The Crops.

An OBSERVER reporter recently took a turn through the country, and took particular pains to gather crop news from the farmers.

The impending war cloud which has hung over Independence square for three days past has at length been dissolved, and the white winged dove of peace is perched upon the telephone poles.

A Bad Bargain for Fortner. Mr. Clark Fortner lives three miles west of Davidson College, and on last Thursday he was visited by a man named Fairbanks, a plasterer by trade.

A Struggle in the Water. Yesterday forenoon, two Gaston county men who had been in attendance upon the Federal Court, hitched up their team to the wagon and started out for home.

The Regalia. The giving away of the regalia by the marshals is an interesting feature of Davidson Commencement which is always reserved for the last night.

Gene at Last. The heavy rain of Thursday night carried away a portion of the dam of Paifer's mill pond, letting out all the water, and the pond is now a vast mud puddle.
