

PROVISIONS FOR INSANE.

PROGRESSIVE STEPS ARE TAKEN.

Directors of the Two Hospitals Have a Conference at Raleigh—Republican Make a Gain of Two in General Assembly—The Cong. Fish Nuptials—Solemnized—Supreme Court Opinions—Arguments From Thirteenth District—New Enterprises Chartered—News Notes of the State Capital.

Observer Bureau, 17 West Cabarrus Street, Raleigh, Nov. 22.

There was a conference here to-day between directors of the Western Hospital for the Insane, at Morganton, and the Central Hospital, at Raleigh, during which the action of Superintendent McKee, of Raleigh, and Superintendent Murphy, of Morganton, last spring in exchanging patients so as to fill all beds in both the male and female wards was approved, and it was decided to make immediate application to the outside patients without legislative authority and ask the next General Assembly to make an appropriation that will increase the capacity of the hospitals on the basis of accommodating one patient for every 700 inhabitants of the State. J. B. Sawyer and I. I. Davis represented the Western Hospital and Dr. Stancil and Dr. Middleton, the Central Hospital in the conference. Dr. Murphy and Dr. McKee being also in attendance.

Fire was discovered in a bathroom under the west main stairway in the State Capitol about 1 o'clock, but it was extinguished before any serious damage was done. A quantity of waste paper that had been placed in the room by one of the laborers only was blamed for the blaze. The building is regarded as practically fire proof.

The Rose Manufacturing Company amends their charter so as to extend their business from the manufacture of truck and berry crates to that of the manufacture of furniture and the operation of saw mills and other enterprises. W. H. Foushee, president of the charter in issued to the Carolina Investment Company, of Scotland Neck, with $100,000 capital authorized and $37,000 subscribed. G. R. LeRoy, R. J. Cobb being the principal incorporators.

DIFFERENCES IN VANCE.

Hon. J. Y. Joyner, Superintendent of Public Instruction, went to Henderson this morning to adjust some differences that have arisen between the county school authorities of Vance. The nature of the trouble is not given out.

H. P. Head, a white man, was brought to the county jail this morning on a charge of murder in the second degree. He was brought here by Deputy Sheriff Lambeth.

Col. W. C. Rodman was here to-day to confer with the county board of health regarding a proposition he has to State agent for swamp lands for the sale of unimproved tracts whose plans he says it carried out mean a great deal for the eastern section in which they propose to operate if their proposition is accepted by the board. He declines as yet to make public the parties or their proposition.

Pledges and cash amounting to $1,000 were raised in the First Presbyterian church this city Sunday evening.

GRAY-FISH NUPTIALS.

This morning at 10:15 o'clock Miss Lilly Gray was married to Mr. Chas. Fish, of New York, by the ceremony being in Christ church, by the rector, Dr. M. Marshall. The maid of honor was Miss Caro Gray, sister of the bride and the best man, Mr. Chas. M. H. MacRae, of Fayetteville; Mr. C. B. Crowell, Mr. W. S. Wilson and Mr. Robert Gray, of this city. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns and chrysanthemums. The wedding was one of the most fashionable of the season, Miss Gray being popular in social circles throughout the State. She is a daughter of Mr. R. T. Gray, of this city. The groom was for two years a member of the faculty which includes the college here, but has been a resident of New York for the past three years, bridge architecture and contracting being his specialty.

A. M. Powell, mayor of Raleigh, has just issued his annual report of his stewardship as mayor of Raleigh, and in it he declares that he will not accept a renomination. He pronounces the dispensary here a decided success. He says drunkenness has financial returns are surpassing all expectations; that the city treasury will receive about three times as much revenue as formerly from the liquor business despite the fact that one half of the net receipts from the dispensary must go to the county school fund.

POOL WAS EMPTY.

There were three candidates for baptism to be immersed at the Tabernacle Baptist church Sunday night, but after the services of the evening, but after the ladies of the congregation had removed their hats and the candidates were ready the pastor started down into the pool. It was found that the sexton had carelessly allowed all the water to leak out and the pool was dry. This necessitated the postponement of the ordinance.

MERCHANT MARINE COMMISSION TO OFFER A BILL.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The merchant marine commission met at the Capitol to-day. Senators Gallinger and Lodge and Representatives Minor, McDermott and Spight being present. Under the law the commission is directed to make its report on the day Congress re-assembles, December 6th. The commission expects to make its report on that date, with recommendations and a bill. While it is not certain that the report will be unanimous, members of the commission express the hope that an agreement will be reached. It is stated that no attempt will be made to revise the Fry-Payne bill, providing for a system of subsidies.

Wreck on the Northwestern.

Observer Bureau, 1208 Main Street, Charlotte, S. C., Nov. 22.—A special to The State from Sumner, N. C., says that the Northwestern passenger train, bound from Sumner to Charlotte, was wrecked near Tindalla to-night. The engineer is reported to have been killed. The wreck occurred at Tindalla particulars are unobtainable. A wrecking train has been sent out from Florence.

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS.

The following Supreme Court opinions were handed down to-day: Tillery vs. Land, plaintiff, appeal from Nash, no error; Tillery vs. Land, "Taylor's appeal," from Nash, error; Tillery vs. Land, Land's appeal, from Nash, error; Daniels vs. Railroad, from Pitt, no error; Hedrick vs. Railroad, from Davidson, affirmed; Patterson vs. Ramsey, from Iredell, error; Lee vs. Railroad, from Mecklenburg, affirmed; Moore vs. Electric Railway, from Mecklenburg, error; Plumbing Company vs. Hall, from Mecklenburg, no error; Raynor vs. Liddell, from Mecklenburg, per curiam, affirmed; State vs. Billings, from Cabarrus, per curiam, no error; Alexander vs. Railroad, from Rockingham, per curiam, no error; Morrow vs. Railroad, from Gaston, per curiam, affirmed.

A SKELETON IN EVIDENCE.

SENSATION IN THE COURT ROOM.

Two Pieces of Skin From Young's Finger Also Brought in by the State—Evidence of a Man Patterson, and For a Time a Skeleton in Evidence—A Verge of Collapse—William Stemm, Jr., a Young Man Who Was Near the Star Witness of the Day—He Said Miss Patterson Looked as if She Wanted to Cry, but Could Not.

New York, Nov. 22.—Several unusual features were presented in the Supreme Court to-day in the trial of Nan Patterson for the alleged murder of Caesar Young. Frederick D. Michael, the counsel for the State, produced in evidence a skeleton which was shown to the jury. He said that he heard the sound of a pistol shot and that Miss Patterson opened the trap a moment later and told him to drive to a drug store, but that he did not look into the cab. He then told what occurred up to the time when he reached the hospital, where Young's body was taken.

MOB ATTACKS SALOON-KEEPER.

His Wife Fatally Shot One Man and Was Himself Injured—Ten Members of the Attacking Party Injured, About 500 Shots Being Fired.

Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 22.—The settlement across the Big Sandy river from Yorkville has been the scene of a local feud between the family of Jim Wallace and the family of the Currys. The Currys demanded liquor at Wallace's saloon last night, but were refused. It is alleged, they were already intoxicated. The Currys then began shooting, and Wallace closed his saloon. Wallace and his wife were shot in the head and the Currys fled. The Currys party again attacked Wallace's home, and Mrs. Wallace was shot in the head and the Currys fled. The Currys party again attacked Wallace's home, and Mrs. Wallace was shot in the head and the Currys fled.

NEGROES MOVED.

Alleged Murderers Taken From Lexington to Louisville—Ugly Feeling About the Negroes—Garfield Smith and John and Edward Taylor, colored, were to-day taken under heavy guard to Lexington Station, seven miles from Lexington, where they will be kept until the authorities believe it safe for them to appear for trial here.

STRIKERS UNDER ARREST.

Union Molders Charged With Murder and Other Lawlessness in Connection With the Strike—Cincinnati, Covington and Newport.

4 PER CENT. FOR CALL MONEY.

The Top Figure of the Year Reached in New York.

New York, Nov. 22.—The rate for call money, which opened at 2 1/2 per cent. this morning, advanced to 4 per cent. early this afternoon, a considerable amount being loaned at the high figure. The rate on the market to-day was the highest since the beginning of the year. Several reasons were advanced to account for the sudden rise. Among them is the fact that some of the banks yesterday called in loans with which to husband their resources, and other banks, which have right along been loaning large amounts on call, were not lenders to-day. Added to this is the coming bond sale by the city and the preparations to meet certain large corporate payments.

Left a Note Indicating That She Intended Committing Suicide.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 22.—"Good-bye, God will take care of me," wrote a young woman whose berth aboard the Old Dominion liner Princess Anne, was this morning discovered to have been unoccupied after she took passage from New York for Norfolk yesterday. The note had been seen since. On the paper in which she apparently bade farewell to her father and to life, was also written a request that her father, F. J. Henkel, be notified at 42 Crescent Street, Wakefield, Mass. Search was instituted this morning for the girl and in her state room was found her pathetic note.

Her Father a Large Property Owner.

Wakfield, Mass., Nov. 11.—It is believed here that the young woman who is supposed to have committed suicide from the steamer Princess Anne was the daughter of F. J. Henkel, of this town. Elizabeth Henkel, or Besse, as she was better known, was about 20 years old and was graduated from the Wakefield High School two years ago. Her father is connected with a piano factory here and is a large property owner. Mr. and Mrs. Henkel have not lived together for several years and the daughter divided her time between her father and mother. She visited this town a few weeks ago and then left for New York, where her mother resides. The girl possessed remarkable beauty.

Third Attempt Made to Blow Up a

Cincinnati, Nov. 22.—A third attempt to blow up the plant of the Newport, Ky., Brass and Iron Foundry with dynamite has been made, considerably damaged being done to one of the buildings. Dynamite was found in a mill at the Euclid Foundry to-day. Soon afterwards warrants were issued for the arrest of Edward Potbury, a local man, and for his father, and for Joseph Hollowell.

PROMINENT MAN, THE SLAYER.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

DUTY OF THE INDIVIDUAL.

In Introducing Rev. Charles Wagner, the Lecturer, to a Washington Audience, Mr. Roosevelt Cites the Action of a Washington Liveryman and a Negro Congressman with a Practical Application of the Lecturer's Teachings—How Poverty and Suffering May Be Relieved.

Washington, Nov. 22.—President Roosevelt introduced the Rev. Charles Wagner, the lecturer, to a large audience at the LaFayette Opera House this evening, where, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, he delivered a lecture on "The Simple Life." Given in the presence of a number of well-known officials and society people, the audience which gathered to hear the author was a national representative one of the nation's capital.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

HUNTING HER LOVER.

A Russian War Nurse Allows Chinese Bandits to Capture Her and Take Her Into the Japanese Lines.

Chefoo, Nov. 22.—A romantic story developed around Miss Correlle, the Russian war nurse, who is on her way to Japan. She refuses to talk, but a reliable authority says her capture by the Chinese bandits, who took her into the Japanese lines, was part of her scheme to find her lover. The first reports said Miss Correlle had voluntarily entered the Japanese lines. This now seems to be incorrect. Miss Correlle, it is now said, was a nurse during the Boxer rebellion, and won the Stanislaus medal. During that war she was wounded in the arm and received the St. George medal, because she continued to work when her wound was dressed. She is a remarkably handsome woman, 21 years of age, and a young Russian officer fell in love with her, and she reciprocated his affection fully.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

CAROLINA IN GOOD TRIM.

TAR HEELS' FINAL PRACTICE.

Intense Interest Centers in the Grid-Iron Battle for the Championship of the South at Richmond To-Day—Society to Lead an Additional Charge to the Game—Captain Stewart Says He Feels in His Slings for Football—Many Rooters Going From Chapel Hill—The Probable Line-Up, Special to The Observer.

NEGROES MOVED.

The President spoke a few words concerning the attack on the Y. M. C. A. as trying to bring about what is expressed in the phrase, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." He then proceeded to discuss the attitude of the United States toward the colored people of the world.

Wm. H. Slaughter, a Coal Merchant of Louisville, Strikes a Dairyman, Causing Instant Death—The Trouble Brought About by a Fight Over a Debt of $15, Which the Dead Man Owed—Slaughter Goes to Jail, Accompanied by His Wife, Whom He Married a Year Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Frederick Sanders, a dairyman, was killed to-day by William H. Slaughter, Jr., a coal merchant and one of the best known men in Louisville. The men had an argument over a debt and Slaughter struck Sanders with such force as to dislocate the man's neck, death resulting instantly. Slaughter surrendered. Sanders was 55 years of age. The trouble rose over an amount of $15 which Sanders owed Mr. Slaughter for rent.

NEGROES MOVED.