Winston-Salem, April 12.—The company has purchased the land from

Judge H. Starbuck for the shifting Judge H. R. Starbuck for the shifting yards of the Southern Railroad. The uite, which includes several acres, is located just southeast of the city, near the main line of the Southern Railway track to Greensboro. It is understood that the new road will enter the city under the Southern track. The Southbound will connect with the Norfolk & Western here. The contractors have two "squads" at work on the first section. One force is at work immediately west of Columbia Heights, about one mile southeast of the city, and the other about a half mile further on the east side of Happy Hill. The squad at Columbia Heights is working north toward the Southern Hailroad and is just beginning a cut. working north toward the Southern Italiroad and is just beginning a cut, which, for a considerable distance, will be 12 feet deep. The squad at Happy Hill is working south and east to Centerville. Salem Creek divides these two points. Across this creek will be constructed a trustle 73 feet high and 600 feet long. From Columbia Heights five tracks will extend north to the Southern railroad, a distance of fully one-fourth of a mile. distance of fully one-fourth of a mile. Supt. N. A. Lewis, who is in charge of the laborers, has been advised by Pru-den & Bennett, the contractors, that 50 or 65 mules with scrapes and an entire outfit would arrive to-day or to-morrow. Mr. Lewis states further that he is paying $1.25 per day for hands and is having no trouble in securing all he needs.

INDEPENDENT 'PHONE SYSTEM At a mass meeting of the citizens in the court house Tuesday night it was unanimously decided to put in a local telephone system in Statesville and to accept no offers of compromise or concessions from the Bell people. The meeting was well attended by business men and other citizens and it was clearly evident, from the remarks made, that the people are in earness in, this matter. Two hundred and sixteen persons, embracing farms, corporations, and a large number of citizens as well, have signed an agree-ment not to accept a Bell 'phone un-

The following resolution was offered: "The citizens in a mass meeting assembled do resolve, that we are unalterably opposed to the Bell Tele-phone Company owning the only telephone system in Statesville and Ire dell county; that we are unalterably opposed to any compromise by which they may obtain control of the only system here, and that Messrs. H. P. Grier, R. V. Brawley and Eugene Morrison be, and are hereby, authorized to apply for a franchise and charter, and that an independent telephone system be put in as soon as is possible to do so.' Wednesday afternoon the representatives of Mooresville and elsewhere met here with Statesville citizens. They reported that they were anxious to co-operate with an independent ex-Mooresville to Statesville. In a few days a stockholders meet-

Wrecked Schooner Libelled. Correspondence of The Observer. Wilmington, April 12.-The sails and other wreckage from the schoener Mary Tunnell, of Philadelphia, which recently went ashore and adrift on this coast, have been libelled by the owners of the tug Blanche, of the Wilmington, Southport & Little River Transportation Co. The tow boat owners claim as salvage seventy-five per cent. of the wreckage, which is valued at about $2,000. It was brought in by the United States revenue cutter Seminole and is now in the hands of the collector of the port.

Easter Doubles Express Business. "The Easter holidays have just doubled our business," said Mr. W. B. Hamilton, the clever local agent of the Southern Express Company, to an Observer reporter last night as he was directing his force at the Southern passenger station. "Every holiday greatly increases the amount of freight change here, and a proposition was we handle," he continued, "and of also made in regard to the line from course at Easter every college boy has to have his box of grub from home, every girl her box of flowers or new dress and bonnet, and this is accountable for no small part of the increase. Then quite a number of people take advantage of Easter to give presents, mostly to relatives."
