

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Julius Leibel entertained at bridge yesterday afternoon in honor of Madame J. R. Gaultier. Madame Gaultier was the guest for luncheon and Mrs. Conway the wife for points. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Leibel's hospitality were the following named ladies: Madames J. H. Hines, Gaultier, W. Conway, C. F. Wadsworth, H. A. London, Jr., J. P. Wilson, D. A. Burley, D. H. McCollough, Misses Mabel Weaver, Edna Hinesinger and Georgia Love.

A wedding in which a large number of Charlotte people will be interested will be that of Savannah, Ga. Misses Young and Miss Marion McLean. Mr. Young is a native of Charlotte who has been engaged in business in Savannah during the past few years. Mrs. Young is the daughter of Mr. Young and Mrs. Dolph Young, the mother and sister and brother respectively of Mr. Young, will attend the wedding.

Mrs. Wick of Selma is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alexander Martin, at Dilworth.

Madame Robbessau has given up her rooms and will live with her daughter, Mrs. A. D. McLennan, at No. 1218 South Tryon street.

Miss Belle Torrence of Mount Pleasant, arrived in the city last night and will spend some time with her father, Mr. C. L. Torrence, on West Trade street.

The literary societies of Elizabeth College will give their annual reception the evening of Monday, the 13th instant.

Mrs. Julius M. Johnston returned home last night after a visit to relatives and friends in Arkansas.

Mrs. D. Caldwell, Jr. of Columbia, S. C., was the guest yesterday of Miss Edna McClure.

Mrs. E. C. Sexton, of Milwaukee, Wis., arrived in the city yesterday and is visiting her son, Mr. J. L. Sexton, at Dilworth.

Misses Pansy Blanton and Gladys Wray of Shelby, are guests of Mrs. G. B. Cabness.

Mrs. Anne J. Walker, who has just returned from New York, where she spent two months, is with her niece, Mrs. Osmond L. Barringer. She will remain here some time and then go West for a visit.

Miss Mabel Weaver, who came here for the Hurley-Jordan marriage, and remained to visit Miss Edna Hinesinger, left last night for her home in New York city. She was accompanied as far as Annapolis by Miss Hinesinger, who will attend "the hon'" there Monday.

Mrs. G. J. Holliday, of Florence, S. C., arrived in the city last night and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hagood.

Mrs. Minnie Wriston Smith, who landed in New York from abroad several days ago, is now the guest of Mrs. B. Russ Lee, in that city. She is expected to arrive in Charlotte shortly to visit relatives.

Mrs. Ellen Roberts, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keys, on North Caldwell street, leaves today for her home in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Farrior, former residents of Charlotte but now residents of Waynesville, passed through the city yesterday en route from Lynchburg, Va., to Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Farrior are expected to return in a few weeks and spend some time in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McNinch left yesterday morning for Concord to spend a few days. Later they will go to Salisbury, returning to Charlotte next week.

The Virginia Dare Book Club meets this afternoon at 4 o'clock with Miss Mary G. Graham, at her home at the corner of Brevard and Fifth streets.

The following cards have been received in the city:

The Philanthropic Euzation Literary Societies of Wake Forest College invite you to be present at the celebration of their 50th Anniversary on Friday, February sixteenth, nineteen hundred and six.

The Southern Manufacturers' Club entertained informally last evening in honor of the members and their friends. Prof. Don Amatt Richardson and his orchestra furnished delightful music. The program had been arranged with care and was a very elaborate one. The feature of the evening perhaps was the masterly manner in which Schumann's "Träumerei" was rendered by Prof. Richardson with his violin. Delicious refreshments were served which added much to the pleasures of the evening. It is probable that a series of similar informal receptions will be given during the spring.

Misses Louise and Willie Wakefield held a reception yesterday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, and in the evening from 8:30 to 11 o'clock in compliment to their guests, Misses Rebekah Glenn and Mary and Lella Harner. Many friends called during the afternoon and evening, and enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses. In the receiving party were: In the hall, Misses Harner, Orr, Mary Irwin, Julia Robertson and Louise Wakefield. In the parlor, Misses Wakefield, Glenn and Harner, at the punch bowl, Misses Jean Davis, Julia Smith, Marie Wheeler, Maud Harrell and Estelle Vernon; in the dining room, Misses Mary MacDougal, Anne Chapman, Mary Anderson, Nell Sarrett, Freda Dotger, Bessie Steere, Julia Irwin, Margaret Reese and Mary King.

COUNTY SOCIAL

Mr. Robert Williamson, of Leno, gave a social party to the young people of that neighborhood last night. The weather being fair the crowd was large and merry.

"The Faithfulness With Which Sin Keeps Its Record."

The Faithfulness With Which Sin Keeps Its Record, the subject of the address to be delivered by Col. John G. Clinch, professor of Mathematics at Wofford College, Spartanburg, at the Academy of Music Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

This service will be the seventh in the series being promoted by the Young Men's Christian Association and which are proving very successful.

Col. Clinch is one of the most popular speakers in South Carolina and the committee in charge feel that they are rendering a distinct service to the men of Spartanburg in having Col. Clinch deliver the address on Sunday afternoon.

These services are for all men whether connected with the Young Men's Christian Association or not.

POOR MANNERS

Visitor and Professional Traveler Discourse on Rudeness of the American Public.

"The traveling public is a very ill-mannered lot," said a visitor to the city yesterday. "I have been in every State and Territory, and in most of them more than once, and what I don't know of traveling and travelers is mighty little."

"The majority of passengers on the trains do not consider anybody else's comfort. This morning a big stranger hung his foot over the back of my seat right by my ear. I had the seat turned. My morning paper was lying by me where I had put it until I should be ready to read it in a few moments. The passenger across the aisle reached over and picked it up in a manner that admitted of no question, smiling, 'I guess you don't need it any more.'"

"The most common offense is the leaving open of windows. The wind blows and cinders do not strike the occupants of the adjacent seat, but those behind. In that case I merely make a spilt of a newspaper and I cough, but I have argued long since that argument doesn't pay, and I bear in patience whatever discomfort they give me, glad to be the sufferer rather than the offender. Just as soon as I see people begin to utter remarks that there are others and that mutual politeness makes life happier, they begin to cultivate manners. But till then they are hopeless."

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS.

Mr. John McDowell Arranges for Speakers for Township Clubs—Here These May Be Secured.

Mr. John McDowell, vice president of the Mecklenburg Cotton Growers' Association, and in the absence of President C. C. Moore, acting president, has arranged with a number of prominent citizens to have them make speeches at points all over the county whenever and wherever needed. He desires the announcement made that if any of the township clubs desire speakers at any of their meetings, they can secure them by dropping him a postal card.

The months of February and March are to be very important ones in the history of the Mecklenburg Cotton Growers' Association. The farmers are now thinking of their next year's crop and it is very important that they should keep in mind the principles advocated by the Southern Cotton Association.

Among those who have agreed to speak when called upon by Acting President McDowell, are Messrs. Cameron Morrison, W. M. Smith, McD. Watkins, Capt. S. B. Alexander, Dr. H. Q. Alexander, T. M. McConnell and B. T. Price.

IN THE CITY POLICE COURT.

Another Boozie Artist Whose Downfall Was Caused by Cider—The Usual Number of Tiggers Arraigned.

J. D. Weaver, a white man, took the first degree as member of the Unregenerated Federation of Boozie Artists, before Recorder F. M. Shannon-house yesterday morning. Weaver claimed that he had slipped up; he had indulged a little too freely in cider. After he had paid his initiation fee of $5 the recorder allowed him to go.

More than half of the cases in the city police court during the last three or four weeks have been for selling whiskey. The offenders yesterday morning were Will Jenkins and Ann Turner. Both were bound over to the Superior Court and sent to jail in default of bond.

Esell Foster was arrested by Patrolman Johnson yesterday morning just after he landed from an early train from Salisbury. Foster had in his possession about five gallons of bug juice. He will receive a hearing before the recorder this morning on the charge of selling booze.

Railroad Cases Continued.

By agreement between the counsel on either side, the case of the State vs. the Seaboard Air Line and Southern Railway, which has been set for Monday, the 12th instant, has been postponed until the next Monday, the 19th. The case is the result of the refusal of the railway to lower the bridges on North Graham street. The witnesses in the case are requested to attend court the latter day. The case was postponed on account of the death of Solicitor Heriot Clarkson to try the just cases and clear that institution as soon as possible.

Mr. T. W. Gibson General Manager.

An interesting meeting of the stockholders of the Long City Clothing Company was held in the office of the company Thursday. The reports submitted of the business of the past year, showed the condition of the concern to be satisfactory. Officers were elected as follows: Messrs. W. L. Long, president; John R. Pharr, vice president; W. A. McDonald, secretary and treasurer, and T. W. Gibson, general manager.

Funeral of Mr. J. Harvey Douglas This Morning.

The funeral of Mr. J. Harvey Douglas, who died Thursday, will take place at 10 o'clock, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, on the Statesville road, this morning at 10 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. A. R. Shaw, pastor of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church. The interment will be at the Sugar Creek cemetery.

A Defective Flue Responsible.

The city fire department was called out yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by a blaze at No. 10 South Brevard street. The roof had caught fire from a defective flue. The blaze was extinguished with the chemical apparatus before any considerable amount of damage was done. The loss amounted to only a few dollars. The house belongs to Mr. Thomas Shaw.

Back Again; Gone Again.

Mr. J. C. Abernethy, of the Observer, who returned Monday from Augusta, Ga., where he had been to help the Chronicle, of that city, get on its feet after its lock-out of union printers, left last evening for Jacksonville, Fla., to help break the strike on the Times-Union. He was accompanied by his wife, Mr. Abernethy is in danger of acquiring the reputation of a professional strike-breaker.

Many New Barber Shops in Charlotte.

Charlotte is well supplied with barber shops, remarked a well-known citizen to an Observer reporter yesterday. "Within the past several months quite a number of new ones have been started up in the city and they are good ones. The barbers are modern, and all well equipped with mirrors, and other up-to-date appliances. This fact is noteworthy and is, in a way, a sign of the times."

Academy Bookings.

The following shows have already been booked to appear in Charlotte in the near future: "Spanglers," James A. Neill, in "Monte Cristo," Adelaide Thurston, Lew Danks, of Minnesota, Marie Cahill, in "Milk and Honey," Her Kabelle, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," Alice Nelson, Opera Company, in "Don Pasquale," "Isle of Sables," and "The Murphy."

ENLARGE SUNDAY SCHOOL ROOM

The First Baptist Sunday School Room to be Remodeled—Floor Space to be Increased—Other Changes in Contemplation.

For the past several weeks, the architects have been busy with the plans for the remodeling of the First Baptist Sunday school room. For months it has been apparent that additional room was needed to accommodate the growing school. The present room was enlarged but a few years ago. It was then thought that sufficient floor space had been provided to meet all the demands that might arise for many years to come. Recently, the membership and attendance of the Sunday school has increased so fast that additional floor space has become an absolute necessity. Hence the decision reached some months ago to remodel the room.

The rear wall is to be pushed further back, and a balcony built in which are to be arranged several large class rooms, notably the Baraca and Philathea rooms. The rooms which are now occupied by these classes will be used by others and thus add much to the available space.

Behind the rostrum a choir loft is to be built in the wall. The platform then may be made smaller and devoted to the use of the superintendent and a few invited guests. When these changes are made the interior of the room will be considerably enlarged and double the space will be available for all the needs of the school.

In addition to the improvements which are being planned for the Sunday school room, there are many radical changes which are projected for the main auditorium of the church. This work will hardly be undertaken for some time, for the remodeling of the Sunday school room is to be attended to first. Sketches are being drawn outlining desirable changes in the church proper. All of these improvements when finished will represent an outlay of some $15,000.

A White Tigress Arrested.

Sergeant W. H. Pitts and Patrolman John Asbury last night arrested Centie Rollins, a white woman, on the charge of selling whiskey. The woman bears a rather striking resemblance to the first white tigress caught since the city went dry. Being unable to give bond, she was locked up to await trial this morning.

William Tobin and Thomas Miskell, two New York "tourists," were guests at the police station last night. They were not under arrest, merely spending the night in the comfortable cells.

Young J. W. Osborne Licensed.

There were 21 young men to pass the law examination on the 11th inst. in high last week and to these have been granted license to practice in North Carolina. Among the number was Mr. James W. Osborne, of Charlotte, who is a son of Mr. F. J. Osborne, and one of the most popular young men of this city. If heredity has anything to do with it young Jim Osborne will make a fine lawyer.
