Mr. Trevenick was a son of the late Nicholas Trevenick, who came to this country from England several years before the war. At the age of 16, he entered the Confederate States Army as a member of Company C. of the First North Carolina cavalry. Two brothers accompanied him and be-longed to the same company. Nicholas Trevenick was noted for his col-dierly qualities and served throughout the four-years conflict with signal bravery. Both of his brothers lost their lives in battle and he himself was several times founded.

A Masquerade Dance. Correspondence of The Observer. Huntersville, Jan. 5.--A very enjoyable masquerade dance was given at the hospitable home of Mrs. and Mrs. Albert McCoy, on Long Creek, New Year's night. In the dimly lighted parlor the gentlemen awaited the ap-pearance of the ladies. A card on which was written the name of the person represented was given each boy. When the ladies entered the gentleman claimed the hand of the lady whom his card represented for the first dance. They went into the dining room, which had been waxed, music was started, and dancing be-gan. This continued until the wes sma' hours of the night, when delight-ful refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Della Wilson, Joan of Arc; Esther McCoy, ghost; Ella Potts, Pocahontas; Alice McCoy, colonial dame; Eila Heymond, gypsy; Elizabeth MoCoy, Red Cross nurse; Mrs. A. M. Henderson, summer girl; Messra. Caldwell, Carpenter, Taylor, of Davidson; Len Alexander and John Wilson, of Charlotte; Marion Farrow, Mac Henderson and John McCoy.
