

FATAL COAL STRIKE RIOT

CITY TERRIFIED BY MINERS

Three Are Shot Dead and Two Dangerously Wounded by Deputies at Johnston, Pa., in Struggle to Prevent Rescue of Arrested Men by Mob and Citizens. Miners Revenge by Means of Dynamite—Bodies of Dead Lying in Streets, Strikers Refusing to Allow Their Removal—Appeal to Governor for Troops.

WAKE FOREST THE VICTOR

INTERESTING EVENT IN RALEIGH

Embryo Students of Georgia and Carolina Discuss the Question of Immigration—Great Crowd Through Academy of Music and College Yells Break the Silence Intervals—The Debate Marks the Beginning of a Series Between the Two Institutions—History of Inter-Collegiate Debates in North Carolina. Special to The Observer.

CONCERNING BELL STRIKE

USUAL OPPOSING CLAIMS MADE

Official of Linemen's Union Asserts That 50 Per Cent. of 1,200 to 1,400 Men Are Out, While Vice President of Telephone Company, Futs Strikers at Only 400—The Debate Was Formally Opened by State Auditor B. F. Dixon, who made a few pleasing remarks. Mr. Liston Jackson, of Dillon, S. C., representing Wake Forest, alternate and secretary, read the question for discussion: "Resolved: That the Southern States should encourage immigrants admitted into this country to settle within their borders."

JOSEPH L. ORR IS DEAD

AN INTERESTING CAREER ENDED

The Call Came Last Evening at 5:30 O'clock—The Funeral To-Morrow Afternoon—The Surviving Relatives—Was 71 Years Old and Had Served Honorably in the Civil War, Was an Army and Navy Veteran of Chancellorsville—Served on the City Police Force 40 Years. Assistant Chief of Police Joseph L. Orr died at his home at No. 316 South Poplar street last evening at 5:30 o'clock, death resulting from slow paralysis. He had been in declining health for more than a year, but had been confined to his bed only about three weeks. The funeral services will be conducted at the residence to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Martin D. Hardin, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. William Duncan, pastor of the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian church. The funeral will be attended by a large number of Confederate veterans, which will march to the grave as an escort of honor. The active pall-bearers will be members of the city police force.

IMPORTANT BILLS PASSED

FREE ALCOHOL MEASURE ONE

House Also Votes Amendment to Trade Mark Law; Prohibition of Falsely Stamped Articles of Gold or Silver in Commerce; Postponement of Application of Shipping Laws to Philippines, and Permission to National Banks to Increase Loan Limit—Vote on Denatured Alcohol Bill 224 to 7—Speaker Announces New Quorum Rule.

NEW RAILWAY CHARTERED

GREENSBORO TO HIGH POINT

Mr. James Sprunt Makes an Interesting Addition to the Hall of History—Improvements to the Governor's Office—Laying Off Permanent Encampment Grounds at Morchett City—Two Minor Conventions Chartered—News Notes of the State Capitol.

TO HONOR CHAS. B. AYCOCK

SLATED FOR IMPORTANT POINT

The President, in a Sald, Will Appoint Fessenden Green to Membership on the Commission to the Pan-American Conference—Commissioner Yerkes is Called to Greensboro to Testify for the Government in the Blackburn Case.

TEXTILE EXCELSIOR LEASED.

Mr. W. C. Dowd, Editor of The News, Leases This Desirable Property for a Term of Years—To Take Immediate Possession.

COLLEGE YELLS IN EVIDENCE.

During the entire discussion when the Wake Forest men were given the chance they would give college yells and sing college songs to support their speakers. The Mercer men in the audience also supported their speakers with college yells, but of course they were not permitted to sing college songs.

BELL COMPANY'S POSITION.

"The men who struck," said Col. Gentry, vice president of the company, were receiving more money than was demanded by the union. The highest daily wage demanded by the union was $2.75 per day of 9 hours. We are paying our first-class linemen $2.70 per day of 9 hours, giving them two hours of pay on Saturday, for which they receive full pay.

COITAGE GOES UP IN FLAMES.

Shortly before 10 o'clock last night a cottage on Templeton avenue, owned by Mr. W. D. McCorkle and occupied by Mr. Martin Moore, was discovered on fire. The alarm was turned in immediately, but before the firemen could reach the place and succeed in extinguishing the flames, the house was a mass of flames, beyond hope.

NATIONAL BANKS AND POLITICS.

Tillman Introduces Exhaustive Resolution of Inquiry Regarding Campaign Contributions to National Banks and Encounters Failure to Gain Immediate Consideration.

PROF. DOWD AT ELIZABETH.

Delivers Lecture on "Ancient Art"—First of Series to be Delivered at the Institution—A Synopsis of the History of Art.

EMERSON-VAN LEUVEN.

Daughter of President Emerson, of the Atlantic Coast Line, Weds a New Yorker—Simple but Pretty Ceremony in St. John's Church.

GEORGIA BLUE LAW STANDS.

United States Supreme Court Dismisses for Want of Jurisdiction Case Involving Validity of Statute Prohibiting Sunday Freight Trains.

MATTHEWS TO A SANITARIUM.

Greensboro Wife-Slayer Released on Bail—The Case Taken to the Court—Blackburn Trial Begins To-day—Linemen on Strike.

SALISBURY LINEMEN STRIKE.

Cause of Their Disaffection Not Known by Bell Telephone Company—Squire Miller Resents Insult to Womanhood.

NEGRO KILLED IN RACIAL FIGHT

Military Company Ordered Out at Mt. Airy to Preserve the Peace—Victim Shot by One of His Own Color.

INSPECTOR ROGERS IN A NEW ROLE.

Inspector W. B. Rogers, of the C's, was seen by his friends in a new role yesterday. Ed Morrison, a colored citizen, between baseball and home, became too boisterous on a car and was promptly taken in charge by Mr. Rogers, who landed him in the city police station.

MR. J. J. WILLIAMS GOES TO SPARTANBURG.

Mr. J. J. Williams left a few days ago for Spartanburg, S. C., to accept a position with The Herald. As foreman of the composing room of The News, a prominent union printer, Mr. Williams played a very conspicuous part in the activities of Charlotte for a season. He is well-known as a member of that non-political municipal club, the police, fire and health commission.

A PRIZE LOT TO BE GIVEN.

But Two More Sales of Lots in Craighhead Park—The Big Gift.

THE DOUBLE WEDDING LAST NIGHT.

The much-talked-of double wedding took place at the Salvation Army Hall, 404 South College street, last night. Four of the younger members of the local post, Mr. Henderson D. Satterfield and Miss Viola Bloom, and Mr. Walter D. Phillips and Miss Addie Porter were married beneath American flags by Army flags the striking ceremony being performed by Maj. John Berryman, of Atlanta, Ga. The hall was filled with interested spectators, even the standing room being occupied.

GIVEN UP BY RIVER AT LAST.

Body of Wealthy Young Pennsylvania Lumberman Found in the Watauga River After Three Months of Drugging and Battering.

REWARD FOR THE BODY.

Body of George C. Luppert, the wealthy young Pennsylvania lumberman who was drowned in the Watauga river near the Luppert lumber operations at Butler, Tenn., three months ago, was today recovered from the river by Mrs. Isaac Satep, who it is said, had been searching for the body since it was washed to the shore upon the impulse of a dream of the night before and found the body almost entirely covered with sand.

REWARD FOR THE BODY.

Body of George C. Luppert, the wealthy young Pennsylvania lumberman who was drowned in the Watauga river near the Luppert lumber operations at Butler, Tenn., three months ago, was today recovered from the river by Mrs. Isaac Satep, who it is said, had been searching for the body since it was washed to the shore upon the impulse of a dream of the night before and found the body almost entirely covered with sand.

REWARD FOR THE BODY.

Body of George C. Luppert, the wealthy young Pennsylvania lumberman who was drowned in the Watauga river near the Luppert lumber operations at Butler, Tenn., three months ago, was today recovered from the river by Mrs. Isaac Satep, who it is said, had been searching for the body since it was washed to the shore upon the impulse of a dream of the night before and found the body almost entirely covered with sand.

REWARD FOR THE BODY.

Body of George C. Luppert, the wealthy young Pennsylvania lumberman who was drowned in the Watauga river near the Luppert lumber operations at Butler, Tenn., three months ago, was today recovered from the river by Mrs. Isaac Satep, who it is said, had been searching for the body since it was washed to the shore upon the impulse of a dream of the night before and found the body almost entirely covered with sand.

REWARD FOR THE BODY.

Body of George C. Luppert, the wealthy young Pennsylvania lumberman who was drowned in the Watauga river near the Luppert lumber operations at Butler, Tenn., three months ago, was today recovered from the river by Mrs. Isaac Satep, who it is said, had been searching for the body since it was washed to the shore upon the impulse of a dream of the night before and found the body almost entirely covered with sand.