FREE ALCOHOL FOR THE ARTS.

The Journal of Commerce, of New York, has for some time been engaged in a determined fight to have the tax on denatured alcohol removed so that it can be more generally used in the arts

A Lincoln, Neb., dispatch says that "40 of the flower of Nebraska Democracy, including practically all of the State leaders save Mr. Bryan," participated in a dollar dinner there Tuesday night.

It is now up to these New York officials who were so anxious to get their hands on Judge Andrew Hamilton. He has returned from Paris.

With the Democrats making gains in Maine and the prohibitionists winning victories in Vermont, it looks as though New England might be on the way to better things—but there is no telling.

The movement for the 20th of May celebration starts off right. The spirit of the meeting last night was all that could be desired. The celebration is to be, undoubtedly, one of the greatest and best ever held in Charlotte.

The President has signed the joint resolution passed by Congress instructing the Inter-State commerce commission to make examination into the subject of railroad discriminations and monopolies in coal and oil, but in doing so he expresses doubt as to the results amounting to anything.

President Roosevelt and Postmaster General Cortelyou, the latter in the capacity of the national chairman, are said to have taken a hand in the Tennessee Republican wrangle and that as a result Hon. H. Clay Evans will have no opposition for the gubernatorial nomination.

The somewhat surprising news comes from Maine that in the elections Monday the Democrats made striking gains in several cities, Auburn and Rockland, heretofore Republican strongholds, were captured by the Democrats, who held their own in other towns. This is momentarily refreshing, but that is all; it won't do to bank on even as to next fall's off-year elections.

A Lincoln, Neb., dispatch says that "40 of the flower of Nebraska Democracy, including practically all of the State leaders save Mr. Bryan," participated in a dollar dinner there Tuesday night.

WHAT A DRUG FIEND WILL DO

William Garland, Son of Former Attorney General and the Author of "Two Books, a Wreck From Drink," Took Chop-Chop Whiskey Cure and Became a Recovered Man.

Out in Chicago the other day a man was arrested and lodged in the police station, charged with an attempt to break the show window of a large jewelry store for the purpose of stealing the trays of jewelry displayed therein.

He was to use as the force to break the window. He gave his name as William Garland, and claimed to be a son of A. H. Garland, attorney general under Grover Cleveland.

He was admitted to the bar and was a practicing lawyer, and married a sweet and amiable woman. Two children were born to them—and then trouble came because of whiskey.
