MAJ. J. LEON TO LEAVE

Will Engage in Business in Wilmington—Family to Remain Here.

Maj. L. Leon, until recently connected with the Carolina Clothing Company, has purchased an interest in the junk business of Mr. H. Sternheimer, at Wilmington, and will hereafter make his home in the coast city. The style of the new firm, which will be one of the largest junk-handling concerns in the State, will probably be Leon & Sternheimer.

Maj. Leon has been identified with the business interest of Charlotte for more than a quarter of a century. He is a native of Germany and came to Charlotte in 1885. More recently he was connected with W. Kaufmann and the Carolina Clothing Company. He has many friends who will regret to see him leave the city.

Maj. Leon's family will remain in the city until fall.

Arrested for Embezzlement

F. E. Farrell, an experienced cotton mill operative, is occupying a cell at the city police station, awaiting the arrival of a Dillon, S. C., officer, who will take him to that town to answer to the charge of embezzlement. Farrell was given about $100 some time ago with which to move his family to Dillon, where he was to work at the Maple Mills, the management of which advanced the money. Farrell told an Observer reporter yesterday afternoon that he had been robbed of the money, but intended to pay it back. Patrolmen Christensbury and Earnhardt made the arrest.

The Law Can't Reach Him

Jim Belk, the negro hack driver at whose home two white women were found a few days ago, was arraigned in the city police court yesterday morning on the charge of keeping a disorderly house. There was no doubt from the evidence that Belk had been running such a house, but there is no law by which the defendant could be punished. The two women found at Belk's house were Bertha Gray and Stella Walker, two traveling demi-mondes.

SUBPOENAS GALORE

Squire W. D. Alexander Searching Out the Country Tigers.

Squire David W. Alexander, who holds forth down at the court house with Squire S. H. Hilton, is getting to be quite an ad testificandum artist. Learning that a section of Steele Creek township was being debauched as a result of the operations of a blind tiger he determined to get hold of the offender. Refilling his ink bottle and placing a new pen in his staff he began to issue subpoenas ad testificandum to such an extent that almost his entire time yesterday was consumed with examining witnesses.

As a result of operations of the magistrate two warrants were issued for Greek Moore, a colored citizen, charging him with selling liquor. He was bound over and sent to jail in default of a bond of $50 in each case.
