Mr. A. L. Funderburk, of Matthews, has purchased from the Seaboard one or two tanks of oil which was spilled in the wreck on that road a few days ago. It will be remembered that eight cars were ditched near Matthews. One or two were oil tanks and the contents were spilled, collecting in depressions in the ground. Mr. Funderburk sent a four-miule wagon to the city yesterday for a load of barrels. While the wagon was being loaded with empty barrels a citizen with a red nose, who was leaning against a telegraph pole, asked: "Gee! what're

Report Has It That Mr. C. H. Ackert is to Succeed President J. M. Barr. of the Scaboard Air Line.

The Northern financial journals have referred several times of late to the fact that Mr. James Skelton Williams and associates were purchasing large blocks of Seaboard Air Line stock. It has been intimated that the Williams faction is trying to secure the control of this great rallway system. The daily press chronicled the fact several days ago that the Williams syndicate had just obtained more than $2,000,-000 of stock by one deal.

The report is in circulation in railway circles that the Williams faction has practically secured the controlling interest in the Seaboard Air Line company. It is rumored that at the an-ingal meeting of the stockholders and directors which is to be held in the early summer, President J. M. Barr will be ousted and the position tendered Mr. C. H. Ackert, who is now fourth that have been held thus far, No man in Charlotte can afford to whe president of the Southern Railway Company. There are no material facts to substantiate the rumor and yet it is altogether possible.
