Fire at Waco.

At Waco, on the Shelby division of the Carolina Central road, last night, the store of G. M. Webb, a large merchant of that place, was entirely consumed, with its entire contents. Mr. Webb's loss is $7,000, but is part ly covered by insurance. Shortly after the fire started, a keg of powder in the store exploded and this served to awaken the inhabitants of the town The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

REMANDED TO JAIL

A REVIEW OF THE TESTI-MONK IN COURT.

Bail Denied Mr. Long After a Hearing Before Judge Meares on a Writ of Habens Corpus. The Case to be Tried Saturday.

Mr. Cyrus Long, the slaver of Mr. W. F. Cuthbertson, was yesterday arraigned before Judge Meares, on a writ of habeas corpus, for the pur pose of settling the matter in regard to bail, his lawyers moving to secure his release from custody on bond. hours, and at its conclusion Judge to be arraigned for trial upon charge yesterday returned a true bill. The bill was handed in to the court during the progress of the habeas corpus proceedings, but was not turned over to Judge Meares until the case was A great deal of interest was manifested in the progress of the hearing yesterday, and the court room was thronged while the case was going on. Mr. Long was represented by counsel in the persons of Col. H. C. Jones, Judge W. P. Bynum, W. P. Bynum, Jr., and Mr. Shipp. Solieis tor George E. Wilson represented the State. Eighteen or twenty witnesses were examined, nearly all of whom had been summoned in behalf of the defense. Mr. Alexander, of the firm of Hargraves & Alexander, by whom Mr. Long has been employed for several years past, was called to the stand, and related what he knew of Cuthbertson's threats against the life of Long. Mr. Alexander detailed Cuthbertson's conversation with him (Alexander) at the time Long was absent in Union county, just after his marriage to Miss Cuthbertson. In that conversation Cuthbertson remarked that "if Long ever comes back to Charlotte I will kill him," at the same time showing a pistol and knife. Mr. Alexander further stated that he informed Long of Cuthbertson's threats Tuesday morning, and told him to go home. Cuthbertson once, according to Mr. Alexander's store armed and watching for Long.

Mr. John Long's store, he heard Cuthbertson make a cool and deliberate threat to kill Long on sight, and said that he would hunt Long so as to carry the threat into execution. Mr. John Long, of the firm of Long & Bro., who was present when Cuthbertson made these threats, corroborated Mr. Phillips' statement, and further stated that he had repeatedly heard Cuthbertson make threats to kill Long. He, the witness, told Cy Long that Cuthbertson had sworn to

Mr. J. Riley Davidson testified that Monday morning Cuthbertson talked with him at his livery stable, and told him of having whipped Mrs. Cuthbertson. He (Cuthbertson) said that that fellow Long was the cause of it all, and that he could never be satisfied until he had killed Long. Mr. W. J. Black said that Cuthintended to kill Long, and was lately more furious in his threats than Mr Joseph McLaughlin testified to Cuthbertson's dangerous character and to his enmity to Long. Cuthbertson once said to the witness: "If I ever meet Long on the street, either bertson had often told him that he widow." The prisoner was called to the lence at the hands of Mr. Cuthbertnesses was taken to the same effect as above, and Gen. John A. Young and Mr. W. B. Taylor testified substantially as reported in THE OBserver yesterday. Judge Bynum and Col. Jones then made appeals for the release of the prisoner on bond. and Solicitor Wilson stated the case for the State. Judge Meares then delivered his opinion, in which the petition to admit the prisoner to bail was denied.

It is safe to say that any amount of bail that might have been required could have been instantly secured by the prisoner. The general feeling that seems to pervade the community is that when the case goes before a jury the acquittal will be certain and speedy. The witnesses examined at the court house yesterday were but a fow selected from a great number who had heard the threats, and who could be called upon to testify should the defense think it necessary.

Sheriff Griffith was ordered to summon a special venire of 100 men, from which the jury to try the case will be drawn tomorrow.

In the Criminal court yesterday afternoon, Amos Burt, solored, was tried for carrying concealed weapons, and of disturbing public worship.
The jury found him guilty. Wm.
Eller was found guilty of the charge of enticing a servant away from the employment of a neighbor. W. H Miller submitted to the charge of assault and battery, and judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs.

A New Order of Things to Go into Effect ov July First - Double Daily Trains Between Charlotte and Savannah -- Through from Charlotte to Morristown.

Since the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company came into virtual possession of all the roads centering at Charlotte, save the Carolina Central, rumors of proposed radical changes have been rife, and it seems to have become a settled fact that on the first Monday in July, the Rich mond and Danville will begin to boom things. The new policy will be one The hearing of the case occupied six of enterprise and progressiveness, and we are told that after July 1st., Char-Meares rendered his opinion that the lotte will not only have through prisoner was not entitled to bail, and trains to Morristown, over the Atordered him to be remanded to prison lantic, Tennesse & Ohio, and Western until tomorrow morning, when he is North Carolina roads, but will have double daily trains to Savannah, over of murder, the grand jury having the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta, and the Georgia Central roads, instead of the daily train to Augusta, as at present. The object in putting the new train on the C., C. & A. will be to secure the northern travel, as the Piedmont Air Line will be enabled to make the run between Washington and Savannah at least six hours quicker than can be done by the coast line. An arrangement has been perfected with the Georgia Central whereby the Richmond & Danville cars will run through from Augusta to Savanuah without a break. When this change is made, the white postal cars will be run on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta railroad, and it is believed that the day train will carry the local mail as at pres ent. Full connections will then be made at Charlotte on all trains from the south for northern and western points, and for southbound trains on all southern points. The arrangement will be an admirable one for the passenger traffic and will secure a large increase of business for the Richmond & Danville Company.

Prohibition Matters.

It has been agreed by the solicitor and citizens that the liquer dealers of Raleigh be allowed to keep open until the first of July, to enable them to wind up their business. This action having been taken in Raleigh, the same rule will doubtless apply to all other places where prohibition was statement, paraded in front of the successful but as best it is a risky business.
