CHARLOTTE DAILY OBSERVER, OCTOBER 17, 1904.

North Carolina Social Circles

hapel Hill.

COLLER TI.

ndence of The Observer. Hill Oct 16.—The annual Oc-man was given by the Uni-of North Carolina. German intention last night in Com-ult was the most delightful that has been given here in a of years. The spacious hall uitfully decorated in white biossoms and maiden hair he gowns of the young ladies borate and attractive. Music dered by Levins Orchestra of d by Levins Orchestra of The german was gracefully Graham Kenan, of Kenans-Muss Lois Loig, of States-skilled leaders introduced figures which added spice y to the joyful occasion was continued till the stroke ce was continued till the stroke Among those present were: Kenan, of Kenansville, with is Long, of Statesville; Louis tree, of New York City, with file Archer, of Chapel Hill; Cotton, of Cottondale, with yden, of Salisbury; E. H. Hob-Oxford, with Miss Venable, pel Hill; A. C. Dalton, of ore, with Miss Louise Brad-Greensboro; W. M. Bond, of with Miss McMullen, of Eden-unilton Mc. Jones, of Char-tith Miss Louise Bellamy, of Miss Louise Bellamy, of James B. Murphy, of with Miss May Hume, of Ben. K. Lassiter, of Ox-Hill: Ben. K. Lassiter, of Ox-with Miss Elizabeth Payne, of t. Va.: Tom O'Berry, of Golds-with Miss Ferrell, of Raleigh; wart Lewis, of Jackson, with lowen, of Jockson; J. E. Pogan, lins Burgyn, of Raleigh; Dan-Fowle, of Raleigh, with Miss Andrews, of Raleigh; Francis A. th Miss Nell Flinn, of Columbia. Lat V. Woeth, of Asheboro, with V. Worth, of Asheboro, with Filmn, of Columbia, S. C.; Finn, of Columbia, S. C.;
More, of Columbia, S. C., with acy Young, of Washington, D.
ri H. Bridges, with Miss Dora uchas, of Chapel Hill. Stags:
a. Legrande, Nash, J. M. Rob-J. Cheshire, Morrison, J. B.
Hutchinson, Greene, Reynolds.
Bahnson, Lassiter, W. D.
Chaperones: Dr. and Mrs.
Lee Raper; Dr. and Mrs.
Howe: Mrs. Vance, of Washington, and Dr. C.; Mrs. Halahan, and Dr. McBryde.

Irder of the Gimghoul" entera large number of the visiting it. The long dining room was d in golden rod and palms. down from the massive dome frand ropes of roses inter-ith cosmos blossoms, which wh and fastened to small es al the sides of the room. rolreshments were served. here to enjoy the "Order's" were: Dr. William Stanley hapel Hill with Miss Wil-Chapel Hill; Hamilton of Charlotte, with Miss army, of Wilmington; Pres-otton, of Cottondale, with Long, of Statesville; Harry of Edenton, with Miss Lilen, or Edenton, with Miss Lit-rel, of Raleigh; Francis A. Cox, orce, with Miss May Hume, of Hill; Edmund S. Burwell, of te, with Miss Louise McMullen. on; Agnew H. Bahnson, of with Miss Bradshaw, of a. with Miss Bradshaw, of boro; Graham Kenan, of Ken-with Miss Dora MacRae, of Hill; John W. Winborne, of with Miss Louise Venable, of Hill; T. Grier Miller, of States-with Miss Mary Andrews, of ; Robert E. Colder, of Wilming-th Miss Reveolds of Wilming-th Miss Reveolds of Wilming- Robert E. Colder, of Wilming- ith Miss Reynolds, of Winston- : Hai V. Worth, of Asheboro.

 Miss Nell Flinn, of Columbia, S. lairborn Carr, of Durham, with Ray Flinn, of Columbia, S. C.: P. Cheshire, of Tarboro, with roung of Washington D. C. oung, of Washington, D. C. .... minvable smoker was given tothe Alpha Tau Omega fraterit their beautiful and commot their beautiful and commo-nouse on Franklin Avenue. At ur of 10:30 the young people d to the dining room, where a was spread for them amid s of ferns and garlands. Those were: Messrs. Daniel G. were: Messrs. Daniel G.
 ie of Raleigh; Buri H. Bridges.
 Wimington; J. R. Moore, of Colum S. C.; John Robertson, of Fayette i: H. S. Lewis, of Jackson; T. M. man, of Henderson; Joseph Poa Jr. of Raleigh; Hubert Hill, of ight; W. T. McAden, of Raleigh;
 Courts, of South Parts, Dr. J. Courts, of South Port; Dr. J. tit, of Chapel Hill: Prof. James on MacRae, Jr., of Chapel Hill; S. MacRae, of Chapel Hill; W. Json, of Rock Hill, S. C., A. B. of Trinity College; A. B. Brad-Dunkars, Chapter Domastic Tourham: Christy Bennett, J. W. V. Alken, R. K. Foster. Croft, Eugene Oliver, of Col-S. C.; and Douglass McKay, of S. S. C. e School for Scandal" was pleas-entertained yesterday afternoor. 4 to 6 by Miss May Hume. The was decorated in cosmos and and was most attractive. The wore a very elegant and be-gown of gray silk. The topic ternoon was "Russian Domestic and was thoroughly discussed in ertaining style, Lucious fruits at drinks were served. Those re: Misses Louise and Can-Miss Dora MacRae, Miss 11 Alexander, Miss Millie Ar-ins Morrison, Mrs. Charles Lee Mrs. W. M. Williams, of Pat-N. J.: Mrs. J. M. McBryde, Mrs. of Wushington, D. C.: Mrs. Howe, Mrs. McKee and Mrs. H.

programme in a most attractive and

SEC11120

I am sure it was with a feeling of table and punch was served by Messrs, but a big drum; and I know another egret when the programme, all too Bennett, Howland, McCloskey and Lorshort came to a close, and numbers illard. were heard expressing themselves with Among the guests who enjoyed , the Mrs. Thomas Settle, Mrs. Theodore

Dr. Carlton B. Mott, of Statesville, B. Doyle, Mrs. L. M. Bourne, Mrs. Roband Miss Gertrude Davis, of Morgan- Inson, Mrs. Shoemaker, Mrs. Maury, ling was simple in all of its appoint- land, Miss Polley, Miss Randall, Messrs. arried a large bunch of bride's roses. H. W. Wilmerding, J. J. McCloskey. The only attendant for the bride was her maid of honor, Miss Myra Davis. The golf tea will be given once a sister. The bride entered the parlor month throughout the winter season.

with her father, and was met there by the groom, upon the arm of his best Announcement of the recent mar man, Mr. Frank Carlton, a Statesville riage of Miss Lowe Austin Bonner has what Scotland is. John,' he exclaimed boy, who has made his home in New been received here from Dailas, Texas, suddenly turning toward the dark fiz-with congratulations, they left on the her friends. Since her school days, she lays. Upon their return to Statesville, guest of Miss Mary Nichols. The anthey will be at Hotel Iredell for a hort while, until Dr. Mott's house is n readiness to receive them. The pres-announce the marriage ints were both numerous and handsome and the young couple are well supplied even now with housekceping things. Mrs. Mott was one of Morganton's most ttractive young ladies, and Statesville very heartily welcomes her as "one of is." Dr. Mott is so well known that Dr. Mott is so well known that t is useless again to refer to his harming personality, here in the place At Home 610 Swiss Ave. which has always been his home. He The following announcements were nd his bride already hold a very warm place in the hearts of Statesville issued last week as a sequel to the wedding of Miss Winifred Turner and eople. who attended the marriage Mr. Benjamin M. Lee, engineer for the Those rom Statesville are as follows: Capt. city of Asheville: nd Mrs. P. C. Carlton, Miss Mary Mrs. Wi announces the marriage of her daughter 'arlton, Miss Belle Mott, and Messrs. W. P. and I. S. Bell, A. P. and F. F. Steele, F. W. McKesson, G. E. Hughey. ), J. Craig, I. C. Lawrence, Edgar Alison, Will and Frank Carlton. . . . After a visit of some weeks to his parents, Mr. Will Carlton left Wednessume his duties in that city. His broth-r. Mr. Frank Carlton, will not return week at her home on Bearden avenue angelic sweetness. John quickly reachto New York, but has gone to Balti- to celebrate her birthday anniversary. nore to begin the study of dentristy.-Dr. Hal Cowles, of New York, is vizit-Cowles, on Broad street.-Miss Lois of many pretty gifts, among the num-Long leaves Friday for Chapel Hill, ber being a silver comb and brush bis face back into the dark cabin. where, with Mr. Graham Kenan, she bad and exciting. He was no true fragrance of the ear-the parson buried Greek. John, have you ever thought his face softly upon his elbow which how much of life can be expressed in rested on the back of his chair. And Asheville, whose whole existence has been a jig on a fiddle; and I know a shrill little fellow who is a fife; and I know a brassy girl who is a pair of symbols. and once-once,' repeated the parson

F. Davidson, Mrs. P. R. Moale, Mrs. A. whimsically, 'I knew an old maid who was a red living spinnet. I even know another old maid now who is nothing on, were united in mariage Tuesday Mrs. Seibell, Mrs. Rany, Mrs. Raborg, but an old music book-long ago sung norning at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Bartlett, Mrs. McCrew, Mrs. A. E. through, learned by heart, and laid norning at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Bartlett, Mrs. McCrew, Mrs. A. E. through, learned by heart, and laid the bride's father, Mr. J. J. Davis. The Rankin, Mrs. Malloy, Mrs. Geo. Crebb, aside in a faded, wrinkled binding-yelnouse was most tastefully decorated Mrs. H. E. Polley, Miss Doyle, the lowed paper stained by tears-and for the occasion, and, although the wed- Misses Rees, Miss Turner, Miss How- haunted by an odor of rose petals, haunted by an odor of rose petals, crushed between the leaves of memory: nents, herein consisted its charm. The R. P. Moale, F. M. Maurey, J. B. A. a genuine, very thin and stiff collection or ide was handsomely gowned in a Bennett, Stanley Howland, Beckman of the rarest original songs-not songs blue coat suit with hat to match, and Lorillard, J. -1. Caine, Fred Thomas, without words, but songs without sounds-the ballads of an undiscovered heart; the hymns of an unanswered spirit.

"After a pause, during which neithe of the men spoke, the parson went on: All Ireland-it is a harp! We know York for the past year or Iwo. After Miss Bonner spent several years here as ure lying just inside the shadow, 'you simple but impressive ceremony, and a student at the Asheville College and are a discord of the bag-pipe and the he happy couple had bee showered numbers many Asheville folk among harp; there's the trouble with you. Sometimes I can hear the harp alone it noon train for Asheville to spend a few has visited here several times as the you, and then I like you: but when the bag-pipe begins, you are worse than a big bumble-lee with a bad cold.' "'I know it.' said John. sorrowfully. my only hope is that the harp will out last the bee. "'At least that was a chord finally struck,' said the parson, warmly. Afer another silence he went on: "Martin Luther-he was a cathedral organ, and so it goes. And so the whole past sound to me: it is the music of the world; it is the vast choic of the ever-living dead. He gazed dreamily up at the heavens: 'Plato' he is the music of the stars.' After a little while bending over and looking at the earth and speaking in a tone of unconscious humility, he added: 'The most'that we can do is to begin a strain that will swell the general volume and last on after we have perished. As for me, when I am gone, ould like the me

派商星 法生产资源论 一方心的 性保密感到2

Fortnightly Club met several outs ago o elect officers and subject for discussing during and winter months. The sub-the fall is "Russia and "Japan." wing officers were cleated: her Dallmon Toy, president: Bennall Cramer, vice-presi-Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, sec-nd treasurer; Mrs. Thomas rector of the literary pro-

Nell and Ray Flinn, of Col-C., are the guests of Mrs. towe.-Miss Lucy Young. of on. D. C., is visiting Mrs. Mangum.-Miss Bradshaw, there, is the charming visitor Mittle Archer.-Prof. Collin at to-day In Raleigh.-Dr. F. is was in Durham Thursday will lead the german, soon to be given ance. at that place. There were several guests present Donald Randolph. whom the Club always gladly welcome.

Statesville Socially.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. L. Ashe.

Lenoir Social Notes.

'orrespondence of The Observer. Lenoir, Oct. 15 .- Dainty cards of initation called together an appreciative udience in the hall at Davenport Colege on the evening of the 14th, the ocasion being a faculty recital, which was much enjoyed. The beautiful se-Mitchell. ections of the programme were renderd in a manner so artistic and finished is to call forth unqualified expressions of admiration. Madam Hebron, wellknown to the music lovers of Lenoir, gave several strikingly beautiful indrumental numbers from the best com-osers. Miss Robinson charmed the judience by the perfect control and nodulation of a highly cultivated voice n the swetest of songs. One of these, 'Che Faro Senza Eurydice,'' was essecially well received. Miss Smith deighted the whole assembly by recitaions characterized by refined orignal nterpretation, and showing great talent n this most attractive department. Our tourists are beginning to return rom the World's Fair. Mr. George Moore and Misses Julia Moore and Lula lwyn arrived yesterday, after seeing he fair and visiting relatives in Ciay lity, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shell and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gwyn are expected in a lay or two. Mr. Edmund Jones hands slowly backward over his long has also returned from St. Louis and fine, straight hair, on which the moon Chicago.-Mr. Macon, of Virginia is visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. C. B. Jarrison.-Mr. J. C. Moore, brother of Mrs. W. B. Watson, is in town for a tew days .- Mrs. R. H. Blackwell and nfant son, who have been visiting at he Martins have gone home .-- Mrs. Johnson, of Hickory, is with her sister. Mrs. J. W. Self.-Mrs. J. G. Hall has L. Patterson, in the Happy Valley

In Monroe County.

orrespondence of The Observer. Monroe, Oct. 14 .-- The Allegro Club. Mrs. W. J. Rudge as president, which has been organized for the purpose of study and improvement in music, held sented a most pleasing scene, potted plants and cut flowers being used in to Mr. Benjamin Markley Lee on Thursday, October the sixth one thousand, nine hundred and four Asheville, North Carolina, of their daughter

Lowe Austin

Mr. Arthur Carson Rubey

on the evening of Wednesday

September the twenty-eighth nineteen hundred and four,

Dalias, Texas.

Mrs. William Turner

Winifred

. . . Miss Robin Kennett was tendered a Games were enjoyed during the evening crushing grip: he knew this was the last proof the parson could ever have and refreshments were served by the hostess. Miss Kennett was the recipient given him that he loved him. And then from the young gentlemen in attend-

Among the guests were: Miss Rebecca Veal, Miss Elota Neil, Miss Myrtle Gudger, Miss Jessie Stikeleather, Miss The Thursday Afternoon Book Club Gudger, Miss Jessie Stikeleather, Miss was very delightfully entertained to-day at 4:30 by Mrs. Bathet Adams. Gudger, Nobert Wilson, Carl Collins and Gudger, Miss Gall Kennett; Frank Gudger, Miss Gall Kennett; Frank

Mrs. S. A. Ingle entertained a number of little folks Friday night of last week to celebrate her son's eleventh birthday. Among the guests were: Misses Alice Campbell, Gertrude Inglie, Ruth Creweil, Alma Campbell, Julia Crutchfield, Lillfan Dougherty, Nell Blackburn and Frederick Ingle, Edward Goodlake,

Clarence Young, Carl Bean, Harmon Young, Elmer Ingle, Hugh Collins, Edward Ingle, Ralph Hendrix, Robert Ingle, Rankin Blackburn and Owen

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ross returned last week from their wedding trip. Mrs. Ross was Miss Marion Weston, a sister of Mr. George Waston, general manager of the Biltmore estate farms. Mr. Ross is assistant general manager of the estate farms.

High Point.

Correspondence of The Observer. High Point, Oct. 14 .- Speaking o music, especially the flute, brings to for those attending mind the little conversation that James Lane Allen makes "John" and the "parson" have and its so true to nature that 'twill do refeating:

"Toward the end of his illness, John lay one night just inside his door, looking soberly, sorrowfully out into the moonlight. A chair sat outside and the parson walked quietly up the green hill and took it. Then he laid his hat on the grass; and passed his delicate hands slowly backward over his long.

beams at once fell with a justre as c. E. HOOPER, MANAGER

our way.

HUMAN NATURE

returned from a week's stay with Mrs. is a most wonderful study, and we believe that all students of nature will agree with us, that it is human nature to want

The Most and the Best that is to be had. We do and we generally get if, too, and we can easily convince you, that we do, if you will only examine

THE CAR LOAD IRON BEDS

ts first meeting with Miss Pat Adams tast Saturday afternoon at her hos-pitable home, on Washington street. The spacious halls and library pre-MOST BEDS AND THE BEST BEDS for the money that can be found anywhere, and when you make a most entertained in the you will think we have all the Iron Beds. Call on us name your price and we will show you the bed.

THE FOUR MARTINEKS Gaul's greatest Grun Geniuses in A French Fest-Bes-ing Matth, The Comic Categoli, The Miser and His Gold, The Finched Parisians, and other Frequent Freites, to-gether with fifty other of the World's most famous and Funniest Fools in the Carcening Capital of

Fame's only EDDY FAMILY Now first introducing their new and the only

DEMON-DRIVEN DIAVOLO Looping the Giant's Loop on a Bicycle An inimitable, superhuman feat, defying duplice beggiving description. Which thrills an as as would a battery of dynamos. a staggering Senation's self. Acres of ing, dumfounding, dare-devil, daming ag, marvelous and merry produces an a. and rarest living lassons.

A CONSTELLATION OF EIGHT CINCUS COMPANIES A fundred acts and rivalries in three rings, 100,000 feets of asrial space, on slevaled stages and a grand colliseum course. The Churiot faces of theRoman Gazars. The Superiation Siamese Toins of Maiwal History. Never before were seen her avage representatives in such huge, ferceious and varied form. The Mightlest Hurds of Wieset Liephente, and Lowering colossally in fame among them THE FOREPAUGE DANGING ELEPHANTS.-THE SELLS BROWERS' SUCHER ELEPHANTS.

15

There are Peerless Hundreds in their Horse Show. A Blue-blooded Congress of Prize-winning Perfection The Morning Free Street Pageant is a Gigantic, Glorious Revelation of ORIENTAL OPULANCE AND HISTORIC MILITARY DISPLAY.