

Daily Charlotte Observer.

VOLUME XXXIV.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 20, 1886.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

JUST RECEIVED, A NICE LINE OF

All Wool Cashmere Shawls,

In Pink, Blue, Garnet, Cardinal, Cream and Tan, which we are selling at $1.25. They are bargains. We are receiving the prettiest stock of

Dress Goods

To be found in the City. Call and see them. BUTTERICK'S METROPOLITAN FASHION SHEETS FOR APRIL.

HARGRAVES & ALEXANDER,

SMITH BUILDING.

PARASOLS! PARASOLS!

LACE COVERED PARASOLS. In black, white and cream. MORNING PARASOLS. With and without fringe. CACHMERE UMBRELLAS. All sizes, colors and prices. LADIES AND GENTS. Silk and Alpaca Umbrellas.

JERSEY JACKETS

For Ladies and Misses.

Dress Making Department

Open for SPRING WORK. MISS CALLAHAN will be at her post by Monday morning just returned from New York well posted in all the new styles of the season and will be glad to see all her friends and customers.

T. L. SEIGLE.

E. L. KEESLER & CO.

Have just received an elegant line of

Black and Colored Cashmere Shawls,

Embroidered and Chinchilla Scarfs, something entirely new. A full line of LADIES' MISSES' and CHILDREN'S HOSE. A beautiful line of

FIGURED AND PLAIN SCRIM,

A nice assortment of DRESS GINGHAMS and SEERSUCKERS. A new lot of Everlasting Trimming, Torchon and Valenciennes Laces, Colored Silks and Satins, the best line of

CORSETS

In the place. Call and examine our stock of WHITE GOODS. Our stock is entirely new. No old goods.

E. L. KEESLER & CO.

SUCCESSORS TO ALEXANDER & HARRIS.

FRED C. MUNZLER.

LAGER BEER DEALER AND BOTTLE.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Represents two of the largest LAGER BEER Breweries in the United States The Beck & Engel Brewing Co., of Philadelphia, and the F. & M. Schaefer Brewing Co., of New York.

THE LARGEST LAGER BEER BOTTLING ESTABLISHMENT IN THE CITY.

Orders solicited. All orders promptly filled and delivered free of charge to any part of the city.

COTTON SEED

WANTED.

We will pay 15 cents per bushel of 50 pounds for good seed new cotton seed delivered at our mill in Charlotte, N. C. We will also pay 10 cents per bushel for good seed, giving one ton of meal for two tons of seed.

OLIVER OIL COMPANY, Successors to Charlotte Oil Company.

THE LATEST

AND MOST IMPORTANT!

We are now running on full time. Furniture manufactured by us is kept by the enterprising furniture dealers in this city. We make only the best and most substantial in the market. NO SHODDY GOODS. Ask for goods made by us and you will get the worth of your money. Our name is on each piece. We solicit the patronage of the public and guarantee satisfaction.

ELLIOTT & MARSH.

The Charlotte Observer.

"TRUTH LIKE THE SUN, SOMETIMES HIDE FROM THE OCCURED, BUT, LIKE THE SUN, ONLY FOR A TIME."

Subscription to the Observer.

DAILY EDITION.
Single copy..... 5 cents.
By the week in the city..... 25
By the month..... 80
Three months..... $2.00
Six months..... 4.00
One year..... 8.00

WEEKLY EDITION.
Three months..... 50 cents.
Six months..... $1.00
One year..... $2.00
In clubs of five and over $1.00.

No Deviation From These Rules.
Subscriptions always payable in advance, not only in name but in fact.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

RICE AND SUGAR.

Reasons Why the Blair Bill Will Not Become a Law this Session--Asheville Reminded by Its Representative.

Correspondence of THE OBSERVER.

There is a restive feeling among Southern revenue reformers at the proposed action of the Ways and Means Committee in the matter of rice and sugar. They say that a blow is aimed at Southern industry which they ought not to be expected to receive with equanimity. A North Carolina member, well known for his leaning to free trade, said this morning that he thought great injustice would be done in the modification proposed. He seemed to think that the committee would carry out their present plan of putting rice and sugar on the free list and that nothing would be done by the House at this session. This gentleman says the effort will be made at a later period and that the debate will be prolonged. He regards the element opposed to reform fully as strong as it was in the last Congress, if not some stronger.

I cannot hear on enquiry that the scare as to rice and sugar has any persuasion except that in the threat of some of the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee. This morning the committee struck off three small articles from the free list, indicating the adverse tendency to that referred to.

Notwithstanding the active efforts of its friends it does not appear certain that the Education or Blair bill will ever become a law. A member said this morning: "The committee is hopelessly divided. It can save off action for a considerable time in spite of everything done to prevent it. The bill will not come before the house in the shape in which it passed the Senate. When the measure is amended and sent back to that body much valuable time will have been lost. The Senate will reject all amendments likely to be adopted. The bill comes back here in the hot dog end of the session and it goes into the committee of the whole for consideration. In my opinion it will not become a law."

A lively debate took place in the House this afternoon in the morning hour for the consideration of bills reported on the bill sending, war claim bills to the Court of Claims. It is possible that the bad blood shown yesterday in the Senate between Messrs. Beck and Edmunds will give a sharper and more personal tone to the debate hereafter on the Edmunds resolution.

In the Senate at this hour, however, the scene is as peaceful as a tropical sea in a dead calm. Mr. Brown quietly reads a constitutional argument while Mr. Pugh listens from the next seat in the rear, Senator Ransom's, and the Senate chamber is absolutely and eloquently vacant. I am afraid Mr. Pugh meditates flight. But there are so far no signs of the impending hegira.

Mr. Johnston asked that the committee of the whole be discharged from the consideration of the bill for the relief of Captain James G. Martin, Assistant Commissioner of the States army, but this effort to secure the passage of the bill was foiled by objection.

Mr. Johnston reported this afternoon the Senate bill to erect a public building at Wilmington.

HORRIBLE MURDER.

A Virginia Tragedy That is Brutal in Its Details.

RICHMOND, Va., March 19.—A special from Salem, Roanoke county, Va., says: "A horrible double murder was committed on Back Creek, this county, Wednesday night. A man named Griffey, who has a wife living on Back Creek, had just returned from Texas, where he alleged he served a term in the penitentiary. His wife refused to recognize him, and learning that John and Pickett Metz, sons of William Metz, had been visiting his wife in his absence, Griffey went to their home, called on the young men out and shot him through the heart. He then entered the house and shot the other young man through the right breast. The murdered young man was aged respectively about 17 and 15 years. Griffey is at large."

No Boom that Science has Conferred.

Has been brought with greater blessings than that which has descended to the inhabitants of malarial tracts, portions of the United States and the Tropics from the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The experience of many years has but too abundantly demonstrated the inefficiency of quinine and other drugs to effectually combat the progress of intermittent, ague and bilious remittent fevers, while the effect of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has been shown to be the use of the Bitters, a medicine congenial to the frigid constitution, and derived from purely botanical sources, affords a reliable and permanent relief. It is a most valuable remedy for the stomach, liver and bowels, for general debility and neuralgia, and for the cure of all the ailments of the system. It is a most efficient remedy for the cure of all the ailments of the system. It is a most efficient remedy for the cure of all the ailments of the system.

FOR RENT.

A COMFORTABLE 4 room cottage, parlor and kitchen, with a few hundred parts of the ground school, and six acres of land for rent to a tenant. Apply to A. J. COCHRAN, Manager.

THE POLITICAL FUTURE.

The Next House of Representatives--The Prohibition Issue Looming Up.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—It was mentioned a few weeks since in this correspondence that the Republicans have determined to make every possible effort to carry the next House of Representatives. Indications of extensive preparation with this object in view are noticeable here, and the Democrats may expect their political adversaries confronting them at every point in all doubtful or debatable districts. Several recent publications have represented Democratic members of the House much concerned at the prospect, and as having expressed serious misgivings on the subject. It cannot be ascertained that there is any substantial foundation for these assertions, as the Democratic members, when questioned, profess to have no fear that the Democratic majority in the House in the next Congress will be wiped out. It may not be long before they arrive at a different opinion. The present Democratic majority in the House is 48, which apparently leaves a not inconsiderable margin for possible losses. But in just two States if the Republicans should be able to recover the districts which naturally belong to them, fully one half of the majority would be wiped out. These two States are Michigan, which now has seven Democrats in the House, and Iowa, which has four. These seven members were secured by the Democrats through no other cause than resentment of Republican voters, mostly foreign-born, at the prohibitory liquor legislation enacted by the Republican party. It is ascertained that in Michigan, at least, that enough other districts in the Northwest have of late been carried by the Democrats on what is called the "personal liberty" idea, to make up the entire Democratic majority in the present House. It was plainly seen in the last State election in Ohio that the German voters, who had given the State to the Democrats upon their support of the Knights of the Republicans, went back to their old party and took the State away from the Democrats. The cause of this is alleged to be the conviction in the minds of the foreign-born voters of the West that the Democrats are no more to be relied upon in the matter of "personal liberty" than the Republicans. It is pointed out that in the South, that the impregnable stronghold of the Democracy, local option or prohibitory liquor legislation is making great strides in the States of that section are going outside their own borders to make proselytes in its favor. This condition of affairs, it is claimed, is fast tending to make honest men easy as to the Democratic parties, and there is no incentive for those who are naturally Republicans to hold aloof from their own party on this account. This feeling, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The party in power, it is said, is likely not only to have much effect in the West, but in the East, and particularly New York. A well posted German Democrat, who is one of the prominent members among the city of Brooklyn had given him some reasons for his belief among their employes, which, if given to Blaine would have reversed the result. In presenting these facts no argument or moral is sought to be deduced. The