

WHITE HOUSE IN ITS GLORY

(Continued From Page One.)

A setting of fern and apparatus... The guests were... The ceremony was a vision of grandeur...

The ushers, who were in couples... separated as they reached the platform... The President passed through the two lines and presented his daughter to the waiting bride...

AN AUSPICIOUS MOMENT. It was one of the most auspicious moments in the history of the White House...

In low, yet resonant tones, Bishop Satterlee began. At the conclusion of the responses from the bride and groom, the venerable bishop inquired in a tone that filled the great room: "Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?"

The President of the United States ascended the platform and taking his daughter's right hand placed it in that of the bridegroom. Thus he gave the bride away to the man of her choice...

THE GREAT CROWD OUTSIDE. Thousands gathered about the White House... The crowd which gathered at the south gate to witness the arrival of the diplomatic corps was keenly disappointed to note that they did not appear in uniform...

MRS. ROOSEVELT WARMLY GREETED. A few minutes before noon Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by the members of her immediate family, descended the main staircase and under the escort of several military aides entered the East Room through the main doors...

MRS. MACVEAGH PAINTS. Shortly before 12 o'clock the hour set for the ceremony, Mrs. Wayne Macveagh, one of the guests in the East Room, pointed out a small conversation among the other guests...

MISS ALICE A DAINTY BRIDE. Proceeded by the ushers, the President and the dainty bride, resting her hand lightly on his arm, proceeded to the East Room...

GIPTS NUMEROUS AND COSTLY. Never was a bride so generously and lovingly remembered—The Groom's Gift, a Magnificent Necklace of selected Diamonds, the Most Valuable of All—A Partial List of Presents Made by Foreign Potentates and Some of the Individual Gifts...

has been permitted to view the bridal presents. For two days they were placed in the library at the second floor of the White House and not for a moment were they left unguarded. The gifts numbered nearly a thousand and it is known that all have not arrived. The display consists principally of jewelry and rare bric-a-brac. Among the many beautiful things received are some rare old lace and jewels from Mrs. Lee, the grandmother of the bride...

PARTIAL LIST OF PRESENTS. No list of presents was made public and no complete list that is even approximately accurate can be compiled; but among the hundreds received by Miss Roosevelt are the following: A magnificent gold and ivory made expressly for Miss Roosevelt. It is in shape long and narrow and portrays scenes renowned in the history of France...

Individual Gifts. Members of the President's cabinet presented individual gifts, but only a few of them are known. Secretary and Mrs. Taft presented a pair of elaborately chased silver table vases of American manufacture...

UNFORTUNATE ANNOUNCEMENT. While many of the presents received by the bride are very valuable, some of them being particularly so, by reason of the circumstances surrounding them the value of the gifts has been greatly exaggerated. So remarkable have some of the accounts of the presents been that their publication has brought to Miss Roosevelt an unfortunate annoyance. Her mails for many days have been flooded with letters from women and men in all parts of the country...

Big Contract Let. Immense Quantity of Stone to be Mined Near Spencer for Southern Railway—Water Works Nearing Completion. Correspondence of The Observer. Spencer, Feb. 16.—A meeting of the board of directors of the Spencer Water Company was held last night at which the municipal improvements now under way were discussed. It was ascertained that the mains of the Spencer Water Company are practically all under ground and the fire hydrants ready for the water. The huge water tower, with a capacity of 75,000 gallons exclusive of a large reservoir, being constructed by the Chicago Bridge and Iron Works, is nearing completion. The tower is 140 feet high and the water supply will be sufficient for all purposes...

Position in Philippines. Former Oxford Man Appointed to Assistant Attorney Generalship of the Islands—Personal and News Notes. Correspondence of The Observer. Oxford, Feb. 16.—An oyster supper was given last night by Capt. Brooks Parkham, the newly elected captain of the Granville Grays, complimentary to the members of the company. A number of invited guests were present, including all the old Confederates and veterans of the community. Gen. B. S. Royster was toast-master and proved a most excellent one. He introduced the speakers of the occasion, Capt. William Devin, Dr. B. K. Hays, Major William Landis, Col. H. J. Cooper, and others. The army was a scene of genuine humor...

Squeezed to Death. Callie Collins, of Rock Hill, Meets Death Between Two Cars at Blacksburg. Special to The Observer. Rock Hill, S. C., Feb. 17.—Callie Collins, the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Collins, of Blacksburg, Blacksburg last night from injuries received in an accident on the Southern Railroad. He was in the act of coupling two cars and, on account of the car being off the ground and completely off, the other car was pushed against him, squeezing him to death. He was not killed instantly but died a few hours later. The accident occurred near Blacksburg. The remains were brought to this city today. The interment will take place at Friendship Cemetery to-morrow. Mr. Collins was well thought of here and had the sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family...

College Exercises Suspended. Correspondence of The Observer. Gaffney, S. C., Feb. 16.—Exercises at Limestone College were suspended today in consequence of the death of Mr. Montgomery, who lost his wife in evening. Mr. Montgomery is president of the board of trustees of the college and both he and his father have done a great deal for Limestone. Relatives of Mrs. Montgomery were in the city today for Spartanburg to attend the last sad rites of the deceased lady. Injured in Fall From Engine. Correspondence of The Observer. Gaffney, S. C., Feb. 16.—Clay Wilson, of this city, was brought here today from Blacksburg where he was very painfully injured yesterday. He was engaged at his duties as fireman of an engine at the water tank there when he slipped from the top of an engine, striking his head on a box-car and otherwise suffering from a fall of about 20 feet. His injuries may prove serious. There will be two attractions at the Academy of Music this week. Adelaide Thurston, playing in "The Triumph of Betty," will appear Friday night. The Lyman Brothers, playing in "The Bluebird," will appear Saturday night.

AMUSEMENTS. Charlotte people will be glad to welcome the always clever Adelaide Thurston, who will appear at the Academy of Music Friday night in "The Triumph of Betty." Miss Thurston is a neat, winsome little actress and is much liked by the local theatre-going public. Her new play is said to be a clever production. Miss Marie Cahill, always clever, charming, bewitching, "cute," if you please, will come to Charlotte in the "Rustlers," which they are saying she will play to a capacity house. Miss Cahill is the only actress who ever received real, spontaneous applause from a Charlotte audience for singing coon songs. All Charlotte likes Tim Murphy and will be glad to learn that he will fill another engagement here before the close of the season. Mr. Murphy and Miss Sherrill are playing in a revival of "A Texas Steer," which affords fine opportunity for Murphy's dry, deliberate humor. A treat seldom offered the theatre-going public is in store for them when the famous comedians, "The Lyman Twin Brothers," are seen here in their wonderful musical comedy success, "The Rustlers," which they are appearing in this season and which is said to be one of the funniest and most elaborate productions of its class yet produced, comprising a large company of dainty chorists, pretty girls, a host of funny comedians, singers and dancers together with numerous novelties entirely new and original with this attraction. The pretty scenery, magnificent costumes, interestingly mingled with catchy music, sweet singing and a dazzling display of electrical effects, transforming the graceful dances into a blaze of wondrous splendor, carried along by side-splitting situations and a dandy make up of one of the greatest comedy productions of the day. The attraction has met with this success in the East by press and public has placed these clever young stars on the top round of popularity as comedians and producers. At the Academy Saturday night. Marie Cahill's best song in "Molly Moonshine," which will be seen here March 18, is called "Looking for My Ten." The authors of "Molly Moonshine" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester. The play is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE DEATH RECORD. Native Sons, Dies in Georgia. Correspondence of The Observer. Winston-Salem, Feb. 16.—The late Rev. Samuel Thomas Pfohl, of Salem, and brother of Messrs. C. T. and C. B. Pfohl and Mrs. C. L. Meinung, of this city, died at his home in Columbus, Ga., at the age of 71 years. The deceased is survived by a wife, four children, two brothers and one sister as above mentioned. Mr. Pfohl was a native of Salem, but had been living in Columbus 25 years. He was connected with the Southern Railway at Columbus until two years ago, when he was forced to retire from active business on account of failing health. The deceased, before going to Columbus and while a resident of Salem, was a clerk at the old Zevy Hotel and later was engaged in the mercantile business as a member of the firm of Pfohl & Laugel. The funeral and interment will be at Columbus to-morrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Henry Marshall. Correspondence of The Observer. Elkin, Feb. 16.—Mr. Henry Marshall died at his home, four miles south of Jonesville, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock aged 74 years. He had been in declining health for the past year and his death was not unexpected. He was one of the old landmarks of Yadkin county, all his life being spent in Knob's township. He was twice married, his first wife having died about 20 years ago. He leaves a wife and one daughter here and two sons and one daughter in Arkansas. His remains were interred today in the cemetery at Knob's church, the funeral ceremonies being conducted by Rev. G. M. Burman, of Elkin. Mrs. J. G. Wardlaw, of Barnwell, S. C. Correspondence of The Observer. Gaffney, S. C., Feb. 16.—The city was saddened today to learn of the death of her sister, Mrs. Crech, at Barnwell. Mrs. Wardlaw was stricken while on a visit to her sister over a week ago and has since hovered at the point of death. She died at 3 o'clock this morning. She had come about 3 o'clock this morning, which was held this afternoon. M. A. Walter, of Cabarrus. Correspondence of The Observer. Concord, Feb. 16.—Mr. Martin A. Walter, familiarly known generally as "Doc," died at his home this morning at 11 o'clock. He lived several miles south of the city. He had been in feeble health for some time but his death came suddenly and unexpectedly from a heart attack. He was practically at an end, and within a week or so receipts will run sharply below those of last year. The new crop is now coming upon the hands of the West and is remarkably favorable. It is well for our friends to remember that a strong dry goods situation is the best foundation for the West for a new cotton market. The world is now in a position which may threaten an insufficient supply for the new season would be sure to be quickly reflected in the spot market. To-day Liverpool advanced four points, new crop market against two points on the old crop simply because The Chronicle's weekly weather review reports that farm work is making slow progress on account of a wet day. The West is doing well, especially in the southwest. The fall and winter months are 60 points cheaper than the old crop, but any delay in getting the ground properly prepared or put in the seed, would operate to reduce this discount. The world needs a big crop next year, and nobody knows this better than the spinners, whose prosperity is phenomenal. The British manufacturer had in many years and yet we find exports of goods from Great Britain during the past month of January running 10 per cent greater than during the previous prosperous January. We strongly advise buying cotton on all soft spots during the coming week, feeling that a sharp advance is ahead. It is due to come 2 to 3 lower. MILLER & CO. Cow's Upper Teeth. Port Jervis Letter. Mrs. M. J. Moore, of New York, bought a house at Monticello, and fitted it up in fine style. She bought a horse, a cow and a cow. The cow was high bred and the horse was a champion. When Mrs. Moore went to New York recently for a short stay she left her brother in charge of the place. He fed the cow a hot mash on the recommendation of a neighbor, but she was astonished to find that she was pulling front teeth. Upon Mrs. Moore's return she was much incensed that her brother should have been fooled into feeding the cow the hot mash and destroying her cow. "You are a 'Bos-sy'!" she said, "how will she eat now?" She sold the cow and went about to find another. Much to her astonishment she found that every cow she saw had a hot mash in its teeth. "They must have had a hot mash in their teeth," she said. She told her troubles to-day to George Armstrong, a veterinary. "Why," Mr. Armstrong told her, "no horse pulls front teeth." Mrs. Moore bought Bos-sy back. College Exercises Suspended. Correspondence of The Observer. Gaffney, S. C., Feb. 16.—Exercises at Limestone College were suspended today in consequence of the death of Mr. Montgomery, who lost his wife in evening. Mr. Montgomery is president of the board of trustees of the college and both he and his father have done a great deal for Limestone. Relatives of Mrs. Montgomery were in the city today for Spartanburg to attend the last sad rites of the deceased lady. Injured in Fall From Engine. Correspondence of The Observer. Gaffney, S. C., Feb. 16.—Clay Wilson, of this city, was brought here today from Blacksburg where he was very painfully injured yesterday. He was engaged at his duties as fireman of an engine at the water tank there when he slipped from the top of an engine, striking his head on a box-car and otherwise suffering from a fall of about 20 feet. His injuries may prove serious. There will be two attractions at the Academy of Music this week. Adelaide Thurston, playing in "The Triumph of Betty," will appear Friday night. The Lyman Brothers, playing in "The Bluebird," will appear Saturday night.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

THE TRIUMPH OF BETTY. The new play which is being so successfully presented by dainty Adelaide Thurston this season, is generally stated to be a particularly happy blend of merit and sentiment. It is a comedy in four acts, by W. A. Tremayne and Irving L. Hall, differing entirely from most of the recent stage productions. The authors of "The Triumph of Betty" are George V. Hobart and Edwinton Milton Royl. The composer is Silvester.

MISS ALICE ROOSEVELT.

REPRESENTATIVE NICHOLAS LONGWORTH.