armenia, burned about three o'clock this morning at the wharf in Alexandria, Va. Two watchmen were asleep on the steamer at the time the fire broke out and were not awakened until the flames made it impossible for them to gain the wharf. They jumped overboard, however and were quickly rescued. The vessel was owned by the Inland & Coastwise Navigation Company, of Baltimore, and was valued at thirty thousand dollars.

PILES!! PILES!! PILES!!

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams' (an Indian Remedy), called Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst case of Piles ever known. No one suffers five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions and instruments do more harm than good. Williams' Pile Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a local anesthetic, gives instant relief, and is prepared on "Piles," itching of private parts, and for night use. Price, 50 cents. T. C. Smith & Co., agents.

HANAN'S WALKINGFAST.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT THE HANAN SHOE.

No. 31 & 32 Park Row, New York, Sept. 23, 1885.

MESSES. ROGERS, FEET & CO. Gentlemen: Having noticed in this morning's Sun your advertisement concerning the Hanan's Walkingfast shoe sold by you, I cannot refrain from expressing, unhesitatingly, my satisfaction with a pair which after a year's use, I have never worn, and am just about discarding. I had been accustomed to having my shoes made to order, paying from $9 to $13 a pair for the same. Last summer I mean a year ago—wishing for a pair of shoes at short notice for a trip to the mountains, I stepped into your establishment and purchased a pair which after a year's use, I have never worn, and am just about discarding.
