The mission of the mayor of Charlotte has been altogether successful. This morning Mayor McNinch and Senator Simmons called at the War Department to take up the matter of the Twentieth of May celebration. At the conclusion of the conference Secretary Taft not only agreed to send the best cavalry troop stationed at Fort Meyer to Charlotte, but said he would send some infantry troops from Atlanta. The conference with Secretary Ronaparte, of the Navy Department. may likewise bear fruit. Secretary Bonaparte said he would take under advisement the request charto the Marine Band to lotte and he thought i thought it might be arranged. This is the famous band of which Lieutenant Santieman is the director, and which furnishes music for all the large White House social functions. Congressman Blackburn said today he expected to go to Greensboro to-morrow, but he now thinks he will return here soon for a short stay before going to the State to remain until after the trail. Senator Simmons will go to his home in the State Saturday for a short stay. POSTOFFICE CONTESTS NEAR-

ING END.

It begins to appear that, after all, the contests over the postoffices at Greeensboro and Goldsboro, where Blackburn men were nominated, may have an ending. At a meeting of the Senate postoffice committe Tom Carter, of Montana, brought to he attention of the committe the fact that these North Carolina appointments had never been confirmed, and said that he had been told that no further apparent reasons existed for failure to dispose of the cases one way or another. ator Simmons then supplemented this statement of the Montana Senator by telling how he had declined to have any further connection with the Goldsboro nomination after former Senator Marion Butler had asked him to hold matters the nomination up, on the ground that a delegation of citizens wished to come here to make some objection but had never put in appearance. Mr. Butler had made a similar request second time, but feeling that an injustice was being done Mr. Grant in holding his nomination up for two months without any charges to warrant such action, he had refused to comply with the request.
