Case of Hill vs. Atlantic & North Carolina Railway Co, to be Heav at Newbern To-Day — Judgmen Against Atlantic Coast Line

Special to The Observer.

Newbern, Feb. 12.-In Superior Court o-day Frank Abbott secured a judgment against the Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company for $2,000. 'Abboti is a young man who, on November 16, 1904, was thrown under a train of the defendant company by a negro, who has served a term in the penitentiary for his act. Abbott subsequently brought suit against the company, charging in the complaint that the train was exceeding the speed ordinance, going within the city limits at the rate of six miles an hour while the ordinance limits them to four miles. To-morrow the case of Hill vs. the Atlantic & North Carolina Rallway Company will be tried. Great interest will be taken in this case, as it is an attempt to annual the lease and put it back in the entire control of the State. The company's commission is are really the plaintiffs although the name of the plaintiff as it appears is a person not connected with that body at all. Several attorneys from Ruleigh and Goldsboro are in attendance on the suit.
