Mr. Kenneley was 24 years old. It is believed that he died with an epileptical fit, as he was subject to an affliction of that character.

HISTORIES. A Little Bit Cold, Yet. The cold wave still holds sway in these regions, the mercury having never yet reached the thawing point in the shade, though the temperature is not so frigid as it was a few days ago. It has even been pleasant to stand in the sunshine, but one had to be well wreeped up to enjoy even a stand in the sunshine, but one had to be well wrapped up to enjoy even a sa sun bath. The gutters of the city are still caked with ice, and while but little snow is to be seen in the city, it lies on the fields in the sur rounding country, to the depth of three inches. Yesterday a cold northwest wind was blowing, and last night the weather was decidedly be colder than it had been within the colder than it had been within the

DE. ARMSTRONG'S TRIAL.

Continued to the 26th inst-The Court to be a Secret One.

Mr. Thomas Mowry, a well known young man of Salisbury, was accidentally shot and instantly killed while out hunting rabbits with a party of five or six friends yesterday, one side of his head having been torn off by the discharge of his gun.

The particulars, as we learn them from a citizen of Salisbury who was in Charlotte yesterday, are about as follows: Mr. Mowry and his party of friends, provided with dogs and guns, set out for a rabbit hunt, and when two miles from Salisbury the dogs ran a rabbit into a hollow tree. Destruction of the court President, and Rev. Charles M. Strong, of Savannah, Secretary and Treasurer. The court was called to order by the President, and prayer was offered for the guidance of the body in their deliberations. body in their deliberations. Mr. Tewksbury was appointed steno-

The rules for the organization of the court were then read, which stated that any case before the body must be tried as in the court of the State of Georgia; and that the trial shall be held with closed doors.

The following resolution was intro-duced by the standing committee: Resolved, "That the committee be-lieve that the church people should know the facts in the trial of the case and that the press reporters be allowed to be present at the trial and give the evidence under such restrictions as shall be prescribed by the

The resolution was read and supported in a short talk by Mr. Walter G. Charlton, attorney for the prose-cution. He said that a publicity of the facts could not hurt the defendant, and to keep them secret might hurt the church.

The court was officially informed that Mr. John S. Davidson and Mr. Attractive, Entertaining, Instructive. Hoke Smith would act as attorneys for the defendant. Only Mr. Davidson qualified. Mr. Davidson said that the rules governing the eligibility of STORIES OF THE laws of the church. The court then withdrew to decide upon the manner of the trial. ILLUSTRATED IN EVERY ISSUE.

Sparkling and Original in Every Feature

On the first of January next, a new departure in every feature of the Weekly Times will be made. Every number will be liberally filustrated in its War contributions, which have so long been a specialty in its columns, and in its Storks, which will be greatly enlarged, from the pens of the best writers, and in current History, Biography, Politics, Art. Science and the leading events of the day.

The time has passed for the weekly journal of the city to fill the place of a newspaper. The daily newspaper from the great centres of news now reaches into every section of the land. Every inland city and every town of importance have their daily newspapers, and the local weekly, with the wonderful progress in provincial journalism, meets every want that the daily newspaper fails to supply. The metropolitan weekly of to-day must be much more than a newspaper; it must be a magazine of family reading; it must lead the magazine in popular literature; it must lead it in popular illustration, and it must meet every requirement of the intelligent reader of every class.

Will be published in each number from the ablest writers who participated in the bloody drama of civil strife, and each will be profusely illustrated. The most entertaining and instructive STORIES from the best writers of fiction will appear in each issue, with illustrations.
