Young Mill Man's Horse at Bown a Mule-His Owner to Was "Buint," and Got a Dumages, But the Mill Man the Mule Was Bluffing-torrible Bream of a Brug in Incident of the Scaboard That a Rock Hill Doctor at Rather Ludicroms.

on an unfrequented few days ago, and a certain w standing there. The mule and sis of what he said: oved and the horse ran into ed it upon the white man known of all, ule had "straint heself." The light of mischievous joy. said the mill man.

in in the wholesale drug busiit in the reading room of the my legs gave out. I couldn't only preparation needed for a hereafter, was the only preparation needed for a hereafter, less in all my born days. But "Death to him meant only a call to "Death lowly. I heard that flend behind h his gun, coming very near, emitand knees, clawing at work at the foot of my bed.

terrible disaster on the Seaboard e horror had passed away, of woods about 25 yards and winter work. on the awful scene," he suid ing someone was in great dismade my way to the woods I saw a man-a big, full grown have ever beheld. He had on but a garment and I suppose he had nd down crying and laughing. He derstand my questions and I tried to seize held of him, he from my grasp and fled like stened deer farther into the woods. was work to do, so I did not him, but if I ever saw a man the verge of madness, it was he. I, in thinking of it now, it apers to be the only thing in all that ene that had in any way an element the ridiculous, even though the man at he was doing."

DEPUTY SHERIFF KILLED. nte Man in Grange County

allowing facts, written on a posrd, came to The Observer yes-or from Hillsboro; oe Nichols, deputy sheriff, if trying st Nap Horner, a white man, with hair, black mustache, and black , and heavily-knitted face; measunds, while his assistant was his horse, was shot and killed by son's wife and said he would be turned away. The extra chairs were man who tried to arrest him." all in use and all the aisles were filled

Boys' Bally.

6:15 p. m.

ow," said a man of learnped into The Observer ofit, on his way home from I Ruff Henderson's let's Observer is a gam. I dy in town read it. The Oen. Hoke, one of the I men. Say a good word

LES TOLD TO A REPORTER. SPECIAL CHURCH SERVICES MEMORIAL EXERCISES AT TRINITY

> Professor Sivina Recumbered by His Charlotte Priends - Strong Words of Praise-The Hendricka Meeting Continues With Never-Palling Interest-Rev. Mr. Mai-Hackrodt at the Y. M. C. A.

The memorial services at Trinity Methodist church yesterday morning to Prof. J. F. Bivins were very impressive. Mr. R. L. Durham spoke for the trustees of Trinity College of the young mill man of Charlotte very high esteem in which he was ring about it still. He was held. Mr. Durham's remarks were exout to his mill which is now in of completion, when one of the credingly well given and appropriate. Dr. W. I. Crawford was introduced and the horse ran away, wer was gritty and swung to trying to stop the frightened Just ahead was that familiar negro and a mule, the latter tohed to a plow. The scared re down upon them, and the down upon them, and the with a yell of terror, sprang the addence was deeply moved by

"As I understand it, we are com cking him sprawling. Inci- together to find, if we can, the secret the mill snan was thrown to of this man's success, the real cause but sustained only a few and underlying principle of his great-ness. As we view his magnificent work gro, seeing that everything and life, we long that others may be his fallen pet, and assisted him way, such as he was. What then was and then he turned to the mill it that made him great? I should anith the most aggrieved manner, swer it was not simply the work that done ruint man mule, white he did, that made him the great workthat's impossible," said the un- the great speaker and preacher that he picking himself up from the was; others may have done the deeds that he did, and yet they were not the he is hu't, too. Jest look at same; others may have uttered the e kaint move." At this the old same language that he used, and yet if tugged at the mule's bridle apwas not the same. The power that men stood on guard along Watkins' row let his imagination run riot.

In an effort to make him walk made his deeds effective, the force that and on Third street. Messrs. Sommade his utterances eloquent was the merow and Ayers ran upon Welsh sitted. and long ears limp and spiritliving sincerity of his spirit. It was ting in the front door of his cabin, and hand car and taken back to Rock Hill.

the genuineness of the spirit of the chased him through the house and But none of the men had any of the young man began to think may- man. His inner love of rightness and mal was paralyzed. He got truth made him frank and simple, un-Consequently, after some pretentious as a child, and gave him paring to clime a high fence. That was consequently, after some pretentious as a child, and gave him paring to clime a high fence. That was consequently, after some pretentious as a child, and gave him paring to clime a high fence. That was consequently a critical moment. The officer cried consequently satisfy him, but that knew him, and made him easily "halt" and the negro showed fight. A dollar would satisfy him, but that knew him, and made him easily

"The inner chambers of his heart of was paid and the mill man left hearts were clean and pure, contained with the mule standing stock no desire dark enough to cast a shadow But what puzzled the man was athwart his vision of life; but in the he saw the pair—the negro and light of a clean life and a pure heart bout 10 minutes afterward he looked out upon all life and being gro was humming gaily, and in and activity about him and sensed it in lancholy orbs of the mule there its wholeness. This made him a man "I of a broad faith and a wide sympathy leve the cussed mule was hurt consequently he had a deep and genulne interest in all things human. In financial and business affairs he was a success, because as he looked out or the business side of life he saw it was Club a few days ago and ask- genuinely worth while, and when the gang if any of them had ever talked with business men his interest horrible dream. Everyone, and "Of course."

I don't believe you can match if had last night," he said. I literature was an essential part of his day with a fellow who was dully meat and drink. He liked to linguistic the said of the liked to linguistic the said. eaving way and I was trying to ger among the masters in thought and home. He resisted and at last literature, not because he was expected d and whipped out a gun about to know them, being a schoolman, but ago, arrived here last night and were on North Tryon street about 50 delight in the light and the life they and burial will take place at Harrison the square. I reached the gave him. And as in his work so in church, in the lower part of the countries of the countri ithough that cuss was stumbling did it as a boy among boys. He found behind, shooting at me. I knew a genuine boy's interest in it. While a six-shooter, and I counted his religion was his whole work and existence. To him, living an open, honas I reached the square, to my est, pure and useful life here, was the was that crazy fool coming along his destroyer and I knew I had something. Well, sir, I just led over on my hands and knees crawled—yes, sir, crawled across quare, digging my fingers between ricks to get a hold. I moved, oh. and a broader field."

"Death to him meant only a call to a hour a month ago and went to Texas with the hope that she might get well. but she grew worse day by day. Miss Rone was a bright, sweet young woman. Her father arrived here yesterday and will accompany the body to has been promoted to a higher rank and a broader field." and a broader field.'

A large and representative audience heard the eulogies of Mr. Bivins, MR. MALLINCKRODT AT THE Y.

Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, rector of the Episcopal church, delivered a magdays ago seemed to have in it nificent address before a large number nt of humor, but after the im- of men at the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday afternoon. Rev. e first to reach the scene, told of a "The Fall Sowing." It was a rathe ing that struck him as being appropriate theme from the fact that the Young Men's Christian Associa-"I heard yells from the direction of tion is beginning to take up its fall

The speaker gave a very striking illustration of the autumn, bow nature prepares itself for the approaching spring, in so much as to convey to his heart the thought that every should do the same in his life. Rev. Mollinckrodt unquestionably n the Pullman. He was jumping strong speaker to men. His addressealways command attention from his

> Mr. Geo. Newcomb rendered an excellent vocal solo. THE DENDRICKS REVIVAL CON-TINUES. There were four full house services the East Avenue Tabernacle yesterday. The regular service at 11 o'clock was well attended and Mr. Hendricks preached on David's love for God's shattered in nerve and knew not House and gave a great many reasons why we should all love the sacred The session met immediately after the service and some 20 odd consected with the church. The special A forcible semnon was preached on sowing and reaping. A number of men came forward at the close asking forgiveness for the past and promising better things for the future. As the men went out the children came in and the regular Sabbath school exercises were held with a house full of young feet and 11 inches, and weigh- people. Mr. Hendricks made a talk to the scholars at the close on the s horse, was shot and killed by "Bes" of the Bible and urged them all with a shot gun at 5 feet dis-to "Be kind," "Be steadfast," "Be with a shot gun at 5 feet dis-to "Be kind," "Be steadfast," "Be This took place in Little River Holy" and "Be saved." At the 8 o'clock Orange county, on the 9th. service at night the house was taxed is at large. He had been beat- beyond its capacity and some had to Just before the sermon a free will nced at the boys' meet- offering was taken up for Mr. Hen-Y. M. C. A. yesterday after- dricks, who has labored so hard and hat preparations are being made successfully. Quite a nice sum was successfully. Quite a nice sum was raised as a token of appreciation of termoon at 3 o'clock. At this there will be several interestmon was on the "Broad Road," and d for. Any boy over 10 years of things that help people along this road. that leads to death. Prejudice against not is invited. The purpose of God's plan of salvation, the dance a raily is to make arrangeir the fall and winter months in tous work department, and at

of the meeting the boys will ed into two meetings, accordis. The Boy's Volunteer League Boy's Gospel meeting, meeting and a determination to change their ways. An experience meeting closed the exercises of the day. This afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a meeting for ladies only and no men will be admitted. Regular service at 8 o'clock o-night to which all are invited.

Bisine Hoffman, aged 19 years, re-ceived such serious internal injuries in a game of football at Lykens, Pa., Saturday when the opposing players piled upon him, that death resulted yesterday.

A MEAN NEGRO ARRESTED.

The Bully of the Town Has Pallen listo the Hands of the Police Force—Hobert Welsh a Bad Citi-sen—He Talks of Murder and quite a chase through a back lot on ville, had gone out on the Third street, last night.

one who had him arrested.

egro if I took a notion."

frightened and the policemen eager buttons did their duty, but McFadden pointed pistol was what made Welsh yield. He threw up his hands when the policeman presented his gun, but muttered threats.

He had told some of the negroes that he was almost ready to leave Charlotte Among other things he had said: "I've killed two men and I'm going to kill two women and then I'll be ready o leave here." Welsh was profane and surly at the dation. He is evidently a bad citizen. The negroes on Watkins' row held a mass meeting in the streets and thanked the Lord that Welsh had been ar ested when the news arrived.

THE FUNERAL OF MISS MAY RONE.

North Carolina Girl Who Died in Texas-Her Remains at Mr. J. A. Bell's. The remains of Miss May Rone, who died at Bandera, Texas, several days ty, about 11 o'clock to-day. The body and escort of relatives and friends will eave here at 8 o'clock this morning. Miss Rone was the daughter of Rev. W. S. Rone, of Rocky Mount; mother was a Miss Bell, of Providence township. She left North Carolina about a month ago and went to Texas

The Proudest Parents in Town. Down at the city fire department, on East Fifth street, Rose, the beautiful greyhound lady, has an interesting family. Nine handsome little pupple In their own dumb way call he mother, and look to her for protection and support. Prince and Rose are as proud and happy as the Czar and Czarina of Russia.

Proposal for Electric Light Plant at Lexington, N C,

Scaled proposals will be received by the Board of Commissioners of Lexngton until October 1, 1904, for erectng and installing an Electric Light Plant. The proposed plant embraces two 85 H. P. High Speed Engines, two 60 K. W. A. C. Generators, 50-Light Series Arc System and Pole Line. For specifications, forms of proposal, etc., address the engineer. JOHN H. MOYER, Mayor. J. L. PEACOCK, Clerk. J. L. Ludlow, Engineer, Winston-

Salem, N. C. WALKER & CLANTON Real Estate and Rental Agents, 202 S.

Tryon M. Have for sale some fine residence lots mproved and unimproved. See them service at 3 p. m. for men only was for prices. Have a few houses for enjoyed by a house crowded full of rent. Special attention given to rent-

Five Points

Almost like a page from the "Arablan Nights' is the story of The excellence Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

It makes pure blood Is why it cures all those Diseases.

Physicians name and Thousands have been cured, Many of whom were life-long, Sufferers. It will do the some for you.

classify

To go through life without it is positively criminal when this Remedy Is within your easy reach.

> olf you need a Remedy, why not Try the Best. This is a Square dealer. Convince yourself and pass if on to others. Sold by all druggists. Manufactured only by Mrs. Joe Per-

ROBBERS AT ROCK HILL. The Charlotte Police Porce Called Upon for Help, But the Alarn Was Fulse.

Unknown persons broke into the mea market of Mr. B. B. McFadden, of Rock Robert Weish, a bold, burly negro Hill, Saturday night, and stole $400. Mr. sully, who came here from Charleston. McFadden went to Pineville yesterday, S. C., some time ago is locked in a cell and arrested two men, and charged at the police station, and will be tried them with the deed. The circumstances before Recorder Shannonhouse this af- of the affair are interesting. It seems ternoon for an assault. Officers Som- from the facts that have come to Char-merrow and Ayers arrested him after lotte, that Police Officer Cuip, of Pinetown, to arrest one Geo. Bradshaw, Weish is a great, strong muscular wanted for an affray. Cuip saw his man giant, about 25 years old, black and with two others, standing near a well, saucy. He cursed like a trooper in the As he approached Bradshaw fled, govery faces of the policemen, and de- ing toward Charlotte; Culp pursued. At clared that he would like to kill the the very moment this race began, Mc Fadden drove up and took charge of Welsh claims to be a native of Vir- Bradshaw's associates it was here that ginia, but a recent dweller in Charles- the Charlotte police force became in-He has talked so much and in volved. McFadden, seeing Culp chase such a way as to make the negroes and Bradshaw, imagined that Bradshaw the officers believe that he is a bad had his money, and hurried to the tellangerous character. On the way to ephone to call up the Charlotte police the station last night, Welsh declared: officers. An earnest request was sent of I were in heaven I would fight a to the police station for help. Jim Orr ran out to Tryon street and blew Alice Boyd, a negro woman, who lives blast from his whistle. Officer John-on Watkins' row, was assaulted by son, who was taking life easy at the Welsh while on her way home from square, answered the distress call at a work Saturday night. Early yesterday double-quick step. Chief Irwin was no morning he broke in her house, but tified and Sergeant Pitts became inter-found that she had fled. The police ested. The thought of facing a safeofficers were notified and asked to ar-cracker, a real artist, made the hearts of the Charlotte policemen beat faster. swer it was not simply the work that rest him.

he did, that made him the great worker; not what he said that made him, and went to West Third street, where the great speaker and preacher that he he rented a house and stowed his better that he he rented a house and stowed his better that he he rented a house and stowed his better the officers rode all the way to Pinewas; others may have done the deeds longings. Later he sold his effects and wille without meeting anything fercer was. made ready to leave the city. But the than a gentle breeze. The alarm was negroes who knew him had become false. The men in blue coats and brass

Bradshaw was captured by McFadder and Culp, and the trio loaded on across the back lot, Sommerrow caught stolen property upon them. The Charup with the negro just as he was pre- lotte officers have their doubts about the captives being the culprits wanted.

All the Comforts of Home

May be present in your dom cile, but if Furniture of the right sort be missing, then there is a lack indeed. Recent shipments have made it possible for us to offer you something

Dining Room and Parlor Furniture

at really attractive prices that will add much to the beauty and comfort of your home

Lubin Furniture Co.

Do You

The life of your linen when you send it to a laundry?

Do you stop to consider that some laundries will wear out linen within a few weeks, while others will preserve it for many months? There is a great difference in the washing process, in the starching process and in the ironing process.

This laundry employs machinery and methods that are easy on the linen.

We are laundering shirts today that we have laundered for more than a year and they are still in good condition.

May we have at least a share of your patronage so that we may prove our claims.

The Charlotte Steam Laundry.

219 S. Tryon St.

The Latest Clothing Styles Out

The big Mellon stock is now brim full of bright, new stylish apparel for Boys' Youth's and Men's fall service.

The New Clothing is the Results of the Work of the B st Tailors in the Land. Every Garment Represents Superior Workmanship.

名 名

The Createst Variety of S'yles is here, embracing all the Newest Effects in Crothes out this Season. Swellest Creations in Men's Fall 5 Suits aid Overcosts ever produced Magnificent Brand New Up-to-Date Mail Orders have Immediate Attention.

D. W. MELLON

Ernest Gayford. Frank P. Callow. Gayford @ Callow. Assay Office, Mechanical Engineer's

26 West Fifth Street. Charlotte - - North Carolina. Assaying, Cyanide Mill Tests and Deigns a Specialty All Mining and Engineering Work a Specialty.

Buying in large lots and taking advantage of discounts enable us to sell at a saving. Promptness and reliability are special features. If its HARD-WARE we sell it.

Allen Hardware Co. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL,

30 East Trade Street.

REFRIGERATORS" which we tractive prices. You can get no better refrigerator than the MAINE, and there's lots of good You will have it then to begin b the next season. It will pay you

N. McCausland &. Co. 221 South Tryon Street. ZOXOXOXOXOXOXOXOXOXOXOXXXX

Special Discount Sale Odd Dressers

Last few months a number of Odd Dressers have accumulated, having been left from Suits. Dressers perfect in every way and the very handsomest goods. We will close these out

AT SACRIFICE PRICES

Golden Oak Dresser worth $25,00 Golden Oak Dressers worth 28.99 Golden Oak Dresser worth $23.50 Golden Oak Dresser worth $39.50 for 30.00 There are just four of these and they ro fast at these prices. Other good values in Golden Oak. Bird's Eye and Mable Dressers with ashstands to match.

W. T. McCOY, 209-211S. Tryon St.

School

Opening Day we ever had. More Books and Supplies sold yesterday than ever before on an opening day, and we still have some left for your children. Our stock is the largest and the most complete in the city, and everything sold at list price. Goods delivered to any part of the Largest

Houston, Dixon & Co. WANTS YOUR TRADE

Your Attention

For just a moment to tell you we have one of the best selected

Fine Cut Glass

you can find in the city. O 17 the finest quality and latest patterns at prices that will int:rest you.

Phone 271.

When You Need an

EXTRA PAIR OF PANTS

Bring your legs to this store. There are few men but what wear out two pair of Pants to one coat and vest, and many men come here for their Pants, therefore we carry at all times a splendid line of Trousers, consisting of all styles and colors of goods. Many of the Pants we sell we have made especially for our trade. We know them to be put together in the right way--the tailoring an I general workmenship being the very best. No matter what the price may be, every pair embraces Comfort and Style.

The Long-Tate Clothing Opposite the Buford Hotel MAIL ORDERS HAVE PROMPT ATTENTION.