Series of Talks of Elizabeth College.

In a second lecture last evening, Prof. Joycome Dowd, who occupies the chair of sociology at the University of Wisconsin, continued his talk on the history of art. After a brief resume of the tendencies underlying the art of the middle ages, the expression that was given to the melancholic and deeply religious spirit of the period, Prof. Dowd Introduced the subject of the Renaissance, the next vitalizing movement in the history of aesthetics, confining his discussion is its particular.

Mr. Charles J. Parker, secretary of the North Caroline Summer School, at West Raleigh, has secured Prof Alexander Graham, superintendent of the Charlotte graded acheol, to teach the coming season. Prof. Graham will address the summer school on "How to Study History from Original Sources." He will have the opening hour each morning. In brief compass Prof. Dowd showed that it was in Italy that the remnant of classic culture had been preserved, and that from Italy as a mother country all that modern Europe includes as culture—university life, painting, sculpture, literature—had its origin. ture, literature—had its origin,

But in time the impulse of this "new birth" died away. The spirit of sculp-ture had given place to mere technical skill, while in architecture, painting and literature, beauty became the thing sought for instead of truth. Modern the middle ages, while aiming at the pleasure-loying of the Renatsance, un-til only the external and materialistic form the individual's ideal. Certain tendencies are apparent in modern life—an increased humanity, an alertness to sensuous impressions and a dencies are represented in the decadent art of to-day. It is music, however, which is best adapted to meet the modern problems and through which the restless twentieth century

A. & M. COLLEGE ANNUAL OUT.

will find its consolation, its highest

"Agromeck" One of the Handsomes Publications Ever Seen in Char-lotte—Dedicated to Dr. D. H. Hill. 'Agromeck," the annual published by the senior class of the North Car-olina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, is just from the presses of The Observer Printing House. Those who have seen it declare it to be of the best ever issued by a Southern college. The book contains more than pages of reading matter, all of which is printed on the very best grade of enamel paper. The cover is cloth, with the title, "Agromeck, 1906," stretching across the orange and black front in heavy gilt letters. The vol-ume is dedicated to Dr. Daniel Harvey Hill, in appreciation of the great service which he has rendered the college, while sholding the chair of English, since its foundation, and of his kindness to the students."

One of the most marked features of the volume is the exceptional excellence of the cuts. The half tones are well nigh perfect, a mark of careful selection and superior printing. The first illustration is a Gibson head, which the artist kindly drew especially for the publication. The volume throughout evidences painstaking effort on the part of the editors and publishers. "Agromeck" deserves to rank as one of the most complete annuals issued by a Carolina institution in recent years. The fact is worthy of note that the books were promised May 1st. Deliv-ery was made April 26th. Immediateon receipt of them, Mr. Lewis T. Winston, business manager, wired the Mrs. J. G. Hollenbeck entertained informally at bridge this afternoon in good condition. Workmanship excel-

Attracting Saturday Shoppers Our Way

Another free concert will be given at the Charlotte music store this evening at 3 o'clock. This will afford the public an opportunity to hear the new Victor records for May, and judging from the large attendance of last week's concert there will be a capacity house to-night. We are aiming to make every Saturday's business bigger than the last. Last week we did the best business we ever had in the spring. For to-day our budget of bargains is unusually interesting. We have the biggest and best stock our store has ever held, and to put this Saturday's business away in the lead of all past records, the very thing you want most, Right Now, will be offered at prices that will surely tempt you to buy.

Perhaps there's no department in our store receiving quite so much of our attention as the Millinery section. We are pushing it good and hard these days—have added new Milli-ners—and in every way improved both the work and service, and our customers have shown their appreciaion and admiration of our 1906, Hats by buying more of them than we have ever sold during any previous season.

Now, about To-Day. Our Milliners have been planning some special Hats for to-day's selling. Hats suitable for women and girls of all ages, from the jaunty sailor to the more elegant creations.

NOW, AS TO THE PRICE (always an important feature.) We are ready to prove our oft repeated statement that we can sell you a Hat to please your taste and fancy and SAVE YOU MONEY. READY-MADE SKIRTS.

Selling more of these all the time, because we have a good stock of carefully selected, popular priced skirts. We guarantee the styles and quality to be correct.

Our skirts are correctly cut and properly tailored. Popular prices, $6.00. $6.50 and $7.00. With some lower and a few higher
