BENNETT'S CRITICISM.

HIS REMARKS IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY.

The Republicans Answer One of His Questions in Chorus—Other Matters in Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Plumb presented a petition of an association of colored citizens of Kansas praying for assistance to emigrate to Africa.

Blair reported favorably, without amendment, from the committee on education and labor, the arbitration bill recently passed by the House of Representatives.

Morrill reported from the finance committee the resolution declaring upon authority of the Secretary of the Treasury that there are no papers in the department effecting the removal of any of the suspended internal revenue collectors about whom the committee has made inquiries.

Morrill said, was adopted by a unanimous vote of the committee. The removal of the bill was again taken up and was discussed by Logan, Hale, Manderson, Dawes, Hawley and Teller.

Call gave notice that tomorrow, after the disposal of the morning business, he would ask unanimous consent to address the Senate on the subject of the forfeiture of the Florida land act.

Blair laid before the Senate a message from the President relating to the subject of Chinese immigration. The message was read and referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Hawley obtained the floor to speak on the tariff bill.

Logan secured an arrangement by which the vote shall be taken not later than 3 o'clock tomorrow on Hale's motion to strike out the second section of the tariff bill.

House—Phelps, of New Jersey, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported a resolution calling on the Secretary of State for copies of all correspondence between his department and the representatives of France, Germany, Austria and Italy...

Adopted by the House, the bill has been referred to the committee on foreign relations.

On motion of Morrill the report submitted yesterday by the committee on rules changing the rules in various minor particulars was adopted.

In the morning hour the House resumed consideration of the bill to secure an equitable classification and compensation of certain officers of the United States.

Bennett, of North Carolina, criticized the first section of the bill, which authorizes the President to employ three persons not in the public service, and two persons who are officers in the service, not more than three of whom shall be adherents of some political party...

Laughter. "Is it a crime to be a Democrat?" he exclaimed, amid an affirmative chorus from the Republican side. The individual rights of States, the doctrine of Jefferson, is waning, and that of Hamilton is waxing.

The Democratic party in the advance of their views in one grand chorus and pointed to the standard bearer of the party as an ideal Democrat, supposed that his election meant a Democratic victory and that all legitimate consequences would follow.

Continuing, he said that the Democratic party had been preaching economy but the spectacle daily presented here of that party increasing the public burdens, an instance of this kind of legislation was found in the first section of the pending bill, which would increase salaries for the purpose of giving some gentlemen a place in the public service.

He had no sympathy in the doctrine that the spoils were to be divided among the victors, and that the victors' spoils, "as was true today as when uttered by Marcy, and the gentleman who thought that the spoils were not God's gospel truth, had set his sights too high for game."

Pending action the morning hour expired. Then there was a prospect of a struggle for the right of way between the silver bill and the post-office appropriation bill, but in the interest of a speedy transaction of business, Bland, of Missouri, gave way and the House went into committee on the whole (Hammond, of Georgia, in the chair) on the post-office appropriation bill.

Bingham, of Pennsylvania, offered an amendment increasing from $4,300,000 to $4,800,000 the appropriation for the steamship mail for 1886. The amendment was lost, yeas 54, nays 75.

Burrows, of Michigan, offered an amendment increasing the appropriation for the transportation of foreign mails from $375,000 to $400,000. This afternoon another political debate, turning upon the action of the Postmaster General in regard to the $400,000 appropriation for steamship mails 1st year, was also rejected, 82 to 106.

The committee rose and the bill was passed. The House then at 5:15 adjourned.

JONES WINS. The Drummer and the Virginia Compost.

RICHMOND, Va., April 6.—Last week R. G. Jones, commercial traveler from Philadelphia, who had offered to pay his license tax with State coupons, which were refused, was arrested for selling goods without license. His case came up for a hearing today before the District Court of this city. Counsel demurred to the indictment that Jones was not liable to prosecution because he had tendered Virginia coupons under a recent decision of the United States Supreme Court. After argument, the court sustained the demurrer, holding that the accused had a right to go on with his business without license after the tender of coupons, and that the prosecution could not be maintained. Jones was bailed and the case will be taken to the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. Jones has used all the State officers having a hand in his arrest for unlawful and malicious arrest, laying his damages at one hundred thousand dollars.

CALLED TO ACCOUNT.

A Former Carpet-Bag From South Carolina to Make Recitation by Order of the U. S. Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—In the Supreme Court today Chief Justice Waite rendered the decision of the Court in the case of William Stone against the State of South Carolina in favor of the State. This suit was brought by the State of South Carolina in the Court of Common Pleas of Richmond county in August, 1877, against D. T. Cotton and William Stone, law partners, to recover the amount claimed to be due for moneys collected by Stone for the State and not paid over to the State treasury.

In April, 1878, Stone presented to the Court a petition for removal of the suit to the United States Circuit Court from South Carolina, stating that he was a citizen of New York and a resident there, and that his co-defendant was a citizen of South Carolina, and so was plaintiff a citizen of the same State, and under the Statutes of the State and the United States Statutes the suit was one in which there could be no final determination reached so far as he was concerned with the presence of the co-defendant to the cause. The State Court proceeded with the suit notwithstanding Stone's petition for removal, and after trial gave judgment against both defendants for $23,728, with interest from July, 1876. During the whole proceedings, says Chief Justice Waite, Stone denied the jurisdiction of the State Court over the filio, and the Supreme Court of South Carolina affirmed the decision of the Court of Common Pleas and to reverse that judgment of affirmation the present writ of error was brought. The Court holds, says the Chief Justice, that a State Court is not bound to surrender its jurisdiction of a suit on petition for removal until a case has been made which on its face shows that the petitioner is entitled to transfer. This Court further holds that the money sued for was received by defendants as partners, and they are liable jointly for its payment. If they are liable at all, it is not removable, and, therefore, the judgment of the lower Court is affirmed. The case was argued by State Attorney General Charles R. Miles and Mr. J. W. Earle for the State and by Mr. W. E. Earle for Stone.

The "Wet" Prohibitionists of Greensboro Under a Cloud.

GREENSBORO, Ga., April 5.—The result of the municipal election here on Monday last has been a severe blow over which they feel very jubilant. There was every known resource and project brought to bear to win for prohibition, and the battle was hotly fought all day long. The result is a total issue except into the election the cause of prohibition would have stood a better showing.

The whisky men take their victory very quietly, and the prohibitionists are in a state of dejection. They worked for the cause of prohibition for a number of regular drinkers. Some of them were quite prominent in the contest, and the whisky men have formed a b勇 society to meet the liquor men say that they cannot buy any more whisky of them and when one presents himself at the bar he will be sold that the bar-keeper does not consider it his duty to sell him any whisky. The whisky men seem to mean what they say, and declare that if those who worked against them in the election want whisky they will have to buy it in Augusta, Madison or Atlanta. They can't get it in Greensboro. This "boycott" will fall heavily on some of the seedy drinkers.

Meeting of the British Cabinet.

LONDON, April 6.—The Cabinet met at noon today and remained in session till 2 o'clock. Gladstone laid before the ministers the Irish high-tariff rule. The result of the discussion which followed was a decision to continue the ministerial opposition to certain features of the Premier's proposals. The Earl of Kimberley, Secretary of State for the Colonies, Home Secretary, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of Exchequer, and Mr. Mundella, President of the Board of Trade, are, it is said, as much opposed as ever to that feature which surrenders the control of customs in Ireland. Big Fire in LaCrosse, Wisconsin.

LaCrosse, Wis., April 6.—A fire broke out at 10 o'clock this forenoon and was still burning and spreading at 3 p. m. with no good prospect of being confined to any particular point. It began in John Paulsen's mill and spread to the yard, both of which were swept away. Coleman's mill and lumber yard next disappeared and the flames spread among lumber piles and factories in all directions, but the progress was greatest to the southwest. The fire department was unable to cope with the conflagration, and assistance was sent from Sparta and Winona. Milwaukee sent two engines fully manned on a special train. The fire was caused by a spark from the mill smoke stack or furnace, and being fanned by a strong north wind, soon got beyond control. The situation at 3 p. m. is as follows: The fire still rages fiercely and still efforts on the part of the firemen to subdue it is unsuccessful. The wind is still high. A great many steamers are still playing on the fire. The total loss is placed at over five blocks long and a block and a half wide. One million dollars, only half insured. One thousand men are thrown out of employment.

A Young Buffalo in Central Park, N. Y.

There is a new attraction among the animals in Central Park in the person of a buffalo bull calf, which was born Friday night. Both parents of the bison were born in Central Park, and the mother is three years old. The young buffalo, which is nearly half grown, is in the custody of the keeper, and is very frisking. He dashed around the enclosure where his mother was locked up, and when satisfied as to the strength of his legs rushed to the paternal pen. The big bull bison and his offspring were soon on the best of terms and the former was jealous of any attention shown the calf.
