Telling Reduction On The Bridge

Make Room for Holiday Goods

A positive reduction has been made on many of the lines on the bridge to make the necessary room for the immense holiday displays that will soon be in evidence in many sections of the Big Stores. The Bridge is the most desirable place to show Christmas goods. It is easy of access, splendidly lighted, roomy and is midway between the two stores. We cannot transform the Bridge into a Holiday showroom unless a quick reduction of present lines of Chinaware, etc., are made. Reducing prices is the best and speediest method to provide the wanted counter and shelf room. Everything offered might be termed staple, or the class of goods the housekeeper should have; the most desirable wares for the dining room and general home-furnishings ever sold at cut prices.
