War-Scarred Union Generals Defy Disease and Old Age

General Melbourne and Major-General Hamilton, Past 88 Years of Age,

Beloved and Honored Veterans of the Civil War. Tell How They Overcame Wounds and Disease and Keep Vigorous and Healthy in Old Age, by Use of Duffy's Pure lalt Whiskey.

Among survivors of the great war for the preservation of the Union, none are more distinguished for conspicuous courage and gallantry on the field of battle than Gen. W. F. Melbourne and Major-Gen. Alexander Hamfiton, grandson of the great American patriot and signer of the Declaration of Independence. Like thousands who find themselves growing weak and infirm through sickness or old age they sought vigor and health in Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, the great tonictimulant and health builder.

Gen. W. P. MELBOURNE, Cured of Indigestion and Stemach Trouble

by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.
"I am a veteran of the war with Mexico, the expedition for the suppression of the Free State in Kansas in 1856, and the Mormon rebellion in 1857. I have fought the Indians for years, served through the Civil War, and was in the war with Spain. Despite it all, I am thankful to say I have enjoyed health until a few months is all, I am thankful to say I have enjoyed health until a few months ago, when I suffered a severe attack of stomach trouble, dyspepsia and indigestion.
