

THE LESSON FOR SUNDAY

THE FIRST QUARTERLY REVIEW

The Finding of Jesus as a General Topic for the three months just closing. The Wise Men, the Temple, the Sufferers, All Found Jesus and the Boy Jesus Found Himself—The Sermon on the Mount—Copyright by Davis W. Clark. The finding of Jesus might be taken as the general topic for all the lessons of the three months just closing. The scribes and pharisees found Him. Their very occupation led them to be reverent and contemplative. They were much obliged to the solemn stillness of the night and in the company of the heavenly planets. These scribes were not in communion with heaven at the very time of the Nativity. Prepared message came to prepared minds. There was an angelic apparition, announcement of Nativity and angelic anthem. The moral earnestness of the scribes was not in the exclamation, "Let us go and see."

ALL-NIGHT SERVICE

Davidson to Enjoy Continuous "Phone Connection With Outside World"—News Notes. Davidson, March 14.—Mr. Rayle, manager for the Bell Telephone Company at this place, has been authorized by headquarters to give the patrons of this office an all-night service. Heretofore the office had closed at 9 p. m. Now one can sit up and talk as late as he wishes. There will be a long-distance connection and Davidson can communicate with the outside world day and night to her heart's content. The new order gives very great satisfaction. The town is greatly interested in something definitely determined as to the way of new buildings to take the place of the old burned ones. The postoffice at present is in crowded quarters. All the mail has to be handed out by the window and windows and no boxes are visible. The present arrangement is the best that can be made under the circumstances, but to come down to this slow and tedious process of getting one's mail after the general public has enjoyed the latest combination locks is rather annoying. It is hoped that Mr. Frank Knox will soon see his way clear to rebuild with his own funds a new and more spacious and will put up two-story brick buildings like the bank block. It is a question whether the second floor can be rented to advantage, but appeals will be made to the owners' generosity and civic pride to risk this venture and give the town that much of a boost forward. Rev. William Black leaves Friday for Greenville, S. C. where he is to help Rev. Mr. Sloan in a meeting. His last work at Bethel, Hobson county, resulted in about 40 professions, nearly half of these having already joined the church. About $89 was raised for the synodical work.

Asheville's Crusade Against Bawdy Houses

Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, March 14.—The crusade against bawdy houses in Asheville, inaugurated last week, is being vigorously pushed by the police authorities and another chapter was written this morning when five persons were summoned to police court to answer the charge of renting houses to parties for immoral purposes. Those on whom warrants were served yesterday were Ida Lewis, Lizzie Sevier, John P. Foster and Moses Harrison. A warrant has also been issued for Sarah Jane Lytle but has not yet been served. The trial of the defendants was gone into this morning but was not concluded. Judge Jones continuing the cases until tomorrow morning.

TORTURE BY SAVAGES

Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the lungs. I say, "I say," because of Coughing, Mc. Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which cured me. Cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Blood Disorders and Catarrhs, and restores the system. Prepared by J. H. Jordan & Co., San Francisco, Cal.

CHARLOTTE FIRM WINS

Committee Recommends Plans of Hook & Rogers, of This City, for Winston-Salem's Masonic Temple—News Notes. Correspondence of The Observer. Winston-Salem, March 15.—The committee appointed to consider plans for the Masonic Temple, submitted by several architects, decided to favor those submitted by Hook & Rogers, of Charlotte, and will recommend these to the board of directors. The Masonic Temple is to be a handsome structure in every respect, and will be built at a cost of $75,000. It will be 85 by 90 feet and five and a half stories in height. There will be an up-to-date electric elevator conveniently located. The first story of the building will be of granite with 15 feet granite columns in front and inside. The exterior above this will be of gray or buff pressed brick with stone, terra cotta and metal trimmings. The main corridor of the building will be tiled. There will be ladies and gentlemen's toilet rooms on each floor. The top floors will be occupied by the Masonic rooms. The structure will be probably the handsomest and best appointed office building in the State. The Masonic Temple will be begun about June 1 and will probably be completed by the beginning of the year 1907.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Forsyth Medical Society, held in the Winston council chamber yesterday afternoon, Dr. Charles Roberson, of Greensboro, who was present by invitation, read an interesting and profitable paper on "Interrubation of Diptheria."

Dr. Roberson's views made a fine impression and his paper was freely discussed by members of the local society. A number of interesting clinical cases were presented by various members. Dr. E. F. Strickland, president of the society, appointed an essayist for the April meeting. Dr. J. P. Shannon, Jr. his subject being "Surgery" and Dr. T. M. Corple, who will read a paper on "Medicine." At the April meeting a representative from the Forsyth Society will be invited to read a paper on account of his father's death, which occurred some months ago. Sheriff B. Summers this afternoon received a wire from Governor Glenn directing him to hold Jones for the South Dakota authorities.

Two popular young people of Stateville proceeded to the A. R. P. church, and having the ceremony said by Rev. J. E. Preeley, which made them man and wife. The contracting parties were Miss Elois Walker, a very popular young lady and the efficient bookkeeper for the Sherrill Grocery Co., and Mr. M. E. Brawley, a well-known young man of Stateville and proprietor of a fancy grocery store here. While only a few of the friends of this couple knew of the marriage before hand, it had all been arranged and was the wish of the bride that it be conducted as it was. The bride and groom left to-night for a few days' visit to Gastonia, after which they will return to Stateville to make this their future home.

WAKE FOREST WON.

Trinity Loses in Fast and Pretty Game of Basket-Ball at Wake Forest. Correspondence of The Observer. Wake Forest, March 14.—A large crowd witnessed the basket ball game between Trinity and Wake Forest Colleges this afternoon. The work was the prettiest and fastest ever seen here. Both teams did excellent work but Wake Forest outplayed Trinity five to two. Coach and Ward, of Wake Forest played a fine game. Ward deserving special attention for good goal-throwing. Trinity threw only one goal from the floor. W. C. Cord, of Trinity, was the hero of the game. He brought a crowd of excellent young men. Great improvement was noticed in Trinity's playing over the previous game.

Hard Blow to Cocaine Sniffers.

Special to The Observer. Spartanburg, S. C., March 14.—The sniffers of cocaine in the city, of whom it is said there are a large number among the near by towns, have been dealt a heavy blow by a new ordinance passed by the city council prohibiting local druggists to offer the stuff for sale except on a physician's prescription. Druggists will, of course, manage by devious and sundry ways to obtain the stuff but the recent ordinance will curtail the practice of snuffing to a large extent.

Atlantic City Follows Asheville's Lead.

Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, March 14.—A committee of officials from Atlantic City is expected here tomorrow for the purpose of investigating Asheville's paving with a view to laying the same material on streets in Atlantic City. The Atlantic City delegation will probably remain here two or three days. The party will inspect the paving that has already been laid and also the streets which the Warren Brothers have under contract for improvement.

To Spend $100,000 on Street Paving.

Correspondence of The Observer. Spartanburg, S. C., March 14.—City Engineer Fred L. Bryant and Aldermen Liles, Barwell and Law have gone to Asheville to inspect the asphaltic paving which has been placed on a number of streets in that city. The council of Spartanburg will shortly award the contract for $100,000 worth of paving, but it has not been decided what materials shall be used. The visit of the officials to Asheville was for the purpose of ascertaining the success that has attended the use of bitulithic paving in that city.

New Store Houses for Durham.

Correspondence of The Observer. Durham, March 14.—Mr. R. H. Wright will soon give the contract for the erection of three three-story business houses on Main street. These contracts will make five three-story business houses and three four-story business houses at the corner of Main street during the summer months.

TWO BURNED TO DEATH.

Negro Children Cremated in Burning House Near Kings Mountain—Personal and News Notes.

Correspondence of The Observer. Kings Mountain, March 14.—Last night between 9 and 10 o'clock a distressing fire occurred near Crowder's Mountain, in which two little negroes two and four years old were cremated. Will Roberts and his wife were away from home attending a party. A 17-year-old boy was left with the four children. After they had been asleep for some time the boy discovered the house was afire and managed to get the two older children out. But the house was too far gone to rescue the smaller ones and they were literally cooked in the burning house. There is strong suspicion the house was set afire by a negro man, but no arrest has been made as yet. Mr. William Barrett and family left this morning for Fort Smith, Ark., where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Bennett sold his house and lot to Mr. J. W. Uren. W. A. Massey, Esq., is looking a woe over the fire. He is speaking over some timber lands with a view to purchasing one or two large tracts. Mr. Rhodes has begun work on his new cotton mill, south of town. It was called the Johns Manufacturing Company. Mr. Jim Uren is expected to arrive here this week to take his family to southern Georgia where he has purchased a large tract of timber and is erecting a saw mill. Dr. John F. Cannon, of St. Louis, is expected to spend next Sunday here with his sister, Mrs. R. B. Hunter.

NATIVE OF STATESVILLE.

C. A. Jones, Wanted in South Dakota on Forgery Charge, Was Reared in Irwell—A Surprise Marriage.

Correspondence of The Observer. Statesville, March 14.—C. A. Jones, the man arrested Monday in Florida by Deputy J. M. Deaton on a charge of committing forgery in South Dakota, was brought here to jail last night. Jones was raised in Irwell, S. C., here and is known by a great many people of this town. He denies having forged any checks and says the reason he left Irwell was to come home on account of his father's death, which occurred some months ago. Sheriff B. Summers this afternoon received a wire from Governor Glenn directing him to hold Jones for the South Dakota authorities. Two popular young people of Stateville surprised their friends this afternoon by proceeding to the A. R. P. church, and having the ceremony said by Rev. J. E. Preeley, which made them man and wife. Knicker—"What will become of their children?" They will be taken from the servants of the father and brought up by the servants of the mother.

A SAFE COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN. In buying a cough medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. It is especially valuable for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by R. H. Jordan & Co.

CHAMPION LINIMENT FOR RHEUMATISM. Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapelville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the store-keeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by R. H. Jordan & Co.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Caldwell Hoyle Brown, wife of Mr. A. H. Brown, of Charlotte, S. C., and a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Hoyle, of Matthews, was born July 21, 1819, and died January 18, 1906, at the home of her parents, where she had gone on a visit.

In a brief sketch it is not possible to mention all the graces and virtues that adorned the character of this loved one who has departed from us, but her peculiar and winning characteristics were energy, cheerfulness and enthusiasm. We create in a measure, our own sunshine and shadow, and with her happy disposition and hopeful view of life she carried with her wherever she went sunshine and joy. "A creature she was of cheerful yesterdays and confident to-morrows." Her humor was exquisite and refreshing. Her wit irresistible, for there was no malice in its arrows, no poisoned shafts. In her long and tedious illness no complaint, no murmur escaped her lips. Ever thoughtful of the comfort and feelings of her own sufferers in solicitude for them and would often speak encouragingly of the time when she would be well again. She desired to live not for herself, but for her loved ones. "Generous in nature, charitable as the air." The heart that so lately throbbled with love and life is still; the lips that lately moved in prayer for home and loved ones are mute; the eyes so wont to sparkle with humor and mirth, are closed; the hands so full of unselfish and gracious deeds are peacefully folded. This is what we see with mortal vision, but with the spiritual vision and the eyes of faith we penetrate beyond the shadows of the tomb, the scene is rolled away, and through those gates which were left ajar for us on that glorious Easter morn we see that firm clothed in spotless robes of righteousness; those lips singing the songs of the redeemed; those eyes, beholding the glories of that city whose streets are of gold and whose gates are precious stones, whose light is Christ. And in us left this benediction of a life "pure in its purpose and strong in its strife," so that we can say, "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you."

"To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die." We long for the "touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still," but grief will not be for the grief of one came all our good.

We can only accept it as a deep bereavement. Why one so young, with such bright future just opening before her, with such power to bless, should be so soon called up higher, is not for us to know, but we shall know hereafter. With bowed heads we kiss the sod and pray for light. May our Elder Brother, whose hand alone is soft enough to wipe away the tears of bereavement, bring up the blessed hearts of those loved ones upon whom the bereavement falls heaviest.
