Prof. Hayes, superintendent of the cidsville Seminary and county superent of public instruction, was inlited to address the meeting. He said he had, by conversing with the people of Caswell, found they were eager for outlet and was sure that the time for action had arrived. If Reidsvilla not co-operate with these citizens n building a road of some kind, Danile will, and the products of the rich farms in Caswell will find a market in the Virginia city. He suggested that mittee be appointed to make a spectus of the plan which it deemst feasible and that a contrition for the expenses of said committee should be taken. CASWELL COUNTY'S GREAT RE-

Mr. P. B. Johnston said that Caswell county was full of enterprising, ssive business men who desire outlet. They prefer to co-operate with their sister county's people, he but if we were not willing to join hands with them, others were, ade a review of the natural resources er and tobacco. It was the wealthcounty in this section of the country. Jones' Plans.

Mr. Charles W. Jones, whose real estate office is located on East Fourth at reet, is deeply interested in the lands of the Southwest, believing That the future has much in store for them. Some time ago, while in Texas, he secured options on three large sections of land in the fertile pan-handle district. One of these, consisting of IT. 709 acres, is located in Swisher county, south of Amarillo, and is said to be one of the finest pieces of property in all the Southwest. It is of extraordinary fertility, black, loamy, and most productive, Being a portion of the great cattle range of Texas, it is especially adapted to the growing of feed crops, such as alfalfa and the like.
