CHESTER'S FLOWER SHOW.

The Event a Signal Success—A Pretty Home Wedding in the County-Per-

Specia to The Observer. Chester, Nov. 19.—The flower show given the armory for the benefit of the Free Rindergarten Association, was a signal success, both from a social and financial standpoint. Probably never before in Chester has there been such a magnificent array and great variety of beautiful flowers gathered in one place, all arranged with the most charming effect. The show was liberally patronized and the net proceeds for the association will amount to something over $75. A most pleasing feasomething over $75. A most pleasing fea-ture was the flower drill by six little win some maids, who were themselves like flowers in their dainty, fluffy paper dresses. The first prize for the largest and handsomest exhibit was awarded of Joseph A. Walker; second prize to Miss Rose Heyman and third to Mrs. C. C.

A pretty country marriage was that of Miss Anna Agnes Bigham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bigham, and Mr. Johr J. McDaniel, one of the county's most sub-stantial farmers, on Thursday afternoon last at the residence of the bride teat.
