

IN THE HOTEL LOBBIES.

Last night was Republican night at the hotel lobbies. The Federal Court...

Mr. E. D. C. Oliver, of Baltimore, who has several times sung in Charlotte churches...

"This is an actual fact," said he. "A Fayetteville man sent his wife to New York to do her shopping. Pretty soon she wrote him 'I am tired to death of all this and want to get home. In the morning I will go down and have my kimono cut out.'"

"Her husband wired her: 'Delay the operation. Leaving by next train.' A Lynchburg lady continued Mr. Oliver, 'told her brother-in-law to get her some dollies. He went to a millinery store and asked for them.'"

"What size?" inquired the female clerk. "She's about your size," ventured the brother-in-law. "Oh, that makes no difference," said the clerk. "What size do you want?"

"Blame it all," cried the brother-in-law, breaking for the door. "I'll let her order her own dress goods!"

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Raspberry, Strawberry, Chocolate and Cherry. Get a package at your grocers to-day. 10 cts.

FOR SALE MY NEW DISTILLERY

This distillery was built and started in operation last February, surveyed capacity 38 bushels, 13 chambered Cantinears still; will work 150 bushels per day; all new; now in operation daily in Salisbury, N. C. I mean business; will include teams and connections. Reason for offering to sell is my health. Bargain to purchaser.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Chasmar-King Supply Company, the following named new directors were added: Messrs. Charles N. Evans, and W. F. Dowd, of Charlotte, and Mr. Sego Myers, of Savannah, Ga.

GRAND PRIZES AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—The highest honors have been awarded to The N. K. Fairbank Company, of Chicago, for all of its products shown at the St. Louis Exposition—viz.: The GRAND PRIZE for Gold Dust Washing Powder, Fairy Soap, Glycerine Tar Soap, Scouring Soap, Santa Claus and Clarette Laundry Soap, comprising the beautiful display in the Liberal Arts Building of which the novel "Fairy Soap Bubble Fountain" was a striking feature.

MR. WILSON'S OBITUARY.

Mr. John Rice Wilson, who died at Richmond, Va., a few days ago, had about as many friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications. He was taken sick on Thanksgiving Day, and his malady rapidly developed the most alarming symptoms.

During his sickness Mr. Wilson was most tenderly cared for by his family and two trained nurses at his home, No. 312 1/2 South street, but late yesterday afternoon, as a last resort, it was deemed advisable to remove him to the hospital to undergo an operation. It was then too late, however, to save him.

Mr. Wilson was well known, both in the social and business world of Richmond, and counted his friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

MARRIAGE LAST NIGHT.

Mrs. M. S. Richardson and Dr. R. S. Utley United at the Buford Hotel in the Presence of a-Few Friends, Rev. L. D. Noel Officiating.

In the presence of a few friends, Mrs. M. S. Richardson, of Clinton, and Dr. R. S. Utley, of Holly Springs, Wake county, were married in the parlors of the Buford Hotel last evening at 8:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. D. Noel, pastor of East-side Presbyterian church. The couple left on the Seaboard at 7:25 o'clock for Dr. Utley's home at Holly Springs.

Mrs. Richardson has been spending several days in the city as the guest of her son, Mr. Don Amos Richardson, coming here from Florida, where she had been spending some time. Dr. Utley arrived in the city Sunday night and registered at the Buford Hotel, in company with a prominent local physician Dr. Utley went to the office of the register of deeds yesterday morning and procured license. This was the first intimation the majority of their friends had, though a few were aware of the approaching event from the first. Dr. Utley is 61 years of age and one of the best known physicians of Wake county as well as being a man of considerable means. Mrs. Richardson made many friends during her stay here, who wish the newly married couple all happiness.

Those who were present at the ceremony were: Dr. and Mrs. I. W. Faison, Mrs. Harvey Lambeth, Col. and Mrs. H. C. Eccles, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bryan and Miss Flora Bryan, Prof. R. L. Keesler, Mr. J. H. Craighill, Miss Clara Sims, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jordan, and Mr. D. Amos Richardson.

At the entrance of the bridal couple, Prof. Keesler rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march on the piano. The attendants were Mr. Richardson and Dr. Faison.

Death of Little Ernest Porter Gilchrist. Ernest Porter, the two-and-a-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Gilchrist, died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of his parents in Dilworth. The immediate cause of the little fellow's death was pneumonia. He had been suffering for a few days with a bad cold. Saturday it developed into pneumonia and despite every attention, death came.

The funeral services will be held at the home this morning at 11 o'clock, by George L. Layburn. The interment will be in Elmwood.

A Sundry Marriage. Friends were surprised yesterday to hear of the marriage the day before of Miss Lander Marks and Mr. J. Howard Jones, at the home of Mr. G. F. Duke, on East Seventh street. The young couple decided on marriage Saturday night and were quietly married Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. G. W. Belk officiating.

Mr. Jones is a native of Lexington, and holds a position with W. T. McCoy & Co., on South Tryon street. Miss Marks is a daughter of Mr. Stephen Marks, of Steele Creek township, and has recently made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Duke. The young couple are at home at No. 304 South College street.

Funeral of Mrs. Glover. The funeral of Mrs. Laura A. Glover was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the home, No. 400 East Ninth street. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. J. R. Coady, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The interment was in Elmwood. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. George E. Wilson, P. M. Brown, E. C. Saxon, M. E. Speer, E. T. Coady, Archibald Graham, J. H. McClintock and Dr. J. Robertson.

New Directors. At a meeting of the stockholders of the Chasmar-King Supply Company, the following named new directors were added: Messrs. Charles N. Evans, and W. F. Dowd, of Charlotte, and Mr. Sego Myers, of Savannah, Ga.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—The highest honors have been awarded to The N. K. Fairbank Company, of Chicago, for all of its products shown at the St. Louis Exposition—viz.: The GRAND PRIZE for Gold Dust Washing Powder, Fairy Soap, Glycerine Tar Soap, Scouring Soap, Santa Claus and Clarette Laundry Soap, comprising the beautiful display in the Liberal Arts Building of which the novel "Fairy Soap Bubble Fountain" was a striking feature.

Also the GRAND PRIZE for its "Cottolene" exhibit in the Palace of Agriculture, including the famous "Boar's Head" brand of Lard Compound. "Cottolene" was further conspicuously honored with a GRAND PRIZE for cakes, confectionery and other choice viands prepared with it and served in the Model Kitchen.

These awards, the highest in the power of the jury of experts to bestow, add lustre to the already brilliant reputation of the Fairbank products and mark them as pre-eminent in their several classes.

VIOLETS

By I. E. AVERY Hand-painted, with Photo of the Author—an ideal Christmas remembrance Unframed - $1.00. Framed $1.50, $2 and $3.00.

Stone & Barringer Co. Mrs. Joe Person's REMEDY

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Raspberry, Strawberry, Chocolate and Cherry. Get a package at your grocers to-day. 10 cts.

FOR SALE MY NEW DISTILLERY

This distillery was built and started in operation last February, surveyed capacity 38 bushels, 13 chambered Cantinears still; will work 150 bushels per day; all new; now in operation daily in Salisbury, N. C. I mean business; will include teams and connections. Reason for offering to sell is my health. Bargain to purchaser.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Chasmar-King Supply Company, the following named new directors were added: Messrs. Charles N. Evans, and W. F. Dowd, of Charlotte, and Mr. Sego Myers, of Savannah, Ga.

GRAND PRIZES AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—The highest honors have been awarded to The N. K. Fairbank Company, of Chicago, for all of its products shown at the St. Louis Exposition—viz.: The GRAND PRIZE for Gold Dust Washing Powder, Fairy Soap, Glycerine Tar Soap, Scouring Soap, Santa Claus and Clarette Laundry Soap, comprising the beautiful display in the Liberal Arts Building of which the novel "Fairy Soap Bubble Fountain" was a striking feature.

MR. WILSON'S OBITUARY.

Mr. John Rice Wilson, who died at Richmond, Va., a few days ago, had about as many friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

MARRIAGE LAST NIGHT.

Mrs. M. S. Richardson and Dr. R. S. Utley United at the Buford Hotel in the Presence of a-Few Friends, Rev. L. D. Noel Officiating.

In the presence of a few friends, Mrs. M. S. Richardson, of Clinton, and Dr. R. S. Utley, of Holly Springs, Wake county, were married in the parlors of the Buford Hotel last evening at 8:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. D. Noel, pastor of East-side Presbyterian church. The couple left on the Seaboard at 7:25 o'clock for Dr. Utley's home at Holly Springs.

Mrs. Richardson has been spending several days in the city as the guest of her son, Mr. Don Amos Richardson, coming here from Florida, where she had been spending some time. Dr. Utley arrived in the city Sunday night and registered at the Buford Hotel, in company with a prominent local physician Dr. Utley went to the office of the register of deeds yesterday morning and procured license. This was the first intimation the majority of their friends had, though a few were aware of the approaching event from the first. Dr. Utley is 61 years of age and one of the best known physicians of Wake county as well as being a man of considerable means. Mrs. Richardson made many friends during her stay here, who wish the newly married couple all happiness.

Those who were present at the ceremony were: Dr. and Mrs. I. W. Faison, Mrs. Harvey Lambeth, Col. and Mrs. H. C. Eccles, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bryan and Miss Flora Bryan, Prof. R. L. Keesler, Mr. J. H. Craighill, Miss Clara Sims, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jordan, and Mr. D. Amos Richardson.

At the entrance of the bridal couple, Prof. Keesler rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march on the piano. The attendants were Mr. Richardson and Dr. Faison.

Death of Little Ernest Porter Gilchrist. Ernest Porter, the two-and-a-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Gilchrist, died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of his parents in Dilworth. The immediate cause of the little fellow's death was pneumonia. He had been suffering for a few days with a bad cold. Saturday it developed into pneumonia and despite every attention, death came.

The funeral services will be held at the home this morning at 11 o'clock, by George L. Layburn. The interment will be in Elmwood.

SANTA CLAUS Has been known to hold people up—people who will buy Christmas presents for a man at a woman's store. Smoking Jackets, Lounging Robes, Bath Robes, Cravats, Suspenders in individual boxes, Handkerchiefs, Gloves. Traveling Bags, Dress Suit Cases, Hat Boxes and other useful things made to suit a man's taste are here. ED. MELLON CO. YOU CAN SHOP HERE BY MAIL.

OUR AIM Is to give man best Clothing money will buy. Our this season's magnificent mobilization of Men's Stylish Tailored Clothing has wedded many men from the old custom of paying the tailor two prices. Buying Ready-to-Wear Apparel is no longer an experiment with the man who has worn Suits and Overcoats bought at this establishment. Every garment is found as represented; the tailoring exceptionally well executed; the cut a perfect representation of the adopted fashions for winter 1904-05. You can't beat the prices, and we doubt if you can do as well considering quality. Long-Tate Clothing Co. GOODS SENT ON APPROVAL. EXPRESS CHARGES PAID ONE WAY.

FURNITURE OUR SUPERB DISPLAY OF HOLIDAY FURNITURE is now COMPLETE We eclipse any showing we have ever made before. You will find bargains here in endless variety. Your wants can be supplied in all kinds of Furniture and Carpets from the cheapest to the best. Do not put it off but come and look over our stock at once. We will deliver at your own time. Parker-Gardner Co

A SOUTHERN PACIFIC GREETING Oh! how lovely it is to ride In a palace car so dignified. Lounging around in luxurious ease. Building castles as you please, Unmolested; no fumes to choke, Rain of cinders, or grime of smoke; Nowadays people appreciate Every comfort, small and great. Reason compels you to understand SOUTHERN PACIFIC is best in the land. To Louisiana, Texas, Mexico and California. Special Homeseekers' rates to Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico and Arizona in December. Information cheerfully given. J. F. VAN HENSSELAER, General Agent, 13 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Ga.

The Southern Loan and Savings Bank is the place to deposit your savings. We pay 4 per cent compound interest on deposits and do not require notice for withdrawal. P. M. BROWN, President. W. S. ALEXANDER, Vice President. J. F. HAYWOOD, JR., Cashier.

LIBRARY VOTING TICKETS One of our nice Carving Sets would be appropriate for a wedding or Christmas present. It will pay you to buy here. J. N. McCausland & Co SOUTH TRYON STREET

CHRISTMAS Handkerchiefs Our assortment of Handkerchiefs are now ready and the values we offer are bound to make this store, as heretofore Christmas headquarters for Fine Handkerchiefs. It is a well known fact that here you will find Charlotte's largest Handkerchief Department, where not only the largest and newest assortment is shown but where day in and day out the lowest prices are quoted. Select them now while assortments are complete. THE TATE-BROWN CO. Headquarters for Useful Christmas Presents.

Parlor and Library Tables FOR XMAS GIFTS A parlor or library table would make a most acceptable gift from husband to wife. We are displaying the handsomest and most desirable goods of the kind obtainable in Charlotte at the prices. Golden oak centre table, 75c to $22.00; weathered oak, imitation mahogany, solid mahogany, bird's-eye maple and curly birch tables at very low prices. Golden oak, weathered oak and mahogany library tables, $12.50 to $45.00. See our special values in Colonial style mahogany tables, $12.50 to $45.00; $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00. Vote here for the $1.00 library. W. T. McCOY, 201 N. Tryon St.

MR. WILSON'S OBITUARY.

Mr. John Rice Wilson, who died at Richmond, Va., a few days ago, had about as many friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

During his sickness Mr. Wilson was most tenderly cared for by his family and two trained nurses at his home, No. 312 1/2 South street, but late yesterday afternoon, as a last resort, it was deemed advisable to remove him to the hospital to undergo an operation. It was then too late, however, to save him.

Mr. Wilson was well known, both in the social and business world of Richmond, and counted his friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

During his sickness Mr. Wilson was most tenderly cared for by his family and two trained nurses at his home, No. 312 1/2 South street, but late yesterday afternoon, as a last resort, it was deemed advisable to remove him to the hospital to undergo an operation. It was then too late, however, to save him.

Mr. Wilson was well known, both in the social and business world of Richmond, and counted his friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

During his sickness Mr. Wilson was most tenderly cared for by his family and two trained nurses at his home, No. 312 1/2 South street, but late yesterday afternoon, as a last resort, it was deemed advisable to remove him to the hospital to undergo an operation. It was then too late, however, to save him.

Mr. Wilson was well known, both in the social and business world of Richmond, and counted his friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

During his sickness Mr. Wilson was most tenderly cared for by his family and two trained nurses at his home, No. 312 1/2 South street, but late yesterday afternoon, as a last resort, it was deemed advisable to remove him to the hospital to undergo an operation. It was then too late, however, to save him.

Mr. Wilson was well known, both in the social and business world of Richmond, and counted his friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

During his sickness Mr. Wilson was most tenderly cared for by his family and two trained nurses at his home, No. 312 1/2 South street, but late yesterday afternoon, as a last resort, it was deemed advisable to remove him to the hospital to undergo an operation. It was then too late, however, to save him.

Mr. Wilson was well known, both in the social and business world of Richmond, and counted his friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

During his sickness Mr. Wilson was most tenderly cared for by his family and two trained nurses at his home, No. 312 1/2 South street, but late yesterday afternoon, as a last resort, it was deemed advisable to remove him to the hospital to undergo an operation. It was then too late, however, to save him.

Mr. Wilson was well known, both in the social and business world of Richmond, and counted his friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.

During his sickness Mr. Wilson was most tenderly cared for by his family and two trained nurses at his home, No. 312 1/2 South street, but late yesterday afternoon, as a last resort, it was deemed advisable to remove him to the hospital to undergo an operation. It was then too late, however, to save him.

Mr. Wilson was well known, both in the social and business world of Richmond, and counted his friends in Charlotte as in his home, so that the following from a Richmond paper will be of interest: Mr. John Rice Wilson died at the Memorial Hospital, last night at 8:30 o'clock, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever and consequent complications.